ACK if you would like to come on TS and talk on BHP or MP, I would be more than happy too. I'll make us a room and lock it so WE can talk this out like adults. All trolling a side. I'll be up there like I am every night, let me know when you're on and I'll set it up for us.

Also on the MMA thing not working, It works enough to the point that I had to go down town and registered with the city/state. So if I ever fight out side the ring or cage, then they can charge me for what ever charges they pick me up for and add on assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. So if I'm right, I believe that comes hand and hand with charge of attempted murder. Of course depending on how bad the fight is.

P.s. ACK if you don't want to come to the MP or BHP ones, send me the info and I'll come to one that you choose.
