I was browsing trough the list of stories hoping to find a name i came across in a game... then... right there on page 42..... Laser555

I was like WTF! Then, when I read the story i thought.... oh that time!

What it says in the story is true... at least the last part.

I did plant the last ones cuz I was sick of bieng accused of something i didnt do. The other ones on the mather... those wernt me...

Thanks... now that thats cleared out... have a nice day.
