z310cowmisfitaprime is better than me but not by much.

look at the picture he posted:

To me it has mood, tone, complexity - to me its art.
Yours are graphics - it just looks good

To me aprime's is better, though cow yours are great. If you two had a contest to compete aginst each other for graphics - aprime will win.

[sorry for the double post]

How can you compare your work to mine? Your just a bunch of filter whores!

Complex editing in the bridge photo, didn't just colored it you know, same thing goes for Virgin-Stock's photo (which is by the way the hoooooooottttttttteeeeeeeessssstttttt girl I've seen).

On a side note, Madtone "pwnz" me, and so does Aphex.

Aphex has alot of talent, the kind of talent that any company is looking for, I surely think he could find a good career in the design buisness (I'm not displaying the work he's done for me for safe reasons)

Madtone is the strangest designer I've seen, has talent in everything, average professional designer...AND photographer...But also alot busy.
We've always understood each other I think, he's one of my favorite kangaroo lover .

Hehe...
