Oh hey finally the bootleg-RC bandwagon is coming along!

@dronez Realistically drones are controlled by humans - to an extent they're automated but fucked without a person controlling them. Even in movies (Iron Man 3, Terminators, whatever the fuck you want) - way to not even deny the fact you begged for masters computer only to sell it. what did you do, buy weed with it too? howd you end up with a $600 gfx card and a celeron CPU anyways? hows stealing public code from snippit and shit and claiming it as your own? i remember the responses your bot made, you fucking made up words thinking they exist LOL

@shaitan should i bring up old history with you and your pedo ways? or should i bring up the times when you claimed you could hack/ddos haha youre a funny guy keep talking out of your ass

@italy you're irrelevant have a nice life constantly sucking people off - anyone who can make you feel important right?
