You guys don't even know how to operate that fucking server. None of you guys had ANYTHING TO DO WITH IT, it was Cronus and I working on it for a week straight trying to fix the crashes, trying to have it setup perfectly - just for you fucks to steal it. Those VPS customers, I wish them luck considering you guys don't know shit LOL. I bet the support will be friendly though

I'll even show you over teamviewer what I mean, I literally did everything with that PayPal, including transferring money from my own bank account to that PayPal to pay bills to keep "your" (haha) community alive.

Wants logs of that? Want logs of me buying food off GrubHub?

Hey let's switch paypal accounts! I bet mine has more money lol
