I still don't get what's wrong with a simple copy and paste instead.

You'll need to download a file which will convert another file for you. Then you just read the readme, simple as.

<http://www.renevo.com/Downloads/REOLLite.zip>

If you have any problems, post here and I'm sure someone will try to help you out.

Just played a couple great games on Dante's server, but other than Crimson's it was the only one active. Some people were complaining about lag but I didn't think it was as bad as WOL. Of course I'm just a 56k'r so the lag was probably all my fault anyway

I was playing on some snipe server earlier today and people were getting mad because I was c4ing my teammates, shouting joyously about how I was sniping off the racks and how I placed random beacons.

I was playing on the DOM servers on REOL earlier today. But for some reason I seem to be getting roughly 4000 ping right now. I've only ever seen one other person in the chat rooms as well.
