The fact that they apparently just admitted that they're cheating, and them being afraid of st0rm figuring it out.

It's the tremendous amounts of stupidity displayed here that makes it funnies. Particularly the fact that they think they can cheat on other servers and their regular server not finding out is funnies, even more so because now the amount of servers they'll be able to play on will probably drop significantly.

On issues like this hopefully most realize all they need to do is let someone in power know, even Wilo, at st0rm and we will take care of business. We are 2 for 2 now. Hopefully the stupidity is done.

It can

EDIT: The TeamSpeak SDK does have recording, so I assume TeamSpeak itself does too.

True but chat logs are pretty much the same as chat recordings.

It's sentence after sentence. Whether you read each one, or listen each one doesn't really matter

Anyway; FU cheaters :V

Reading is probably faster, and you can search in text. Searching in audio isn't that easy atm.

Since the both of them are ruining other peoples gameplay, I'd just take the easy road and ban them both. It's not like one can claim he didn't know about it or w/e.

I think the appropriate term would be "aiding and abetting" cheating, but sure due to language differences.
