I know he was playing a joke on me. I think it would be pretty much obvious. I was just saying that fl00d3d's bullshit about me trying to hijack serials is a piece of BULLSHIT. That screenshot shows Kamuix giving off a serial. And I would like fl00d3d's bullshit to STOP.

As for the UPD Flooding, it has stoped to BlackIntel's server.dat, much <333 to BlackIntel!!!!!!!

and y do you have the name Animosity on msn? you are not him...

you also registered the name lccy on your forums as posted as him as a direct rip off from lccyTouch and please answer my previous question:

I am saying You and/or your friends did it. Because EVER since I put up the server on the nick, I have seen people that are moderators from your servers, come into my server, and say shit about how I run it, and how well AO runs it. You know damn right it is you or your friends. And I will get proof one day, and show you the lier scum bag you are. I suggest leaving this topic open, so when I get more proof, I will put it here.

Also, for your Next Generation, yeah, it was on my site, but I NEVER OFFERED IT FOR ANY TYPE OF PROFIT. I thought it would be cool having RDP to the box. But really, your Next Gen never made me thought for 1 sec that it is productive in any type of aspect. Because it is only a hype to get a server from a company hosting around 20 people on a p4 3.2ghz and a p4 3.6ghz with 1GB Ram each. I would just like to make that clear, since people don't know why their servers keep on lagging. But back to the point. I never actually put my version of "Next Gen" on the market or to make a profit off of it. I simply just added their temporarily.

So, you started this bullshit from the beginning. First you reported me to Teamspeak piracy ppl that I was seling TS2 for a profit, WHICH WAS NEVER ON MY SITE... Then you perposly outbid me for kamuix's login, then your friend DarkSbhxx or some shit like that, kept on coming to drkstudios irc, trying to irritate me, saying I suck at hosting, etc. etc., and then you wanted me to remove the template that was copied off your site, which I do admit to right then and there. I simply left you alone from there, then when I got the nick back, this shit all started to come to me. So, apparently, your to young to realize you can't accept to be treated the way you treat others.

Okay, so this is drama between highschool-aged teenagers. Oh boy.

Why doesn't everybody just go 'lol' and then forget everything happened? It's not going to benefit you one way or the other by blowing things out of proportion. Calling people out and making accusations is only going to increase drama which makes it annoying for everybody especially those that have nothing to with the situation yet have to hear about it, anyways.

Also, instead of making situations public, they'd be much better off being handled privately. Making something public only asks to pull in random people to take sides and creates more drama. There's no point to that.

Everybody should just go to their own separate corners of the internet. If you must be stupid, go running out in the middle of a busy street. Don't spread your bullshit online.

His explanation was that, he was a victim of identity theft, which I thought was bullshit at first. Then I really didn't know/didn't care.

And in his gf's place, I was just stating he's a bum because he has a gf supporting him. Which in my opinion, should be vice versa.

For the record, fl00d3d NEVER told us that you were trying to steal everyone's nicknames or whatever. I know that you are in the habit of ripping people's work off without giving credit. Not only did you steal Nightma12's crap content and introduce ever more typos, but then you ripped off a website template that someone designed and changed the credit to your name. (I know this because I happen to use the same exact layout for my blog but I left the credit on there)

I apologize for my fashionably late entry into this discussion. I promised a lot of people I would be up and about at 12 noon my time, and here I am about 5hrs late. Apparently there has been a huge discussion about me while I was gone so I will defend all my point here.

- 1- There is a thread about this in the server owners discussion for anyone interested in reading some of the details which I will repeat here.
- 2- "Teh-pwnerer" (stolen) aka. "Iccytouch" (stolen) aka. "Animosity" (stolen) has a habit -as Crimson has so kindly pointed out to support me- of stealing other people's ideas.
- 3- When I first started talking with this guy (herein referred to by his first name 'Greg'), he told me that he was 23 years old. I am 25. It wasn't until after the merger was complete that he admitted to me that he was 15 (which I have recently learned from his friend/new Co-owner of RenCorner that he is younger than that). At that point I was hesitant, but since he admitted it to me I decided to give him another chance. Being so young I inquired about how he ran his "business" and even offered to send legal paperwork to his parents.
- 4- He claims that he had no interest in taking Kamuix's serials but he does. Since this issue has been addressed (server owners thread) I do not feel the need to discuss it any further.
- 5- He suggests that I am somehow associated with the UDP flooding of his server without considering the fact I was one of the people that was openly discussing possible ways of helping server owners fix the problem months ago. Your accusation is about as retarded as people saying BHS makes cheats.
- 6- I left you. And I have the MSN conversation and two witnesses to prove it (Justin Schultz was on MSN before I left, during my message to you on MSN, and after - and I was talking to him the whole time I was doing it. My fiancée who lives with me was also awake and next to me on her computer when I was going through all of this and she was witness to it.) I left almost 12 hours before you even KNEW I was going to leave. YOu have some balls to lie about that.

9/1/2006 11:16:00 PM fl00d3d (F) Teh-Pwnerer I have locked you out of everything and you are no longer welcome. Bye!

9/2/2006 10:59:42 AM (F) Teh-Pwnerer fl00d3d Well, thanks for nothing, have fun with your community, don't ever talk to me again, I hope you starve to death. And I want my $30 to go into teh-pwn0r@hotmail.com now. Failure to comply will result in me contacting paypal and taking this to the fullest extent of the law. Thanks.

7- The $30 payment he's referring to is a payment made by JSchultz to my PayPal. I asked Justin what he wanted me to do with it, and he said 'keep it'.

8- I have an old paypal account that hasn't been used in awhile. It had a negative balance of about $122 when I entered into this relationship with him. He agreed to bring the balance back to zero in exchange for joint use of the account since I had a paypal debit card associated with it.

9- I recently moved FROM Maryland to Illinois because of a pretty serious family issue - and moved back TO Maryland about 2 months ago. This left my fiancée and I without jobs, and we were being watched over by her father which generously provided us with the necessities for the last couple of months. I explained most of this to Greg and he offered $50 so that I could get my own food so I didn't have to bother my fiancée's father. The fact that he's going this low in a public forum is a true testament to his immaturity.

10- When we were still together he was creating a Rencorner website and Frontlines website even though we agreed to use the Tsunami website and a new "CWN" website for business. This caught my suspicions and when I left him a few days later I removed any work that I had done to his RenCorner website and forums. He asks you to compare communities and as you will notice I have a fully developed community with 4 clans (one of which just joined the other day) and a series of active forums. When you look at Rencorner you see mostly two people talking to each other ... himself and his friend "Kry" (Tyler).

That about sums up my side of the story.

I would also like to add, however, a few more things to consider: I have the confidence of a lot of people in this community - whereas he does not. I went to the server owners forum a few days after the split to "courtesy notify" other server owners of some of the issue related to this and NEVER made a single post or "anti-Greg" post/comment in the public area for anyone to see. He has now done just that.

off and flame you for some of the ignorant things you said because I am hoping that this post will clear any questions you had in your mind.

Summary:

--fl00d3d goes to buy server from 'someone'
--'someone' says he is 23 years old and wants to do business with fl00d3d
--fl00d3d and 'someone' do business, then it comes out that 'someone' is actually 15
--fl00d3d forgives 'someone' because he came clean unprompted and seemed determined to clean up his act
--'someone' continued to be unprofessional and irresponsible so fl00d3d left him

And the whole time I was in regular dialog with Crimson and other server owners.

His post is just a ridiculous lie and exaggeration, in an attempt to save him some face in the community.

You do not know me nor do you know much about me. I am not going to go off and flame you for some of the ignorant things you said because I am hoping that this post will clear any questions you had in your mind.

Recap of what I've said:

- some random online idiot
- i wouldn't trust anything you say
- something's not quite right about merging/associating with a 14/15 year old
- i feel sorry for those who associate with you

I think every random person that I hear of is some online idiot until I know differently. Be it fair or not, that's how it works. It doesn't take a lot to change my mind, albeit.

If I don't know you, why would I trust what you (or Teh-Pwnerer) have to say?

A 25 y/o being "business partners" (or whatever you'd like to call it) with a 15 y/o. Granted, you didn't know the true information, but if you go anything indepth with someone, you better know more personal information than just what one says.

I said assuming that Pwnerer was telling the truth. Obviously I only knew the tip of the iceberg when he mentioned that you asked him for money. That was just a conclusion I came to based off of that slight information. Knowing 15 year-olds, I don't tend to accept what they say is fact. Sorry if there was any misunderstanding with that.

Edit: After reading your post, I have this to say:

Disclaimer: These are no attacks on your character. Simply questions I have.

Why would you offer joint use of a PayPal account attached to a debit card? I've been running networks/communities with xptek for a couple years now, and neither of us have access to anything of the sort. Even if he was to offer me money in exchange for access... especially $122. I have far more than that in my bank account, and I wouldn't dare dream of allowing someone to have an indirect access to it through PayPal.

Why would you give a 15 year old another chance regardless of his "coming clean"? This deals with money, and I'd be scared shitless to know that a 15 year old has access to my money.

Lastly, moving sucks when you have to go such a distance, but why leave without obtaining jobs first? I'm planning on a big move, but I am forcing myself to secure a job before I move. shrug

As for Greg, I'd just wash my hands of him. His credibility quickly fell apart in this thread. I gave too much belief into his original post, but that ended quickly. His accusations dissolved.

Worry about your community and your life more than some random rich, spoiled 15 y/o who has yet to mature.

You kept on saying to everyone, that I am here to steal Tsunami-Alliance's "Community Ideas" whereas, in my community, we don't run ANYTHING close to what you have, nor do I want to. The #1 reason that he has left me or i have left him is because RenCorner was shutdown during the merge process, I was very pissed off, he was calm, during the merge process, he has begun to get pissed off more and more everyday, which begun to be very irritating, and so I have decided to ignore him a bit every day, because I was sick and tired of how things were running since we have merged. Now that RenCorner is back up, obviously I won't be accepting / making any new merges, because I have enough of this. Instead I have teamed up with Justin, who has paid fl00d3d $30, my $30 which I have ran Justin's server through. And I would like that $30 back because I have earned it through hosting. fl00d3d, this has nothing to do with our communities, or our businesses, it is about you telling people about me trying to hijack serials, which is untrue. Ask Kamuix, I had to buy him a whole box for the nick. So if I am accused of serial hijacking, just as Kamuix, he has never supplied me or anyone with a legit serial to his login[s]. If I would have had his serial, obviously he would know, and he would tell the Administrators of XWIS / BHS, and they would ban me from everywhere they can. Kamuix is not stupid, he would know the right thing to do. fl00d3d, do not start any bullshit which isn't true, because obviously, exegeration is not one of my things. Everything that I have posted was true, about you, and the server attacks, is true. You said you would tell everyone about my real age, which I have mentioned myself above, and that I was planning on stealing serials from Kamuix. I wanted to make this clear to everyone before anyone does blame me for shit that never happened. I can provide screenshots to the logs of him saying he would try his best to get me screwed over via hijacking serials.

I said assuming that Pwnerer was telling the truth. Obviously I only knew the tip of the iceberg when he mentioned that you asked him for money. That was just a conclusion I came to based off of that slight information. Knowing 15 year-olds, I don't tend to accept what they say is fact. Sorry if there was any misunderstanding with that.

I couldn't have said it better. You should have known the consinquences merging with a kid 10 years younger then you. Well when someone calls me an idiot and personally attacks me like you did I'm obviously going to get upset. I don't go around calling people idiots unless they prove to be one.

It wasn't the best decision in the world to try and do 'business' (not really business, but joint community work, since it isnt a licensed business). But in my defense I was lied to up front about his age and when he confessed I felt more sympathy than I probably should have.

When I left you I said "best of luck" and could have given a shit less what happened to you. You're just digging yourself a deeper hole every time you post, and here is why:

1- Are you finally admitting that I did leave you? Why did you lie to the community? Or were you just caught in a lie?

2- Don't even try to blame me for attacking your servers. I'm not even going to suggest a screenshot or some kind of proof because even if you could figure out how, you'd have to doctor it because there is no way in hell that an adult and professional analyst like myself would kiddy-script attack your silly gameserver.

3- The $30 was sent to me, in my personal paypal, from Justin Schultz, and Justin Schultz told me to keep it. So it will not be returned. Regardless of what kind of story you want to wrap around it. But in regards to that story, you may want to ask Justin how he feels about it rather than speaking on his behalf.

4- My community has a lot to offer. And you have always been jealous of it. Originally you were to have a high position of authority but I didn't see that was appropriate for someone of your age and under some of the circumstances so I gave you a moderate one. And you still pissed people off. What do you have to benefit from creating the EXACT forums that I had? Because you did it. And I had to remove it the night that I left you. You DID try to copy me. Not to mention you have a compulsive addiction to copying others. That's proof enough right there.

fl00d3dWell when someone calls me an idiot and personally attacks me like you did I'm obviously going to get upset. I don't go around calling people idiots unless they prove to be one. Why get upset over something some random online person says? Especially since they don't know you. I may just include the unknown people into the category of "idiot", but once I have some contact with said person, I usually change my mind... unless, of course, the person is, indeed, an idiot.

A 15 y/o touching my money? That should throw up a red flag regardless of sympathy. I know what it's like to want to forgive someone and believe them, but when my money's involved... hell no. o_O

I think what he meant is that the PayPal account had a debit card, as in, a debit card that took from the paypal account. I have two of them myself. You have to have a good standing with PayPal to get one, so if he had an account with one, it was worth trying to keep.

fl00d3d is completely in the rights to defend himself here because he's trying to run a company selling game servers and when someone attacks his reputation, he has a responsibility to defend it.

Edit: After reading your post, I have this to say:

Disclaimer: These are no attacks on your character. Simply questions I have.

Why would you offer joint use of a PayPal account attached to a debit card? I've been running networks/communities with xptek for a couple years now, and neither of us have access to anything of the sort. Even if he was to offer me money in exchange for access... especially $122. I have far more than that in my bank account, and I wouldn't dare dream of allowing someone to have an indirect access to it through PayPal.

Why would you give a 15 year old another chance regardless of his "coming clean"? This deals with money, and I'd be scared shitless to know that a 15 year old has access to my money.

Lastly, moving sucks when you have to go such a distance, but why leave without obtaining jobs first? I'm planning on a big move, but I am forcing myself to secure a job before I move. shrug

As for Greg, I'd just wash my hands of him. His credibility quickly fell apart in this thread. I gave too much belief into his original post, but that ended quickly. His accusations dissolved.

Worry about your community and your life more than some random rich, spoiled 15 y/o who has yet to mature.

After going back and noticing your edit, I find it necessary (in defense of myself) to answer your questions as I have nothing to hide.

--Crimson hit a good point about paypal debit cards. You have to maintain a good standing with PayPal to get and retain one. Teh-Pwnerer ...you have some damn balls. There is NO reason that my name should have been brought into this.

From what I saw, watching fl00d deal with all this on a daily basis, he was lied to on several occasions, manipulated and disrespected.

He decided to try and help you out and you fucked him over.

Let's get another record straight: the house WE live in is OUR house, I don't support anyone, fl00d supports himself and I simply help out in the community as much as possible. And keep my parents out of this as well...I haven't eaten out of their hand since I was 17...moved out on my OWN and got a job of my OWN.

You want to talk business? I'm highly trained in business/communications and you certainly don't run a business effectively. In order to do so, one must maintain integrity, honesty and trust. Word is bond, not something to manipulate.

I chose to be with fl00d because he possesses such credentials, in addition to being a very strong and intelligent individual. I'd do business with him on Wall Street on any day of the week.

fl00d is 25...about 10 years experience on "Iccy." Nuff said.

Bring my name into this one more time...I'm not a person to fuck with.

As for the edit made by j_ball430...

My point in this thread was to clear some rumors that were going around, about exposing the people that were attacking my people (still to be proven) and to say that fl00d3d has been starting rumors that I was planning on hijacking serials (solved)

I have made my point, and I believe the rest of this shit was added onto the subject.

I would like to apologize to Metal Vixen for her name being pointed out in this discussion, which shouldn't have been in the first place. As for fl00d3d, I really don't care about any of this shit, as it has unaffected me emotionally, physically, and finicially. What has been said, was said, and when I come up with some kind of more proof of who has been attacking my server, will be shown later on.

Thank you for your considerations, jball I'm glad we are seeing more eye-to-eye now. I was wondering if that's what having a PayPal debit card meant, but I figured it might have been similar to the setup that I have. I have my account connected to my bank account (and credit card, so instant transfers), so if I was to have a debit card, it'd be linked to my bank account, wouldn't it? I'm guessing that I kind of figured that might have been the case, too.

From what I gathered, I figured that there was dealing with finances in your association with him. That was my mistake. I can see the willingness to forgive and forget under those circumstances.

I bet that to be fun. Glad to see you're back on your feet.

I understand the obligation to dispel these rumors. I would do the same if I was in that position. Ignoring public issues isn't that great of an idea.

PayPal can be connected to your credit card, bank account / debit card, and PayPal has its own debit card that is available when you request one. So when you get the PayPal Debitcard, PayPal would be like an online bank account. I don't know much about it, if you need some help, support@paypal.com

Im done with all of this, I told fl00d3d keep the 30 dollars, theres way to much drama involved with all this. Im trying to keep my nose clean, and run my server, and cant do it by being involved with all of this.

I have shut my server down on the box teh-pwnerer, you were paid for the server running on the a000000ic name, so I expect it to stay online.

I dont wanna be involved in whatever is going on with all of this.

There was talk of stealing of serials by greg, I was told that by numerous people, its a battle over an a000 name, and its not worth all this trouble, people stealing others website templates and everything else.

Fl00d3d was told to keep the money, that where I stand on this situation, I told teh-pwnerer Id idnt like the other people he was involved with, such a KrY aka Tyler Rivera.

I do know that fl00d3d left greg, cuz I knew it before Greg did. Ive learned through all the crap ive been through, its a game, and it isnt worth all this trouble, Ive made my mistakes, and I deal with my rep everyday. But greg, my advice is to drop the whole thing, let it go, and dont bury yourself in it.

Greg wether your server was attacked or not, I dont know, but UDP floods arent somethign to throw around with accusations, unless you know who did it. Been there done that. Not a pretty sight.

Let it go, and start fresh. Thats my take on the whole situation.

Greg might have apologized to you, but he still hasn't apologized to me for creating this ridiculous thread and working up a lot of people.

Greg: Don't try to resolve my issues with anyone else - especially on these forums. I'm big enough of a man to hold my own weight and I don't need your help. jball and I had a miscommunication and it has been fixed. And don't try to run from this thread now that the truth has been put on the table and you look like a complete ass. I think that is what Crimson was laughing about.

Jball: My paypal has three checking accounts and one credit card bound to the account - so I know what you're talking about. But I do not wire money back and forth from my checking accounts ... I simply use the PayPal debit card which takes the funds directly from the PayPal account. Much more convenient for keeping track of business expenses (especially since the checking accounts are personal). And don't listen to Greg and his advice about PayPal. If he was so pro with it he would have an account that was older than 2 months, confirmed by adding at least one verifiable proof of identity, and would have been able to manage the business finances from the get go. Instead he has an unverified account and a security flag by PayPal (that I still don't know what it's for).

holy fuck you people are retarded

I hope you're not including anyone but Greg in that inclusive statement. There is a valid discussion/debate going on here and plenty of intelligent inputs ... so for you to jump in out of nowhere like that is a bit ignorant. The thread was started by "Greg" and I think he's just ended it by making of fool of himself.

Crimson, please keep this thread open until he decides to come clean about everything. Otherwise I'll just continue to throw evidence and support from others into his face until he shuts up. He started this thread, he can end it one way or another. The choice is his. But I don't want my name being ruined because some 15? year old kid decides to lie.

If I go to pay for something via PayPal and don't have the money in the account (as usually is the case), it does an instant transfer, taking it out of my bank account (and/or credit card). Wouldn't this be the case on the PayPal account with the debit card? If you make a purchase and don't have enough in the PayPal account, it takes the money out of said banking/checking account? If so, I bring up the point about allowing a 15 year old with that money, or is that what the restrictions included?

Not only was he restricted to only requesting money to be added to the account (ie. requesting payments from customers) but the checking accounts were old and closed. They were verified in the past and PayPal knows no different - so he couldnt possibly get money out of them.

Not to mention, I dont think bank account -> paypal transfers are instant. I believe they take 2-3 business days. Paypal -> PayPal is instant ... and so is using a PayPal debit card on the internet (deducts from your paypal account balance).

When we lost the A00000004 login, I simply stated "Yeah, Kamuix gave me his serial, ROFL." Then you said "?, change the pw then..." And as it has been mentioned before on my part, if I had any serial to any login, and they would see somone else, they would report it, find me using it, and ban me for life. I see there is no point in hell why I would want to do it, wouldn't anyone want to do it AND get away with it? Sure. But that isn't how things are run here.

Let's address the post that started this since your're so dodgy:

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

Alright, #1 is when fI00d3d is telling people about "my plan to hijack all serials and get all the xwis nicks" As much as I would like to do that, I would obviously be FUCKED and screwed out of the renegade community really badly. And I love playing renegade, so really, I would recieve no benefit at ALL from this. I also have a screenshot proving that Kamuix provided a fake serial to his A00000004 login (which I now have because I bought Kamuix a box for it.)

Your plan was to take control over the serial. You're denying it. WTF-ever. You won't be able to, so at this point I don't even care about it anymore.

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

And now, Nightma and his buddies are UPD Flooding my servers.

Proof? You've totally dodged this topic. No one is attacking any of your servers. Admit that you just decided to throw it in here to spice up your argument.

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

So they are really immature for doing this. I have no intent of getting any of the logins anyway, because Renegade doesn't support much to businesses when in means of finicial wise.

That's the only thing that "Frontlines-Hosting" (copied from Frontlines-Gaming) sells.

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

#2 - I do realize I have a bad name in the renegade community, because you all trust "Nightma12" and "fI00d3d", who have the power to kick anyone in the arse with a lie that everyone would believe from this. I am SICK and TIRED of all this, lol? Maybe if you weren't stealing everyone identities, websites, and business being a little prick people would care what comes out of your mouth!

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

I even has proof of caveman telling me he's going to try to hack my servers.

Again ... proof?

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

The point here is, that we should do something about "Nightma" and his little squad of kiddie friends, who once they get stabbed in the back, they have to randomly "UPD Flood" servers and such, I have people joining my servers saying "wow, if I ran a server this gay, I would shoot myself in the head" and this is getting on my nerves.

I know from previously working with you that you just switched to new servers. Perhaps your change of hardware, network, and/or OS settings are to blame for your servers' performance?

Teh-Pwnerer wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 15:02

#3 - I left FL00D3D he did not leave ME. I left him because he had a $122+ debt in his paypal account and then he wanted me to send him $20 or something for FOOD unless he would starve, I would have no problem giving him $20 for food, but my paypal was fucked, and at the time, I did not have $122 to pay off his gay debts.

I left you pal. And I proved that in my previous post. Not to mention I have witnesses. And the financial situation was explained as well. But nice try at stooping low for an easy kill: didn't work!

#4 Fl00ded is accusing me of stealing his "Tsunami-Alliance" Community ideas. Personally, I wouldn't give a rats ass if he did something so cool to his community, it would bring like 999999999999999999 people to it. Look at his community @ www.tsunami-alliance.com and look at mine www.rencorner.net see the difference? His community even has a "bible" that they stand by. My community? It fucking runs on its own.

That last sentence doesn't make much sense, but you do have something to gain by knowing what I told you about how my system works. And you did take the forums that I created on RenCorner that forwarded to my forums and alter them in such a way that they were regular forums rather than links to mine - leaving an exact copy of my forums on your site. Which I removed before I left.

#5 Server Attacks - ever since I got back a000000004 from Kamuix, its either Nightma or his friends attacking my servers, and I am getting SICK AND FUCKING TIRED of the stupid UPD Flooding, every 5 minutes, a dude with an insulting nick says something about my server, then the server crashes. WTF...

You already mentioned this - but like I said above, where is your proof? You've lied about so many other things, why wouldn't you lie about this too?

fl00d3d wrote on Wed, 06 September 2006 23:09I apologize for my fashionably late entry into this discussion. I promised a lot of people I would be up and about at 12 noon my time, and here I am about 5hrs late. Apparently there has been a huge discussion about me while I was gone so I will defend all my point here.

- 1- There is a thread about this in the server owners discussion for anyone interested in reading some of the details which I will repeat here.
- 2- "Teh-pwnerer" (stolen) aka. "Iccytouch" (stolen) aka. "Animosity" (stolen) has a habit -as Crimson has so kindly pointed out to support me- of stealing other people's ideas.
- 3- When I first started talking with this guy (herein referred to by his first name 'Greg'), he told me that he was 23 years old. I am 25. It wasn't until after the merger was complete that he admitted to me that he was 15 (which I have recently learned from his friend/new Co-owner of RenCorner that he is younger than that). At that point I was hesitant, but since he admitted it to me I decided to give him another chance. Being so young I inquired about how he ran his "business" and even offered to send legal paperwork to his parents.
- 4- He claims that he had no interest in taking Kamuix's serials but he does. Since this issue has been addressed (server owners thread) I do not feel the need to discuss it any further.
- 5- He suggests that I am somehow associated with the UDP flooding of his server without considering the fact I was one of the people that was openly discussing possible ways of helping server owners fix the problem months ago. Your accusation is about as retarded as people saying BHS makes cheats.
- 6- I left you. And I have the MSN conversation and two witnesses to prove it (Justin Schultz was on MSN before I left, during my message to you on MSN, and after - and I was talking to him the whole time I was doing it. My fiancée who lives with me was also awake and next to me on her computer when I was going through all of this and she was witness to it.) I left almost 12 hours before you even KNEW I was going to leave. YOU have some balls to lie about that.

9/1/2006 11:15:49 PM fl00d3d (F) Teh-Pwnerer Do not send me any money. I do not want it.

9/1/2006 11:16:00 PM fl00d3d (F) Teh-Pwnerer I have locked you out of everything and you are no longer welcome. Bye!

9/2/2006 10:59:42 AM (F) Teh-Pwnerer fl00d3d Well, thanks for nothing, have fun with your community, don't ever talk to me again, I hope you starve to death. And I want my $30 to go into teh-pwn0r@hotmail.com now. Failure to comply will result in me contacting paypal and taking this to the fullest extent of the law. Thanks.

7- The $30 payment he's referring to is a payment made by JSchultz to my PayPal. I asked Justin what he wanted me to do with it, and he said 'keep it'.

8- I have an old paypal account that hasn't been used in awhile. It had a negative balance of about $122 when I entered into this relationship with him. He agreed to bring the balance back to zero in exchange for joint use of the account since I had a paypal debit card associated with it.

9- I recently moved FROM Maryland to Illinois because of a pretty serious family issue - and moved back TO Maryland about 2 months ago. This left my fiancée and I without jobs, and we were being watched over by her father which generously provided us with the necessities for the last couple of months. I explained most of this to Greg and he offered $50 so that I could get my own food so I didn't have to bother my fiancée's father. The fact that he's going this low in a public forum is a true testament to his immaturity.

10- When we were still together he was creating a Rencorner website and Frontlines website even though we agreed to use the Tsunami website and a new "CWN" website for business. This caught my suspicions and when I left him a few days later I removed any work that I had done to his RenCorner website and forums. He asks you to compare communities and as you will notice I have a fully developed community with 4 clans (one of which just joined the other day) and a series of active forums. When you look at Rencorner you see mostly two people talking to each other ... himself and his friend "Kry" (Tyler).

That about sums up my side of the story.

I would also like to add, however, a few more things to consider: I have the confidence of a lot of people in this community - whereas he does not. I went to the server owners forum a few days after the split to "courtesy notify" other server owners of some of the issue related to this and NEVER made a single post or "anti-Greg" post/comment in the public area for anyone to see. He has now done just that.

j_ball430, you also have quite a few things to say about me yet you and I have never had interaction before. You do not know me nor do you know much about me. I am not going to go off and flame you for some of the ignorant things you said because I am hoping that this post will clear any questions you had in your mind.

Summary:

--fl00d3d goes to buy server from 'someone'

--'someone' says he is 23 years old and wants to do business with fl00d3d

--fl00d3d and 'someone' do business, then it comes out that 'someone' is actually 15

--fl00d3d forgives 'someone' because he came clean unprompted and seemed determined to clean up his act

--'someone' continued to be unprofessional and irresponsible so fl00d3d left him

And the whole time I was in regular dialog with Crimson and other server owners.

His post is just a ridiculous lie and exaggeration, in an attempt to save him some face in the community.

i would like to comment this because i am 15 and i have alot of trust in money:

- 1)my mum has told me the pin number to every single one of here debit cards.
- 2) my mum will let me go down and withdraw an amount(mine or not) and trust i havnt sneeked some out.
- 3)if i got offerd access to someones(not my mums) i would always say no.
- 4)i bid alot on ebay, and always pay up.

but my comment on the fact your server got attacked was this:

Unlucky!

you should of used UDP Flood protection idiot.

I have already installed it. fl00d3d, your a dumbass because you continue saying that I blame you for attacking my servers. Ok, I have no proof, I said one day I will.

I will never hack anyone because I would be fucked for doing it.

fl00d3d, just leave me alone. I came here to clear out the rumor that you started, about me stealing serials. I proved it wrong, and that's it.

Ok, so I have a habit for copying things. Big whoop, like you didn't copy the Terms of Service from www.lolomghi.net and put it on your site??

You said I was stealing ideas from Tsunami... Well, look at every aspect of both our communites, they run very differently.

You think you left me first. But you never realized that I have been working on a new site for rencorner, new forums, and a new business site? Just because I never told you, doesn't mean I am working with you.

As I have said before, the reason for this topic has been reached. fl00d3d, if you want to talk, go on msn.

Just out of genuine curiosity, what is is about the Terms of Service from www.reyox.net that makes them so unique that they would be singled out from every single Terms of Service ever made? I only ask this because a Terms of Service document, being the legal document that it is, is most likely something that has been standardized and mass produced. If this is the case, then it wouldn't be stealing, as everyone using exactly the same thing, or one with few differences.

In the world of business, the person who makes it official first gets the bragging rights to who ended it. Simply doing other work for other places doesn't mean it was at an end, despite your reasons for doing said work.

Oh, as for your "I proved that I wasn't trying to take his serial" theory --- two comments on that:

1- You didn't prove anything. All that was proven is that you are UNABLE TO. Not that you didn't want to.

2- You said you came here to dispell a rumor about you stealing serials but that is not all you complained about. You made a nice long rant with 5 separate items. And as I quoted above, you lied about half of those.

Let's keep this thread going - its only hurting you more and more.

BTW - I just wanted to make something else public: The webhosting that you used to bribe Kamuix for his a0000004 nick is MINE. So I don't know if you're running IIS on one of your boxes (which is probably why its being attacked ROFL), but once Kamuix learns that he can get this free PROFESSIONAL webhosting from me - I'm sure that nick will find a new home. Rest in pieces.

According to him he never planned on trying to steal any nicks/serials. He's just trying to clear up that rumor which I apparently started. All I said (in the server owners discussion) is that he had access to Kamuix's serial and had told me that he was going to try and get the serial reset so he would have control over all of the nicknames. Kamuix has informed us that it was a fake serial that he gave him and that there is no thread. I just wanted it cleared up that I wasn't lying about his DESIRE.

I have three quotes from IRC logs that I would like to share. Before each excerpt I will explain what you're about to read.

QUOTE 1: bbence, an admin at rencorner, coming to me admitting that he cheated on N00bstories.

Quote:

[00:36] <bbence> you know how I said I like to burn off the desire to cheat sometimes?

[21:17] <teh-pwnerer> Yes lol

Just more fuel for the fire. Not only is he a little copy cat, immature, con-artist personality -- but he is also an open cheater and employees cheaters for his admins.

I couldn't really see anything in that video to be honest, besides at the very end someone using right click to tear up a sniper and his own stank. I didn't see the name, but if that was him I believe it. He had run to me the day that the new cheats came out and was like "omg new cheats - check out the site" and that was the first time I had actually looked at the fags website and realized how big of a problem this was.

Aside from all of this bullshit, Greg - you're a really low piece of shit to be cheating. And you're even more of a piece of scum to sell gameservers and run a community gameserver that you cheat on.

Mrpirate caught some moderator cheating in some server teh-pwnerer was running (I don't remember the name of it, might have been rencorner) I mean, at first the moderator LIED and said it was "lag" the time he shot him in the fraps video mrp took. Only later did he finally admit to cheating. He was using a cheat to fire about two times as fast as normal. Of course teh-pwnerer didn't demod him or do ANYTHING to punish him, he was still a moderator, and apparently the moderator in question (oh yeah, i think it was bbence) was a cheater before. I just don't understand how server admins can sit there and let moderators cheat in their server, no matter what the situation is. Shouldn't moderators be people who uphold the rules and actually care for the server and the people who play in it?

If I was an admin, I'd AT LEAST demod him, if not, at least make his join message, "I cheated in this server because I'm a fucking douchebag and I suck horribly at this game, so if you think I'm cheating, please report me to my superior." Or, if you are nice You could at least give a poll to the majority of the servers' community and see if they'd accept a douchebag moderator who somehow thinks he's above the law that he can get a certain advantage over everyone else.

And if I was the cheater? I'd step down just because that's such a moronic thing to do.

edit: Proof of bbence cheating. <http://www.freewebs.com/mrpirate/bbence.wmv>

I can vouch for Greg's cheating. I was in game with him when he did it, which made the game miserable to play and annoying.

As I showed fl00d, when I was playing, he was speeding up the vehicles (whatever hack that is) and just manipulating the maps in general.

I just can't stand cheaters, regardless.

I just threw the stuff about bbence in there because he was a long time full mod/admin on RenCorner. Then when I came into the picture I wouldn't put up with the bullshit and made a scene about it. Mods are NOT above the law and I'm sick of that crap. I don't think either of these two would deny cheating -- but I don't want to lose focus of this thread, either, by starting to flame bbence. Greg (teh-pwnerer) created this thread to flame me and he is going to get back what he deserves: painful truth!

edit: oh and Yeah I was just furthing proving that 1. bbence is a cheater and was proven
2. Greg, i don't know if this is one of the NE guys or if he just used one of their nicks, gave him moderation knowing he cheated and 3. Greg didn't do anything when he did cheat.

Which, albeit is not uncommon for server admins and which kind of turned me off this game, where i can't expect a decent game anymore. What's the point of rules in a server if your very own moderators can't even abide by a few simple rules.

He lets his customers go by the way side, while he worries about his servers. So I told him he better fix his customers server. Two days later he comes on irc, replies with the message below

He has absolutely no clue how to run, setup or manage servers. I know from working with him, like stated above, or in a previous thread, hes a 15yr old kid with daddies credit card.

I do advise anyone hosted with him to find and seek out new hosting, I would recommend getting together with nightma12 before using someone like teh-pwnerer.

So the Quote:Some Bullshit I would Like to Clear topic should have been made by fl00d3d and I to let them know what your like, not by you trying to clear your name, cuz you didnt get the job done.

Destroy him. Any idiot that worried about his internet reputation for a gaming community is in need of serious help and should be driven away from the game, so that they can get over whatever it is they feel they need from being accepted.

"Teh-Pwnerer"
Well, because Justin Schultz attacked us, we had to switch irc servers. So we are located in irc.st0rm.net #RenCorner Sorry for the inconvenience this has caused!
<http://rencorner.net/forum/index.php?act=announce&f=13&id=5>

Just thought you'd like to know that, Justin.

I attacked him?
and that caused him to switch irc servers?

Well if by attacking he means, I had SOP status in an irc channel called #rencorner and I switched it to invite only, and made it a secret channel, ok.

All he had to do was remove the setting from the channel, not exactly hard to do.

But I guess if he wants to give me credit for making things rough on him, hes more then welcome.

I just try to run my community in peace, trying to avoid all this shit over and over again. And you keep dragging me into it cause of the stunts you pull. Hopefully you will redeem your shitty rep as b4 for hacking people. Oh, should I also post ss's of when you took over my boxes?

Then in #rencorner on st0rm, you started spamming it, then having a convo with an IRC Op. Also. You hacked my servers, hacked my hosting forums (now replaced) and spam the living hell out of my rencorner forums. The more shit you continue to do, the more shit your getting on your rep. I don't care about mine since everyone here hates me. Atleast people will hate you as well.

He uses iccy to portray iccytouch, because he isnt creative enough to get his own names, just like he uses Animosity, which he took from [NE]Animosity

Now on to the hacking accusations.

I had OP status in that channel because you set me as up one. when we were "partners". But like fl00d3d I decided that was a horrible idea after just a short period of time. Ive never had ircop status on n00bstories, nor will I ever.

So if I banned everyone except you and me, Then why didn't you remove the invite only mode and delete the bans. Prolly cuz you werent smart enough to setup WOLSPY, and I had to walk you through that, therefore you prolly werent smart enough to change channel modes.

Also, I didnt make your "bots" leave your channel, The RCServ1 or whatever it is, was gone when I came in.

Why not post under teh-pwnerer, or did it get banned for trying to impersonate me on these forums.

Also the accusation that I stole money from YOU and your community, is an out right lie. You told bbence, who in turn told j_ballla that I took your donation money, which I would like to see some paypal logs of, which you can kindly post on these forums.

Also, I didnt take over your server boxes. I simply changed the remote desktop passwords and removed some files. Once I was done removing the files, I told you what the passwords were, which I had changed them all to fuckofftp. There was no hacking done idiot. I did not gain access to your boxes by force, nor did I illegally gain access by stealing your passwords, If need be, I can produce the logs of you giving my numerous passwords to the boxes and to the main server matrix account at the planet.

Make sure you can back up your accusations, You wanna run your community in peace, then I suggest you stop telling people shit that didnt happen.

Oh yea, and I didnt hack your hosting forums either, I simply shut them down, which I also had admin rights on those forums. Therefore, you got owned, not hacked n00b.

Can we just ban this loser already? Err, I mean - again?

First he starts this thread, loses his argument by means of the opposing side's proof, then impersonates another forum user and gets banned. Now he's back under a different name and still stirring things up - and continuing to lie even more.

Just before I left RenCorner I did a similar thing with IRC. I was the channel owner and I kicked everyone out and told him to find a new server. This was on n00bstories IRC, btw. In the situation with Justin, he was offered a position as "equal" and given many accesses. So if it was his channel or if he had the authority to close the channel, what has he done wrong? Find somewhere else.

The kid is busy with school, has no time to run his server ... so he hands it off to a customer (Justin, at the time) and a convicted cheater (bbence/Ace/W0lfgang - all the same guy). Then when one of them leaves, he feels the heat and decides he's going to stir up trouble by impersonating Jusin here. Gets banned. Days later he comes back to attempt to reclaim some sort of justifications?

BAN, PLEASE!

If jschultz9 isn't banned from here, I don't see why lccy/teh-pwnerer would be. From what I know, jschultz9 has had a lot more bad rep than "Greg". Plus, it's entertaining to see this kid try and act like he knows shit. What's funny is that he creates an IRC channel, yet has no clue how to run a channel. Sure, he knows basic commands, but other than that... he's helpless.

j_ball430, first you send me Pm's telling me what this guy is doing, PMing you in st0rm irc about me, then you come here and talk about me being banned?

I did not try to impersonate anyone on these forums, which is why dumb ass was banned.

I do have a bad rep, which I deal with everyday, but I have also cleaned up my act, theres several people that will agree with that also. Ive been speaking with Crimson on a regular basis, all very civil conversations. She has given me another chance, so why dont you do the same.

Lets not turn this into a jschultz9 bashing thread, if you want that create one.

Lets keep it on the subject at hand, which is TP.

With false accusations of stuff, such as hacking his boxes, and so on. His irc channel got fl00ded with "lol" "rencorner is dying" or something to that effect. Which no one but his staff seen, which is something they already know.

But for this guy to come on here, try to impersonate me, to stir shit. Then to bring accusations against me, after he has ripped nightmas website template, more or less ripped his hosting name "neronhost.com" which is VERY similar to neronhosting.com

Then makes his next generation hosting services,"also nightma12 theme"

So theres no comparing me to this kid.

You accused fl00d3d of things that were not his fault. Then things about you came out into the open. Just think that if you didn't make any accusations against him, none of this about you would have ever been broughtup.

Yes I do realize that the thread I have created has been focusing on attacking me instead of the people that were supposed to be pointed out.

But I just don't realize why when people(A) leave people(B) they have to attack (B) just to make a ongoing statement. A statement that shows how (A) is powerful in their knowledge of DoS'ing people...

As for fl00d3d saying they should ban me. The current topic we are talking about has NOTHING to do with you. So but off.

You created this thread ABOUT ME. So it has EVERYTHING to do with me. Don't tell me to butt off.

Remove the ToS that you have on <http://www.neronhost.com/tos.html> immediately or face legal action. You want to play with the big boys, we will play.

That Terms of Service is a clone of MY terms of service that I use for CWN -- which is a modified ToS from Reyox Communications, LLC of which I have legal authority and approval to use. You do not.

If you want to copy people's names, copy people's business names, be a cheater in your own servers, and try to screw people over -- go be a shit bag and do that. But now that I've seen you BREAKING THE LAW I am going to let the CEO of Reyox know that you are ripping his TOS and I guarantee your father will be hearing about it.

Remove it. Last warning, kid.

I'm not even going to wait for him to take it down. I've already contacted Reyox and they're going to have someone from the legal department contact his father. If he still refused to take it down or modifies it further in any way, I have been assure that they will serve him legal paperwork. Normally companies don't make that big of a deal over verbage unless it is a blatant rip or it directly affects the company. Unfortunately for "Mr. Teh-Pwnerer" (aka lccy) I am the former Chief Operating Officer for Reyox Communications, LLC and I am still good friends with the CEO.

Greg: Listen to me. Please. Get your own ideas, put them on a site that you or someone that works with you made themselves, and on a domain that is original and unique ... and sell your product. Even if you cheat on your own servers or have a shitty name, no one can touch you if you're legitimate. They'll just shit talk you - but you shouldn't care. The big thing is you like to copy people. If you want to run a business, then you need to get over the 15 year old kiddie crap and take my advice. Only then will you learn what it takes to make it in the real world.

Ok. This is what I am left to say, since I have no other option, since everyone is against me, I am trying to fix my reputation here. I do NOT apologize for Justin for the obvious things he has done to me.

- fl00d3d, I apologize for this thread, which has had a big emitional impact on the both of us, and I hope we can continue our friendship, even though it is close / nearly impossible.

Yes, that Terms of Service was ripped, and I deeply apologize for that.

- Metal Vixen, I apologize for this thread which has included your name in some posts, which also had an impact for you.

- Nightma12, I apologize for those accusations I have put upon you that you were attacking my servers, I never had any proof regarding the attacks, so sry as well.

Like I said above, I will never apologize to justin for his attacks. Please remind me if I have left something out.

I decided to come clean since this would look like a thread that would keep on going and going, especially all on me. It was time for one man to become humble and take it like a man.

fl00d3d, I have to admit. I apologize for all this bullshit on the forums. Not only about the false accusations, but overall the topics that had your name in it, in a bad position. If I would have had a problem with you, the mature way of getting the problem solved would have been talking with you 1 on 1. And not making this gay thread which included and laid a huge impact on allot of people here. Including both our communities, and businesses. This thread was absolutely pointless, and abstract in every way. This was a thread that left allot of rubble in overal gaming history. I also do hope the best of luck in your new gaming community that was merged with All-Out. And the best of luck to your new merged business.

I have to admit tho, this was the biggest and most popular thread I have started, new record for me, 1000+ views and somewhat ammount of replies

Sorry again for everyone who was involved in this, except justin. Please forgive me better make an apology to me aswell, cuz im a persistent little shit.

You made false allegations against me, thats why im on your ass.

if you need logs I can show you, it even came from your own little bbence friend. So until our issue is resolved, dont count on any peace, Ive given you ample chances to talk to me on msn, irc. Youve failed to respond.

Ive never once attacked your server or ddosed it.Ive just been a annoying little pain in your side.

Actually I fixed your severe crashing problem at one point.

Im not well liked, which I could care less about. Theres a saying, you might wanna live by around here.

I spoke with him on MSN and he was extremely apologetic. Which he should be. -_-

However, I've still noticed a couple of things that have not been addressed, so I'll call them out here:

--Rencorner was previously a "Renegade community server" and not much more. Though I have no objection to people creating their own communities, etc. I do object to the fact that a few of my ideas seemed to have been "rubbed off" on to you and you're using them now.

--You now have a "council". You never had one before. And this is a well defined aspect of my community. It is a little obvious that you are attempting to make something very similar to what I have. Again, I'm not complaining that you're making a community of your own ... just that you're building it in a similar fashion which is still irritating; especially since I know you didn't have that before you met me.

--You're using the word "sponsor" to sponsor clans which is something that hardly ANYONE does anywhere on the internet. So I know that it is a direct rip from Tsunami. Tsunami-Alliance is an extremely unique community in that sense and you are even using the same verbage that I used in my doctrines and community infrastructure outlines.

I'm not going to tell you what to do, but I would definitely appreciate it if you would stick to being a community as you were or simply not using the words "council" and "sponsoring" in the ways that you are. It would appear that you are continuing to copy me in ways that are unique to Tsunami.

As for your apology - So far I have noticed that the TOS has been removed and you're working on a unique site. Even some of your admins are being responsible by explaining the truth to certain forum users. So I am please with that. However, the above two issues are still bothering me.

I have decided NOT to accept his apology.

Over the last couple of days I've tried to keep it cool and see what we could work out. He asked to be unbanned from my forums and I said "only if you post your apology". After I unbanned him he never posted his apology then went on his forums and shit talked me.

He CONTINUES to lie to people. Telling them whatever they need to hear in order to get them to use his forums. He tries to make me seem like a badguy to everyone involved. There are a couple of those forums that openly admit to cheating or joke about past cheating ... yet people like LOZERS decide they'd rather associate with that.

I have been playing with an idea over the last week or so and I have decided to run full force with it.

ANYONE that is associated with RenCorner in any way (not players on the server, but people who are on their staff: ie. Admins, mods, active on their forums, etc.) will be banned on sight on any Tsunami-Alliance forum, teamspeak, or game server. I'm going to make my point.

Greg: You are a dumb piece of shit. I extended an olive branch and you spat all over it. I guess you need another whipping...

You should probably do the same. Ignore him and over time it just goes away.
From what I read I do not see you as the one at fault and don't even see a need for you to continue justifying yourself at all.

This is a kid your dealing with.
With that said, I wouldn't waste your time and effort.

Becareful though. If it is something generic (like a price listing, or services offered) it takes a lot to be guilty of plagurism. There is only so many different ways the same thing can be stated, that it is inevitable that someone will come up with the same thing (I'm sure that if you go to a restaraunt, you'll notice that all the menus basically look the same [ie.names of dishes, descriptions of the dishes, etc], done up in a different fasion).

There are also logs of Teh-pwnerer having a next generation hosting, which is virtually the same as aohost. There's no two ways about it.

He continues to delete any posts of his forums that disagree with him, or anyone opposing him.

He has copied everything he's done from someone else. I hope to see nightma go after him for it. He needs to learn a lesson, kid or not.

This all makes sense to me now. Now I get everything. The AO-Hosting, RenCorner/Neron. I get it all now.

I'm Xpert, an Admin from EVO. This post might seem sloppy and bad grammer cause it's 2:20 AM where I am (New York) and I'm tired lol but I'll try to see what I can post.

Our servers are currently hosted by Teh-Pwnerer. We were once with AO-Hosting but later moved around July I think due to lag issues. Yes Nightma, it did lag. BlackIntel's script.dll files were hogging up the CPU and you didn't even do anything man. Lee I had more confidence in you. So that's when we moved to Neron. Lee nothing against you, but watch your CPU Usage next time lol <3. One of the owners of EVO, EGDamag3 and an admin, Litledge purchased 2 servers from Teh-Pwnerer. It all makes sense to me now, behind the sceenes on why does Neron-Hosting remind me of AO-Hosting.

Caught again T.P. right in the middle of a lie. So that's why you have the same forums as AO. So that's why you said earlier back then, you were soon gonna get "NextGen" for RD support for NeronHost but later then said "We're gonna use our own tool". It's because you had a little "thing" against Nightma. That's why you criticize Nightma and his hosting. You have beef with him. Everything you do, similar to him. Your websites, similar to his. Dunno how I missed this, I always go on AO's website before when we had a server hosted there.

And btw T.P. it's called "UDP Flooding" (User Datagram Protocol) not "UPD". UDP flooding was fixed long ago for the Renegade FDS. There's a server.dat that I had for 2 years and somewhat months that fixed this problem. You don't need BlackIntel's .dll scripts to prevent it. From this and other incidents, I learned you're an idiot at hosting Renegade servers. You try to challenge me on everything I say about Renegade servers. I know damn well I can host your company better than you do. You literally suck, I feel sorry for EGD and Litledge wasting their funds. I've been working with Ren servers since BlazeRegulator came out public to communicate with the FDS. I probably know every issue and how to solve FDS problems more than you. I offered you my help before but forget it now. And man who ever said your a con-artist in an earlier post, was right.

I'm glad I stumbled across this topic by accident. I was bored and looking up Renegade drop mods. Came across FI00d's site cause it said Renegade (w00t lead me here <3). Also whoever said you're a ripper, WAS REALLY RIGHT LOL.

(CloudyServ): CloudyServ 0.982 modded by Teh-Pwnerer

You're funny dude. You immitated 3 other people and now you wanna pick Adad as your 4th? So now you claim you modded CS? You didn't even add anything to the bot except 3 files saying "Neron-Host is your #1 hosting provider". I know damn well you can't script. That old site you used as ur home page for Neron host, was funny. I felt like I landed in AO-Host. My mind was like "Wow they teamed up". Guess it's more of "We ripped it up." I seen Lee's site, that's been up for like EVER... I know damn well he had that first. And the forums... Dude... Same exact skin too... GET A BETTER IDEA. How hard is it to change a skin for a freaken forum and make a new home page like Punko3 did for you.

And this issue about you ripping names off? So you're the a--hole who ripped the names. All this time I thought Kamuix was the ripper and thought the names were yours. I always saw Kamuix use the names before, then now I see you using it. Now I get it... And you claimed you own a0000002m but I took it? MAN YOU'RE HILLARIOUS. I know damn well which names I made and still have the serials for the names to it.

After 2 months, I knew I couldn't trust you. For some reason, you were always being attacked. Then you said Jschtz did it. He probably did, BUT DAMN THIS MIGHT EXPLAIN WHY. Cuz ur a lying 15 yr old prick.

And you wonder why people always says your servers are shit? This is why, this 6-7 page topic explains why. Now I get everything. Now I see the truth. Now I know what kind of person you really fuing are. Man, littedge had faith in you. You fu him over and EVO, you're dead (I don't mean that life threatningly so ya don't try to be a dk and twist my words.)

Man, I dunno which has more BS, Renegade itself or the people who run it...

And last thing, Matix, FAG GET UR OWN DAMN AVATAR.

I would just like to add that since BlackIntel released the SFPS changer the CPU usage on my server (And the others hosted by Lee) dont even reach 40% at the best of times. I will openly admit, Lee DID have some lag issues before. This has hopefully been fixed.

Just to prove that i'm not lying :

My server at the moment has 16 players in it. See how much CPU i'm using.

rencorner.net Site designed by Punko3.
That's NOT a design. It's a fucking table.

Also, that stupid no right click script... POINTLESS. Why? Because any half-wit can go to View --> View Source.

Edit: It's THAT simple of a site, and yet it's not even XHTML validated. Wow... that's fucking pathetic.

I managed to work my "domain registration" magic since I am in the business -- and ended up getting the domain (which was farmed) released to the registry so that I could grab it.

It will now be used to list all of the bad things that Rencorner.NET has done, as well as their staff, and ... of course ... to solicit Nightma12 and I's products

I would like to add some people to my shitlist as well:

-Dave4989 of RenForce: a regular user of his forums and likes to talk shit behind my back. [Dave, I have more friends than you in this community - so I hear everything]

-a1ek69: a regular on his forums, also a child, and when I spoke with him about all of this all he had to say was that I was the immature one and that "teh pwnerer" didn't do anything wrong.

--lozers83: a regular on his forums and a former 'friend'. He was a new users to my forums until this crap broke out. Then he apologized to me ... then he took it back, and now he's a loyal servant of satan cough errr, "teh pwnerer". He also told me that "teh pwnerer" is more of a man than I am.

I hope you three grow up some time soon, realize that cheaters never win ... and that people who steal other people's hard work deserve to burn in hell. Have fun with your n00b community

And fl00d, you're just telling what I wanna hear, the truth. If you didn't speak, I would be lost in the dark about what's really going on behind the sceens.

Ok, first off...I wasted 10 minutes of my time for a free FDS, which I have now. Design ? Not really..that's as you said, only a table with some target pages, and some text. Nothing too extensive.

Next off, the right click script, also can be useless if the client has JavaScript disabled. But, to be honest, I added it because pwnerer didn't know you can click View --> View Source. So it stopped him from ripping it if he didn't give me the server.

Finally, I created that before I knew of the ripping..and I would like to seriously apologize for carrying over the content. But again, I did not know at the time.

Also, on a final note. I originally put 'Created by Punko3' because the only thing that was designed was the image, which took longest just to remove the background color to those servers. And Pwnerer modified it.

Ah, that was in exchange for an FDS? Wow, he was ripped off, but he's an idiot, so kudos to you.

I have enough of that guy. And I swear if I see him 1 day I cant wait to beat the living crap out of him.

Owwie, my feelings are hurt.

And for the record, numbnuts, www.rencorner.com (my domain) is not an impersonation of www.rencorner.net (your gay site). I just bought it so I can expose your dirty little secrets. However, www.rencorner.net (your gay site) is an attempt to copy www.tsugaming.com (my domain) with your "clan sponsorship" and "council" -- both which are new verbage that you've 'created' since I left you. You're worthless, I swear. Who the hell would want to buy a server from someone like you? Or be an admin/mod for your site? Besides the obvious 12 year old "wannabe fight club posse" that you have going on over there. Oh, and Lozers83 the 22 year old

Also saying using renip is illegal. That getting the ip of a server is illegal to use direct connect.

To bypass renguard you can only use direct connect. Just generally talking like they know shit, when they have absolutely no clue wtf they are talking about.

I thought I'd take a look at the latest and greatest ... and behold some interesting information: Apparently there have been a few mods and regulars on the server who have been banned because they questioned authority or accused admins of cheating. Also noteworthy, I noticed that there are two older members of the community that are on his modlist (Wyld1USA and Fobby). I know for a fact that these last two guys are adults (over 21 ... I think they're in their 40s, tbh) yet they're still helping out on this server. I considered myself "cool" with these guys but for some fucking reason they're helping him develop his community.

I'm just getting sick of seeing good people, or people with no reason to associate themselves with cheaters and thieves, being put on a modlist simply because the server is fairly active. I don't care if it is the #1 server in the community ... if its run by cheaters and thieves then have some balls and a spine and dont play there at all (let alone mod there).

I'm not trying to be a complete dick to the few people on that list that I actually have/had respect for I'm just trying to bring you to the light. It really works me up seeing so many people decieved...

I've just read this post right now.

Now when I first joined the RenCorner Moderation, I just thought it was any server looking for moderators. So I wrote down the website, went over to the forums and posted my application.

After I applied, I found out who was behind this- teh pwnerer, animo, iccy, neronhost guy, whatever his name is. I didn't want to go ahead and say "FUCK YOU" right after I applied for moderator... so I just went with it.

Today I've read this thread and heard a lot of words, and I'll have to say that it's best if my moderation status on RenCorner.net is renounced. I think it's best if I just stick to moderating my own things.

I just feel that I shouldn't be associating myself in this.

Thanks anyway.

[NEFobby[GEN] wrote on Wed, 18 October 2006 03:00]I've just read this post right now.

Now when I first joined the RenCorner Moderation, I just thought it was any server looking for moderators. So I wrote down the website, went over to the forums and posted my application.

After I applied, I found out who was behind this- teh pwnerer, animo, iccy, neronhost guy, whatever his name is. I didn't want to go ahead and say "FUCK YOU" right after I applied for moderator... so I just went with it.

Today I've read this thread and heard a lot of words, and I'll have to say that it's best if my moderation status on RenCorner.net is renounced. I think it's best if I just stick to moderating my own things.

I just feel that I shouldn't be associating myself in this.

Thanks anyway.

yeah. when i first joined the server i saw the mod app thing and went to the site; this was before they allieded, and i applied.

i was a mod for one night.

i reapplied when they allieded and never heard anything after that.

now all this has been exposed, i'm glad im not a mod of a server that cheats.

fucking n00bs

You can apply for mod on a new server community that Nightma12 and I have put up called Renegade Underground www.renunderground.com. We are working to keep this server free from preventable lag, cheaters, and people who we would all generally consider LOSERS. Our rules are very similar to clanwars.cc rules. Unlike RenCorner we only employ admins/mods that are trustworthy and active ... and we start them off with a little bit of authority and have them earn their way up. The servers just went up a about a week ago (we've been testing new [NR] releases on them so they haven't been stable) ... but we hope to invest in more partnerships soon rather than trying to divide overall traffic amongst quality servers. Check it out!

Even if Nightma12 was 5 years younger than you, he's established a much better reputation in this community than you have. He's even created his own bot.

Crimson, I was on his IRC a few days ago and bbence glined me (it was in a post somewhere on these forums). So if he has half a brain he could get my IP from that. I see where you're going with this, but even if he were able to provide my IP address that wouldn't prove anything. I didn't do it. Someone else probably did, but I had absolutely NOTHING to do with it ... though it is kinda funny.

I haven't seen it. Anything I learn about your site is usually (99 times out of a hundred) from someone else. I'm telling you I didn't do it. I wouldn't doubt that one of your other 234234234 "fans" didn't, though. lol Hey Greg (aka Matix) ... (aka teh pwnerer).....

Could you kindly tell the community about your latest project? I believe its a new bot that you and Dave4989 have 'created' for RenCorner called 'Shadow Regulator'.

Please, tell us about your exciting new development.

[See RARd screenshots]
*He is ripping CS.

I can't wait to see you try to get out of this one, fucktard.

Greg, you adnl had a conversation a week or so ago, that you was going to clean up your act, how is ripping more shit gonna do that. Youve ripped sites, Dave4989 is known for ripping CS bot. hes been nailed on it a couple of times I believe.

Ill do some checking on teh forums where I have seen the threads of him ripping CS.

Dave4989 is as retarded as you are sometimes Matix, so why team up with him, Great minds think alike, I guess the same goes for retarded ones aswell.

Greg I dont see why you insist on keeping up this shit. youve been called out on so many things in the thread you started, to try and clear things up, all it has done is expose more shit about you.

Why not just be quite, your community has possibly the worse rep of any community online and active at this time. You have numerous cheaters in your staff. You and your staff cheat on your own server.

Now explain hy you want me or fl00d3d or anyone else to get along with you. You keep telling me in irc, "I just wish we could get along and be friends"

Sorry about your luck, the path your going down right now will keep the friends you ahve, ACE/Wolfgang/Bbence or whatever the hell other names he goes by.

Straighten up your act or give it up. Its as simple as that.

Cheaters are like a virus, every person that joins your server has a chance at being infected by your little group, which makes it worse on everyone else. So if you like/love this game so much, do it and everyone involved in it a favor, dissolve your little group or straighten up.

lol the funny thing about his server is that I was banned from there for "cheating" while I wasn't.. :\ How can you ban people from your server for cheating(while they actually aren't), when your own staff includes people that are some of the most known cheaters on Renegade.

KrY aka sh0ck aka Tyler aka maker of like 100+ clans and joined/left 1000+ clan. did the ripping.

Kry edited the cloudyserv.cs, I just run it, don't believe me, ask Dave4989. I can provide proof against KrY that he did the ripping. Only thing I edited was Aow.cs (The IRC Outputs of kill messages and etc.) which afaik, is legit. Okay, so the only thing you proved was that YOU didn't rip it. I was considered a newer member of RT-E when I was with them and I was never in my entire life in AIG or RT-E when lkaika was in it. Ever. So get YOUR facts straight, pal. Also, you and Lozers can keep being completely ignorant assholes by accusing me of bringing his family into this. Let the truth be known (as it is very clearly stated on the Tsunami forums at which NO ONE is banned on) that your own "Ace" (bbence) brought family into it and spoke on behalf of Lozers. When people in my community defended me and made comments on his family I came back and said something to the effect of "lets not bring family into this". So get your facts straight. I think if Lozers knew the truth he'd be away from your dumbass as well.

Asking friends to FIND things for me is absolutely OK. I never once asked ANYONE do post pictures, spam you, attack you, etc. I don't do that. So if anyone did do those things it was not by my request. A signature making fun of your hosting is not immature. It is a "call to the light" exposing the truth. Like how you found your images on the web, stole your names from another business, etc. It's not immaturity. Immaturity is stealing other people's hard work and claiming it as your own. Immaturity is blatantly and consistantly being ignorant.

Amunra was asked to install the split script which allows BR to post data to the main channel and extra info to the -admin channel. That is all he did. When he started adding goofy stuff, I scolded him and he stopped. Ask him. Amunra, I know you're on these forums - confirm or deny my statement please.

Kinda like you can provide evidence of me supposedly "posting pornographic images on your website"? Yuhh, huhh... sure.

And I hope the comment about stereotyping 15 year olds wasn't towards me, because:
(1) Whether you like it or not, 15 year olds generally speaking (aka a stereotype) are less mature than an adult. But that does NOT mean that all 15 year old are immature.
(2) I pointed out, in 15 year olds' defense, that Nightma12 is also around that age yet he has contributed to this community.

I think it's funny that Matix didn't bother countering any of my arguments, only the "Kry" issue (which is an internal issue).

Boy oh boy do you have another thing coming, Greg "teh pwnerer" Matix. So many exciting supprises are just around the corner ... I can't WAIT to be able to open my mouth and share it with everyone here.

How is that desperate? A lot of people wanted to see that nickname out of your hands. A LOT of people. So when you can convince the community that they're desperate for wanting to see a cheat server that is owned by a deceitful prick - then you'll make more sense.

Until then, accept your loss ... find a new nickname. Or better yet, confess that you're hopeless and use this as a chance to make something of yourself that is LEGITIMATE.

Btw, don't send any of your mods or players to our servers. Though people in general will be given a fair chance to "see the light" we will NOT tolerate one ounce of cheating or anyone that carries out your bidding. They'll be banned promptly.

In other news, I'd like to welcome everyone to play on RenUnderground :: AOW which is now running on a0000004.

However, since only certain attacks are legal, they're doing what they can. This is the same reason why I had Wyld read this thread to discover who you really are.

Oh, and you realize that you made the BIGGEST mistake you could ever have done by bringing this issue here in the first place? YOU are the one who started this thread. I was told by someone earlier (who shall remain nameless) that I was Quote:a twatfor keeping this going against teh pwnerer and RenCorner. And that I should just let it go. I'm sorry, but I have learned the hard way that just letting it go often makes the problem worse. And that it is the responsibility of those who are doing the right thing to make sure that things like this are exposed. I feel I'm doing the right thing by exposing him and watching him crumble. Yes, it is a bit personal ... but he did in fact start this whole thing and I gave him plenty of chances to apologize and cut the shit.

Nightma12 and I are trying to run AOhost and Tsunami-Alliance like a business. We need to protect our interests. Part of that is (1) eliminating any competition, and the other part is (2) defending our names.

GAME OVER.

What we've seen from Matix is no remorse for anything he's done. As you can see in previous posts, he supported the ripping of bots and didn't do it himself, so he couldn't be responsible for it.

Even if he was to go "legit", would he really? Who knows for how long he could actually remain legitimate. He'd probably keep everything seemingly clean until everbody figured that he has changed, and then go back to his old ways, or he just wouldn't even try to go legit.

He's a spoiled, immature, 15 y/o brat. I don't see any maturing in him until he moves out of the house, but if he gets some of daddy's money, then I don't ever see him maturing.

it's very ironic really; he starts a topic trying to clear his name of some things, but he ends up dragging it through the mud, making almost everyone in the ren community hate him.

he's changed his name a few times as he has had his account hacked, apparently; he's stupid, he doesn't get the hint people don't want him here

Let me say one thing to Greg (teh pwnerer aka Matix) in front of everyone else:

Greg, when we were working together we had a chance at making things legitimate. I slowly started losing confidence in you and worked VERY hard to make you "unique". When that didn't happen, I left you to your own schemes and removed you from my community. That's what started all of this.

Since then, I have come to learn that you can be quite deceiving and manipulative. I tried to accept an apology from you, but then things went sour again real fast. I'm a 25 year old adult who doesn't want to make extra drama over what some 15 year old kid does with his free time. But when you drag my community into this by trying to steal ideas, members, etc. and when you try to compete with my business (Nightma12 and I @ AOhost) things are going to get nasty.

I've been criticized by a few people for being a little rough on you and making this more vengeful than I probably should have. But I would like those people to know that I am not doing this to be immature and laugh in your face. Honestly. I am doing all of this because you made it a point to spit in my face after things went sour.

I have a policy that I'm sure you've heard of before:

"I can be your best friend or your worst enemy." Those who know me well can say that I am TOO forgiving. And you know that I tried to forgive you and take your apology. So please don't act like any of this is a surprise to you. I'm a nasty thorn to get rid of once you've pissed me off. And I'm not going anywhere - nor do I have anything to hide. (which, btw, is why NONE of your folks are banned on my forums and anyone is allowed to read all topics unlike your forums which are private).

You did this to yourself; and I warned you.

Bye.

Seriously, though? Cuz that's kind of ignorant to just throw in there ... especially without explanation. I've argued with this guy in other topics - so if he's coming here jsut to say that, that's kinda "fucking retarded" in itself.

I think Ty just sees all of this being taken too far. I am starting to lean that way now, but I still see a reason for these actions being taken against him.

As far as xptek being an RC regular or a sex slave of TP, that's hardly the truth. I co-own an IRC network with xptek, and he isn't stupid enough to agree with TP on any of this. He'd rather see people just get over shit and pretend it didn't happen.

Unfortunately that is not possible. He has INTENTIONALLY and DIRECTLY negatively affected AOhost and Tsunami-Alliance with this propoganda/lies/deceit. Action was required. It has been taken care of. And as long as the kid does what is expected of him he won't have any more words from me.

You fail at hosting, you fail at spelling, and you fail at life. Good day, sir.

He was only being negative towards FI00bed because he knows FI00ded is alot older than him, there for it makes him feel Large for saying that

For example, would you feel big for calling a 13 year old retarded? or someone who is a lot older?

Xptek usually uses a form of sarcasm to defeat his targets, but since his target was much older in this case, its different.
