Appshot Often described as the person that rages the most on the internet. Once when he was a small child, he cut his penis off because he didn't like the look of it, so now he wears lipstick and sucks his dad's dick.

that one is pretty accurate though

Wrong. The attacker could potentially believe that Xpert is a hermaphrodite and pursuing the female gender which allows her to suck her own dick whilst still being attracted to her own gender (12 year old girls).

All in all, pretty funny. Inconvenient, but funny.

Vultima, removed from staff due to his poor attitude and doing the exact opposite of what a moderator should be doing.

Italy, banned from atomix for his disorderly conduct and for joining St0rm with a damage hack just to be caught on purpose on a smurf nick. Denied for request to be unbanned, he retaliates by spoofing other people's nicknames with Vultima.

Caveman, removed from staff due to inactivity.

He also asks that his IP's be taken down.

I wouldnt have gotten as much enjoyment out of this if you didn't act like a complete tool that clearly hasn't changed one bit since the last time I got to deal with you. Banning me from ts pretty much for the hell of it, with your reason because I said "I heard vult and italy were spoofing names in the server, thats pretty funny."

You are banned temporarily. Reason: "lets talk about the obvious ya?" Try again in 6d 16:48:57

Good ban reason. I forgot to read the part in the rules where it said no speaking about person A and person B.

You want to act a certain way forever, can't really be shocked it caught up with you eventually. I personally am loving every minute of it, and couldn't think of a better person for it to happen to.

okokokokok let me break down Atomix's current state.

1. Its not a mod team in existence, its Xpert and friends, most of the mods are incapable and a few even caught cheating in the past, therefore it sucked to be a part of Atomix right now
2. Xpert gives mod to anyone who is female, massive internet girl stalker, freaks out most of them so they leave atomix, also have no idea themselves why they have the mod status as they didn't apply.
3. The most ignorant mean lady in existence, trying to talk to him directly about any banning of previous mods, results in no response, and he is clearly not AFK at times either, meaning all the legwork is given to dippy who hasn't a clue about the situation himself.
4. Did you notice that I never defended you on the Anthrax incident the last time it went to renegade forums, or the passwords being sent by PMs to you on the forum, because I didn't trust you however HaTe who knew nothing of the situation, and yet again trying to taken part in defending you.
5. You kicked out every capable mod, and at one point Italy was the only mod actually doing something, that's when the mod team was large and full of inactive members, however you kicked Caveman when he wasn't inactive, and a very capable mod, and then added a load of renegirls to your mod list.

And then some random questions..

1. In any part of this, when was DDOS'd involved, no ddosing happened at all.
2. Explain why my mod was removed, all I did was send a PM to someone saying "UMADBRAH", when you yourself can be the biggest troll yourself at times, and no one will dispute you, also you banned 2 other members for simply saying "wow" and "lol" in the topic, what kind of moderation is that of a forum?
3. Whilst your at it explain why Caveman's got removed, an actual explanation this time, not "he was inactive" when he actually was not.

Conclusion

- Once Xpert is done with you or has lost interest, will toss you to aside followed by a swift banning, all his mods must not oppose him at any time on anything that also results in the beginning of him not liking you and getting rid of you.
- He has already played the "im the owner il do what the fuck i want" card a few times.
- Also keep in mind always, a girl in Atomix always is more important than anyone according to Xpert they will get mod status within a week with 2 posts on the forums, and upsetting them is therefore upsetting Xpert and therefore a banable offence!

Whilst iTaLy has admitted to me to me in private that he is guilty of spoofing with the aim of linking bans, he can not be held accountable for what happened with the website. He lacks the technical knowlege to pull anything like this off and to be brutally honest if he was involved, he would of openly admitted it to me.

As for the rest, until facts are presented pointing fingers will get us nowhere. We know who is responsible, the rest of the world doesn't need to.

Xpert, I request that you remove iTaLy's i.p's from your post. It's out of line to publically publish that information. Don't get me wrong I am fighting atomix's corner here, but there is a certain way to go about it and this isn't it. In fact there are data protection laws in place to make sure personal information is only used appropriately.

Once again, shit has happened. Let's deal with it.

1. Its not a mod team in existence, its Xpert and friends, most of the mods are incapable and a few even caught cheating in the past, therefore it sucked to be a part of Atomix right now

What do you call the other mod team, Italy and friends? You people basically played AVA all day and disappeared. On top of that, you guys had your own posse. It wasn't even Atomix. It was basically the same bunch in their same group. Like outsiders. I'm so glad one of my capable mods was able to cheat troll on St0rm! Great image as a mod.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

2. Xpert gives mod to anyone who is female, massive internet girl stalker, freaks out most of them so they leave atomix, also have no idea themselves why they have the mod status as they didn't apply.

Name people. Considering everyone who has a mod position in the last month has applied. So if I hired a bunch of male mods, would that make me a massive guy stalker too?

Lets see, Smiley, been a mod forever now. MsBitch, Melissaa and FBI applied. Jess applied but was removed. So ya, totally hitting on them right now as we speak! And I guess Spurs and a bunch of other people are girls too, since they got mod also!

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

3. The most ignorant mean lady in existence, trying to talk to him directly about any banning of previous mods, results in no response, and he is clearly not AFK at times either, meaning all the legwork is given to dippy who hasn't a clue about the situation himself.

Working 5 days a week plus studies. All leg work to Dippy? More like divided between me and a few full mods. But you weren't one of them. Sorry I didn't include you in that bunch!

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

4. Did you notice that I never defended you on the Anthrax incident the last time it went to renegade forums, or the passwords being sent by PMs to you on the forum, because I didn't trust you however HaTe who knew nothing of the situation, and yet again trying to taken part in defending you.

I didn't need anybody's defense. And hate wasn't defending me. He was expressing his views and his own points. But I guess it was too overwhelming for you to understand where he's coming from.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

5. You kicked out every capable mod, and at one point Italy was the only mod actually doing something, that's when the mod team was large and full of inactive members, however you kicked Caveman when he wasn't inactive, and a very capable mod, and then added a load of renegirls to your mod list.

I kicked out every capable mod? Ya I won't argue with that. But you can't moderate when you're NOT HERE, now can ya?

Caveman. That's just a whole 'nother story.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

1. In any part of this, when was DDOS'd involved, no ddosing happened at all.

Once again you fail to read and comprehend anything I just said. I was making a general statement and comparing what other people do, to the damage that has happened now.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

As some said "it was a long time coming". Ya I troll also, but I don't go as far as hurting a person. That topic was filled with 4 pages of worthless spam and taunting at rain for no reason. The very same person who did stuff for atomix out of heart without even being asked such as signatures and the banner we used. And all you did was add to it.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

3. Whilst your at it explain why Caveman's got removed, an actual explanation this time, not "he was inactive" when he actually was not.

I already did. You can check the forums... Oh wait, they're not there anymore! Guess you're gonna have to remember everything I said.

- Once Xpert is done with you or has lost interest, will toss you to aside followed by a swift banning, all his mods must not oppose him at any time on anything that also results in the beginning of him not liking you and getting rid of you.
- He has already played the "im the owner il do what the fuck i want" card a few times.

With this kind of conduct that has happened just for being removed from mod, it really shows how much people deserve to be exiled or banned.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

I love these kinds of rumors. And I love how Atomix has 32 moderators and only 4 of them are girls. But those 4 girls apparently make up every girl ever in the world and how much I stalk them. Yup totally got me there....

Oh and my conclusion: my goodness you're such a dumbass.

It has been way too long for this.

What? Gotta admit that it has been quite a while since we had our last proper Renedrama...

I see no reason to attack me personally here. I mean, I don't mind if you believe that 0x90's cock is down my throat, but I do not see the significance of that for this thread. I'm not even picking sides on who's wrong or right.

Judging by the stories there isn't one right and there are at least two wrongs.

Unless you want to waffle on bout being afk and then not replying to anything I say.

1. Its not a mod team in existence, its Xpert and friends, most of the mods are incapable and a few even caught cheating in the past, therefore it sucked to be a part of Atomix right now

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

What do you call the other mod team, Italy and friends? You people basically played AVA all day and disappeared. On top of that, you guys had your own posse. It wasn't even Atomix. It was basically the same bunch in their same group. Like outsiders. I'm so glad one of my capable mods was able to cheat troll on St0rm! Great image as a mod.

No I didn't play AVA all day, I was doing exams, you can check the forums on the topic that was made, owait, as for what an Italy did, doesn't concern me or even this argument for that matter, Atomix mod team has been failing since before then

2. Xpert gives mod to anyone who is female, massive internet girl stalker, freaks out most of them so they leave atomix, also have no idea themselves why they have the mod status as they didn't apply.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

Name people. Considering everyone who has a mod position in the last month has applied. So if I hired a bunch of male mods, would that make me a massive guy stalker too?

Lets see, Smiley, been a mod forever now. MsBitch, Melissaa and FBI applied. Jess applied but was removed. So ya, totally hitting on them right now as we speak! And I guess Spurs and a bunch of other people are girls too, since they got mod also!

Ok let me rephrase that was clearly to hard to comprehend, every girl that joins Atomix, and since renegade probably as a 1/60 ratio from girls to boys, you pretty much consumed the most of it.

Also its more of the way you act around them girls that makes you a massive reneperv, you drag them into your TS channel as soon as they join, sometimes they have no idea whats going on, plus some of the shit you say to them freaks them out and we hear about it, and makes it more the funnier.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

3. The most ignorant mean lady in existence, trying to talk to him directly about any banning of previous mods, results in no response, and he is clearly not AFK at times either, meaning all the legwork is given to dippy who hasn't a clue about the situation himself.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

Working 5 days a week plus studies. All leg work to Dippy? More like divided between me and a few full mods. But you weren't one of them. Sorry I didn't include you in that bunch!

Clearly it is you who cannot read it states your clearly not AFK yet your ignoring me, sometimes its even mid convocation you lose interest and don't respond, like when I told you that a drunken Italy was being egged on by Gohax(Full mod) and Hypnos(SeniorMod/Admin) to do the act of cheating within St0rm, Gohax himself even joined as Italy to try and say "Hi iv been spoofed" to cover his tracks, you were talking to me up until that point.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

4. Did you notice that I never defended you on the Anthrax incident the last time it went to renegade forums, or the passwords being sent by PMs to you on the forum, because I didn't trust you however HaTe who knew nothing of the situation, and yet again trying to taken part in defending you.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

I didn't need anybody's defense. And hate wasn't defending me. He was expressing his views and his own points. But I guess it was too overwhelming for you to understand where he's coming from.

Hates argument was so one sided yet he wasn't defending you, nice fail point there, yet he only ever seems to be around when rene drama in Atomix is going down.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

5. You kicked out every capable mod, and at one point Italy was the only mod actually doing something, that's when the mod team was large and full of inactive members, however you kicked Caveman when he wasn't inactive, and a very capable mod, and then added a load of renegirls to your mod list.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

I kicked out every capable mod? Ya I won't argue with that. But you can't moderate when you're NOT HERE, now can ya?
Caveman. That's just a whole 'nother story.

As i recall you went AFK for a month because pokemon fucking black came out, narb, nice moderating you must of done during that time sat fapping to pikanoob all day.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

1. In any part of this, when was DDOS'd involved, no ddosing happened at all.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

Once again you fail to read and comprehend anything I just said. I was making a general statement and comparing what other people do, to the damage that has happened now.

I'm sorry you are clearly so much more intellectual than me

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

2. Explain why my mod was removed, all I did was send a PM to someone saying "UMADBRAH", when you yourself can be the biggest troll yourself at times, and no one will dispute you, also you banned 2 other members for simply saying "wow" and "lol" in the topic, what kind of moderation is that of a forum?

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

As some said "it was a long time coming". Ya I troll also, but I don't go as far as hurting a person.

All I have to say to that, "Anthrax".

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

That topic was filled with 4 pages of worthless spam and taunting at rain for no reason. The very same person who did stuff for atomix out of heart without even being asked such as signatures and the banner we used. And all you did was add to it.

Good for him, however if you recall that topic he was clearly trying to big himself up and looked like a massive dweeb for doing so.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

3. Whilst your at it explain why Caveman's got removed, an actual explanation this time, not "he was inactive" when he actually was not.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

I already did. You can check the forums... Oh wait, they're not there anymore! Guess you're gonna have to remember everything I said.

Cavemans removal of a mod position was not at any point shown by you, the story got out bit by bit from the seniors, not a true explanation, you being the coward you are did not explain a thing.

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

Conclusion

- Once Xpert is done with you or has lost interest, will toss you to aside followed by a swift banning, all his mods must not oppose him at any time on anything that also results in the beginning of him not liking you and getting rid of you.

- He has already played the "im the owner il do what the fuck i want" card a few times.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

With this kind of conduct that has happened just for being removed from mod, it really shows how much people deserve to be exiled or banned.

How do you expect me to respond? Also what I said was the truth

VuLTiMa wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 06:03

- Also keep in mind always, a girl in Atomix always is more important than anyone according to Xpert they will get mod status within a week with 2 posts on the forums, and upsetting them is therefore upsetting Xpert and therefore a banable offence!

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42

I love these kinds of rumors. And I love how Atomix has 32 moderators and only 4 of them are girls. But those 4 girls apparently make up every girl ever in the world and how much I stalk them. Yup totally got me there....

Read above to what I said about the ratio

Xpert wrote on Thu, 21 July 2011 11:42 Oh and my conclusion: my goodness you're such a dumbass.

Also rain even made a Sax Roll .gif so I doubt he was that butthurt, go check the forums, owait.

What? Actually, I wasn't defending him in the slightest. As stated previously in an Atomix topic, I was merely just bitching out Anthrax. At that time I had never even once spoken to Xpert, or honestly knew who he even was. I just hated Anthrax for the fag that he was being.

Only ever seem to be around when rene drama at Atomix is going down? I'm pretty sure I never left, and have always been here. I think that's pretty obvious to anyone who either keeps updated with Atomix, or renegade forums (or N00bstories, tmx, 1337, + jelly forums, for that matter)...

You're obviously still upset at the whole fail of a troll attempt in the Atomix noobstory thread I posted. Seeing how you've never had a problem with me before, including when i was a mod at Atomix...

I think you're only seeing things in your own opinion. Nearly all the mods now, are active and have applied. I've been active, as well as a few other who are now full mods, on all parts of the community. Helping Xpert wherever we can, moderating the server, on forums and IRC. I have no beef against anyone, but you can't just sit on IRC and troll forums and expect to be a mod. That's not going to happen; in any community no matter who you are.

1. It's not a mod team? Hm, I beg to differ. All of the mods we have now are active, know what they are doing, and don't fuck around.. Who were teh people caught cheating?

2. I know plenty of girls in the Renegade community that don't even go to Atomix. Tbh, most of the girls COME to Atomix and want mod...

Skipping 3 and 4.

5. Kicked out every capable mod? Lol? I'm pretty sure the mods we have now are MORE than capable, if not better, than you and a few others.

Tbh, Vult, I think you're just butt-hurt because you were removed. Yeah, you're mad because of what else happened; others getting removed. But, there was reasoning behind it. He felt that Caveman wasn't active enough, therefore he was removed. Anyway, if you think he's just out to attack you, he's not... What's the point in it?

Oh, and to clear this instance up..

Italy was already caught cheating. He pm'd me on IRC asking me to come into the TS. Seeing as how I was known within the st0rm community, this was before I was a mod, he tried to get me to get him unbanned; to make them believe that it wasn't Italy. So, I tried, and failed, as the st0rm mods aren't stupid...

That's where I came into this. I didn't egg him on into doing this, as whenever I knew about this he had already cheated in the server.

I really don't understand how both sides are wrong...

The first instance started with Italy, who was just promoted to a Senior Mod(&) at Atomix, and then cheats in st0rm. He's a good friend of mine, but that's not something you do... So, Xpert banned him and removed him from status. Wouldn't you do the same?

In Cavemen's instance, it was a little off. Though, compared to all of the other mods that did stay on the modlist, he wasn't as active. There may have been more to it, we don't know that. But, as owner, Xpert felt he wasn't as active as a modded needed to be and removed him. Can you argue with that? I mean, if he became more active, reapplied, I'm sure he may have been reinstated.

This hacking of Atomix website has two sides to it? The two above things were what sparked this, and it was basically just removal of inactive, and needed removal..., of mods. But, I don't see where the other side was wrong, tbh.

There was no "Hacking" in the literal terms.

As for the rest, until facts are presented pointing fingers will get us nowhere. We know who is responsible, the rest of the world doesn't need to.

Xpert, I request that you remove iTaLy's i.p's from your post. It's out of line to publically publish that information. Don't get me wrong I am fighting atomix's corner here, but there is a certain way to go about it and this isn't it. In fact there are data protection laws in place to make sure personal information is only used appropriately.

Once again, shit has happened. Let's deal with it.

Ez`

It actually doesn't break any privacy laws, it does however break the forums code of conduct so I would request the ips are removed as well.

Gohan, I wasn't afk, if you actually followed my topic to the end you would have realised that. I hadn't played in our server for 5weeks however I was still active on the forums and irc. Dippy hadn't played for 4 weeks yet nothing happens to him, what's one week, seriously, when pokemon black came out we didn't see xpert anywhere for a month.

I did start playing again and reapplied but I was told that xpert wouldn't allow it.... As I said, this had nothing to do with me being afk. I don't mean to sound disrespectful but you don't know what actually went on. You only know what x wants you to know.

Sent from my Droid - please excuse any typos/auto completes.

Like I already said, there may have been more reasoning behind it. I don't know that, as he never said anything about it. What goes on between you two I have no interest, and know nothing about. I have no beef with you either, Caveman. You're a cool guy and I thought you a good addition to the mod team.

Oh, and btw, whenever Pokemon Black came out, he was still around. I was talking with him nearly everyday on MSN/IRC/TS. He was ingame from time to time as well, as I played with him. He wasn't just all gone and AFK for an entire month. And taking a break from a game is something that people do. They find interest in other games or things and make their way back to Ren later. Also, even if he had been afk for the entire month because of Pokemon Black (Lol) he still posted to notify everyone that he was going to be at least partially inactive.

What you just said there should also apply to me? People lose interest and move onto other things and come back. That's exactly what I did, however instead of completely losing interest I still modded and was active on the forums and IRC. This is exactly what im trying to make people see, yes I hadn't played in the server for 5 weeks.. Big deal? Its not like I disappeared from the face of the earth and came back and said wtf where my mod status? You might have spoke to him during his pokemon session but wouldn't reply to me and many others...

You're welcome, but all that I've stated is the truth. If admins behaved like moderators, then there would be no point in having admins. Admins are needed to do that extra little bit to get tasks done, in some cases it's unorthodox but it gets the job done, which in the past you've done. Again, I was active just not as much as I could have been. I asked why I was removed politely and I got ignored twice... I do the right thing and get ignored so I made a public post about it, that seems to be the only way to get Xpert's attention.

Well quite clearly you don't care for Atomix as much as I do, I put a lot of time, money and effort into that community so yeah I was pissed when I was removed without prior warning or notice. To make it worse the excuse was bogus and Xpert knows it.

I came back to game and I said fair enough lets start a fresh but again I got ignored and rejected.

You tell me what I could have done differently?

Actually come back to the game, and not just say you're back would be a plus. One game a week is hardly moderating.

You're probably right when you say you cared about Atomix more than me, to me it was a community where a lot of my buds from fnfalls went, and I followed. I liked the community, the server, and how it was run. You were there before me though, meaning you know the history of the place, and probably were able to appreciate it more because of that. I'm not saying that you weren't a good mod/admin while you were active, but it was an extreme rarity to ever see your nickname in game. You say that you made it public, but you're leaving out HOW you made it public. Basically calling out Xpert, and siding with the "who's dick didn't I suck enough" group. If you truly wanted the admin back as much as you claim, you would have done the mature thing and reasoned with him. I don't know nor care what happened behind the scenes with you two....you should of just moved on and made up. You're also right when you say that it's probably too late now, seeing how it's kind of hard to go back on some of the things you've said since being removed..

I don't play on the server as Caveman, I haven't done so for like a year... So just because *you* dont know im playing doesn't mean other people dont.

I came back to game, activity and I said, fair enough lets start a fresh and once again I got ignored and rejected.

What have I said since being removed? I've spoke the truth, if X doesn't agree with you, its doesn't happen, so the only way to get on with him is either bounce on his epenis and praise him god almighty or just suffer in silence... Im sorry but that's not a community, that's a dictatorship. The sole purpose of us (from his POV) was to ban cheaters and keep the server at peace, if it involved changes to anything, being server, mods, rules etc then it would fall on deaf ears.

Dippy even said it wouldn't be his way of running the community however he doesn't have a say on what Xpert does, now if his own right hand man is agreeing with what I say what does that tell you?

Yeah I called him out in public but ask yourself, is that how I started the thread? I do believe I was very polite and reasonable and it was only when X decided to chat shit about me being AFK and then refusing to answer anything I said is when I stated the truth as to why I was removed.

This is where the other members/mods are saying you're bouncing on his epenis cos you're defending him but you don't actually know what's going on, that's not your fault however you shouldn't then add your opinion. To me, idc, say what you will, but I know what the truth is and so do the other members, its only the people that are 'close' to him that can't see it.

If I remember correctly, there were 2 threads that had to be merged together, and your attitude at the start was rather sarcastic, but calm. You did only seem to get angered when Xpert said you weren't active in the server, but honestly, was he wrong? Even if I don't know what is going on behind the scenes, that alone is enough to demod you. I'm still yet to see ANY proof or valid argument to support that you were active in the server.

Quote:

Let me clarify. I am not even remotely "close" to Xpert. I talk to him as much I talk to you. That should tell you something. I have never been on TS with him, rarely ever had a pm conversation with him, and I don't always agree with him, but unlike you (apparently), I am still always able to see where he is coming from. I don't back him up because he's the one being attacked. I back up the community as a whole because I like the community, and I back up the truth and what I see as right. If you were the owner, and this type of thing happened (don't start with "it would never happen," please) I would be backing you up too.

Can you define what ranking system you mean, ingame rank (*best player*) or rank as in mod status?

I can dismiss both arguements.

It wasn't like we asked for things to be changed everyday but certain things needed looking into and it got ignored, important things.

We're agreeing on the very thing I was arguing about, everyone in the community regardless of rank or position should have there say and it should be listened to. However with X it wasn't unless its what HE wanted. Ask the other admins/senior mods if what im saying is correct. I will show you logs saying otherwise.

Yes there were two things (one I didn't know about), the one I made I asked calmly and not in a sarcastic way as to why I was removed because I had asked privately twice a few days beforehand why I was removed. It was only when I was being told blatant shit that I started with the sly remarks and outting him out.

I hadn't played for 5 weeks prior to my removal, i'd hardly call that inactive, dippy hadn't played for 4 years prior to that.. What's one week? Atleast I was still around throughout my ingame inactivity... If it bothered X that much would it have been so hard to say look Cave im not being funny but you need to start playing a bit more because I will have to remove you as a mod due to inactivity. No it wouldn't, he saw an 'excuse' to get rid of me and he took it.. If that wasn't the case why not answer me when I asked him privately, politely twice as to why I was removed, its not like I was hard to find being on the forums and IRC every single day.

Let's not forget others have been away for a lot longer then 5 weeks and still have their mod/admin position.

If that's the case then I apologize, however, what X has done is still wrong. If I was still the joint owner then no this wouldn't have happened because when I was owner I actually listened to what my community members wanted not just what I thought was best. Sure we disagreed on things, but I still acted on what the community wanted. Things were voted on and if that's what they wanted that's what they got. Some occasions require the 'Im boss man, this is happening deal with it' however that's the case with X everytime we wanted something.

How can you have been a mod for years and yet not know its background?

I'm an active member on all active renegade forums now-a-days, and can honestly say that Xpert listens to and comprehends all ideas that pass through to him, a hell of a lot more than some other communities do. Are you never going to get over this? You know the funny thing is, you're playing in atomix more than you ever played before within the past week. Drama occurs and the mods removal has passed and now you show up more.

Do you remember my numerous request for you to utilize the public channel of AX1? Your excuse is that "I'm lazy". What type of bullshit excuse is that. Is it that hard for you to add 1 simple channel to an autojoin script?

You still even till now compare yourself to dippy. I already know dippy's reasons for being inactive. You always worry about other people and comparing them to you, instead of actually worrying about yourself for once and looking at your own flaws or mistakes.

You always claim you're active and here. The only people that agree with that statement are the original mods of atomix. Every other new mod or VIP disagrees with that statement, as they don't even know who you are. You smurf ingame numerous times. How do you expect yourself to be known to the people that don't know you. You claim they can always ask you for help. You're not even in the views of the people since you don't even stay in the public channel. You don't use your mod name. All people view you as, is a person who idles on IRC and reads forums.

Watching IRC and reading forum topics is something. But in your own words, you refuse to play because it's "boring" and you're tired of the "ARE-GEE-H" users (seriously, can we rid of this dumb crap of a language filter)? How's that an excuse. You stated yourself that you don't even find this game interesting anymore, yet you want to be part of a mod team thats primarily based on Renegade and you dislike the game because of a cheat?

You were only a half mod, but you continously tried to overstep your bounds because you're probably so use to running things as an admin. Times have changed. You left about over a year ago. You are not an admin.

You see me make decisions and you always disagree with every single one. You have your own opinions, and I have mine, but it stands that I have the last word. But when I get that last word, you flip a switch and get pissed off and go on a rant on how I'm wrong and you're right. You bash me for the samething you do yourself. You complain that I don't take in the people's word. Then I guess the topics and polls I make on a daily bases asking for people's opinion on things and ideas, are meaningless.

I'm done with this "why I was removed" bullshit. If you can't see the reason after all this, then I got nothing left to say. Because this is a pointless thread, a pointless argument, and nothing more than a mere exchange of words back and forth between us and other people.

No, they were flat out ignored. This is what im trying to make you understand. Whenever I/other mods tried to ask for something we'd get ignored. If you're adamant that isn't the case then a simple 'I talk it over with the other admins' would have been nice so that we actually know something is being done and not just flat out ignored. When people are ignored what are they to think?

I hadn't gone a way thats the point I just stopped playing ren at the time... I was still here, I don't think Elmo (joint admin) hadn't played for like 2 months at one point, did he get demodded without warning? No. Anthem, at the time stopped playing, its the same story. If I was completely inactive and noone knew where the fuck I was then fair play I can agree but I was here, I was still banning people, modding the server, I just didnt play the game... Different things entirely.

Whether its IRCops or scripters.. If they aren't playing the game then they should be removed, thats why I was removed in the first place. I was still modding from IRC. Posting on the forums daily and generally helping people when needed however that makes me inactive.

He didn't have good grounds to remove me, I did my job and I did it well... I hadnt had any complains of unfair treatment and I was an active mod (I do have a RL believe it or not so playing the game isn't always what I have time to do)

Also how come Stewie retained his status within the community, and I know the excuse was used of "he was never here to commit mod duties anyway, he is just a coder for me", which is pretty much your relationship with Stewie, if so, why can't all mods get that special treatment, Stewie played about two times and thats been about it.

Also that video is fking hilarious.

Yeah, as of late ive played more, I have more time to play. I do have a RL. I have a 48hour week job, a missis, a baby on the way and other things I need to take care of before I can sit down and play game.

You never ACTUALLY asked me to join that channel, you made sly remarks cos I wasn't in it and it was only until I was removed I stated why I wasn't in it, if you like I can upload the SS's to show that. I could have easily added the channel to my auto join and maybe I should have, but you seriously gonna sit there and say you removed me cos I wasn't in a channel... Yeah renegade is boring, ask Ez how many times ive said to him in the last 2 days how bored I have become of ren even though im playing it as im telling him. I dont find the GAME fun. That doesn't mean I can't be a mod, that I don't enjoy being apart of the community, that I don't like giving up my FREE TIME to help people. The game is full of RGHers and you know it, it makes the game so unfun, why brother trying when half the team is in the tunnels with *cheat name removed*sniping each other. Yeah im only a half mod, why is that? Because you want 'promote me' because you can't trust me... How can you begin to trust them when you IGNORE THEM. I stated that yeah you make polls if you have an idea about something, I can't fault you with that however if someone asks you to change something, and its something you don't agree with you pull out the admin card and ignore em, like the time we needed more active mods (ironic this?) and you stood there and said no we dont even know Dippy agreed with me, so did 90% of the mod team because at the time it was me, vult and italy doing all the work 24 hours a day when we're all based in the UK, so often the server was left unmodded for 12+hours at a time.

If you really want X I will dig out the logs and show you your own fucking admins said I was right and that you needed other admins/mods around cos it wasn't fair. I just dont want to drag others into this unless absolutely necessary. Just like more then half the mod team said that it was a bad idea to unban people that basically say im sorry I wont cheat again aslong as it was like 3months after.

LOL - Well if you're so confident in your findings Xpert why are you so reluctant to show me?

You haven't proved jack, all you've done is chatted bare shit with nothing to back it up.

Hate - Thats how many games per month since its reset on a monthly basis? so yeah one of the months you will have a fat 0 but you'll also get that with Dippy, Elmo and others but thats cool cos they admin.

Edit:

Oh I can let go - once ive been proven without a doubt that im wrong.. If you can't do that then fucking rights ill keep on and on and on.. Why shouldn't I? Im not just gonna sit here and let you chat shit about me all day.

Yeah. Didn't you say you were afk for a month? 0 games in 1 month is enough, if you ask me.

Oh, and I've been around Atomix for quite some time, and can honestly say i didn't know "who you were" until the drama with you being demodded. I knew you were an admin/mod, but always figured you were a scripter/coder because I never saw you..

I thought we were talking about you, not them. I'm not Xpert, so ask him. I don't care about this enough to go look up every moderators rank and games played. If they have 0 for the past month, and they aren't scripters/coders, then obviously I agree they shouldn't remain as a mod too. There are exceptions though, such as informing the owner why you're gone..

Exactly that's my point, thats why ive said why are you backing Xpert when you don't know the facts..

I informed other people, senior mods and full mods I wasn't gonna be as active, I can't inform someone who IGNORES me.

It has nothing to do with being selfish, why would anyone be apart of something that is totally by choice, if they don't agree with how it is run and its current state, Atomix was good before, sucks now, thats all there is to it, why would I be apart of something that sucks?

Yes what you've said is correct, I was inactive from game for a month (+/-) however I was still actively modding the server, present on IRC for most part of the day (as I work in computing I could IRC while at work) and made daily posts on the forums.

That's completely different from not being here at all for a month and then coming back and going ok guys wtf?

If he wants to remove me as a mod then thats fine, that's his right but I want it known its cos of personal reasons not because I was AFK.

I want to make other people aware that Xpert, to put it nicely, is a power hungry wanker

The number of inaccuracies being thrown around in this topic from people who by no means have the full story is astounding. /grainofsalt

To those that complain I haven't been removed due to inactivity - at risk of sounding pompous - I built this community from the ground up. From before the days of Xpert, Ungy and all the other senior staff we've gone through. The fact is that we're not all on equal footing, and to assume as such is incredibly misguided. Communities need a hierarchy - I challenge you to name one that doesn't. You may have put time and effort into the community, but I've put in a lot, lot more. So no, inactivity is not inactivity. Yes Caveman - this means that I think senior staff do, in some circumstances, receive different treatment. I know this pops your bubble of moral sensitivity, but you need to get your head around it or stop banging on about it.

Besides which, someone who is inactive does very little to harm a community. Even if we only get their experience and skills for one day a week, we're better off. I've maintained that position for a long time.

That brings me to my second point, which I hope people will read before quoting the above out of context. In my personal opinion, a lot of the reason behind recent removals is more to do with the fact that these people were doing more harm than good. The time when these people were present, they were present with a jaded, toxic and uncooperative attitude. Inactivity certainly played a role in your removals, but so too did your attitudes. You had lost all respect for the senior and junior staff (whoever's fault that was is frankly irrelevant), you contributed nothing then hid behind the fact you've banned people in the past x weeks to justify your existence, you approached everything with a sarcastic and immature attitude. All in all, it was a horribly ineffective arrangement. And yet, somehow, we're the bad guys from putting a stop to it. Go figure.

Caveman, you know my opinion on why you were removed. You disagree so violently with how Xpert runs the community, and yet you still somehow think you can fit in. One of the prerequisites of being staff is agreeing, at least in principle, with the approach and the ideals of the senior staff. If you don't - especially to the extent that you do not - you're not a good fit for that community. And yet, you're still there trying to bash your round peg into that square hole. How long will it take before you get the point that Xpert is the owner, and YES! That means he gets to run things how he wants. I've lost count of the number of times I've said that to you. Yours is the only case where I feel like you've been remotely hard done by. I know you mean for the best, but you're just so horribly unsuited to the current environment at Atomix.

The others - Vultima, Italy, etc. - there's a reason you've been nicknamed the possie. You had no interest in the community. You had no interest in improvement or upholding certain standards. When you played, you knew exactly where the rules could be bent to advantage yourselves - so you did - and you were overly exclusive. Some (not all, I'm aware) of you were warned for breaking our rules, then continued to do so behind our backs. You represented Atomix in a poor light (read: Italy - how are you failing so hard at understanding that having one of our mods cheat in another server is a no-no)? You did the bare minimum to maintain your status, and spent the rest of your time pushing our buttons trying to get a reaction. You got one, and now you're upset about it. I've got very little sympathy.

Re: the forums. Great work guys, at highlighting the exact reason you were removed. You support the community for years, try and justify your actions with your undying love for the community, then resort to this. Define:contradiction. The way you've resorted to this sort of action is pretty much inline with the typical anonymous internet scumbag, so I can't say I'm incredibly surprised. Not long ago, you were laughing and mocking those who made these sort of desperate, last ditched attempts to get some attention. You're those people now. Good show.

I agree with most of what you just said, but not the following.
Quote: Besides which, someone who is inactive does very little to harm a community. Even if we only get their experience and skills for one day a week, we're better off. I've maintained that position for a long time.

I personally find that all this does is make the mod team appear to be bigger than it actually is, and therefore providing the image that the mod team is inactive as a whole. Proven drastically by people not knowing who Caveman was. It also just gets lower mods confused when a Senior mod/admin is not active, yet they are completely active, and are doing their job, yet have less power. To have ones voice overrun by somebody who isn't even active in the server being discussed is both irritating and down right stupid. If it were up to me, admins and senior mods would slowly start moving their way down the mod rank chain if they were inactive. I've also seen many people in the Atomix server have the attitude of "Atomix mods cheat" and "Atomix has no mods," because of the image that is being shown to them. A pretty decent size mod list, with only half mods and temp mods ever on is providing that very image. Not to mention that when one mod does one stupid thing (Italy cheating), it affects the entire image of the mod team as a whole, not just that player.

Noone has said that you've haven't put a lot of time into the community, I'm not trying to argue your position or anything like that however, I am quoting X here 'Inactivity is inactivity' his words mate, not mine. This is why I said well what bout you, Elmo and other mods, it was nothing personal it was me proving that my removal wasn't because I was AFK. Yes we need a hierarchy, of course, however people should still get treated the same whether they're a halfy thats been here for 2 days or an admin thats been here since the beginning.

Just because you, elmo, x, hypnos or whoever have been here longer that doesn't mean that you're more important or that you can have the rules bent for you. This is where I get pissy, rules are rules everyone should abide by them.

In my workplace I have quite an important role (just like you have here) doesn't mean I can have longer breaks, or turn up when I want or have a smoke. We have a hierarchy however rules are rules.

Yet I did that (although I was more active) and im somehow in the wrong, according to X.

I hope that doesn't apply to me, I can't see how I would have done more harm then good, I can't see how I did any harm but ok. As far as I know I didn't lose anyones respect albeit Xperts which is to be expected. I still had senior stuff say to me even though what im saying is right and they agree with me, its X's server.

dippy wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 08:59

I've said this many times, yes its his server he can do what he likes with the server, however you can't run a community like that, when you do this happens, its not the first time this has happened and im not the only one to have stood up and said so. Yes being a lesser staff I should accept when X has made the final decision but if me and most of the other staff thinks its the wrong one then we should be allowed to express our opinions and ask why he has decided to choose it. Not just go 'My server sit the fuck down' You wouldn't run Atomix like this, so surely you should understand where I am coming from.

I do want whats best for this community, its all I ever wanted, I put a lot of time, money and effort into it while I was joint owner, so yeah when I come back as a halfy and I try and express myself, show willingness to improve, get 'promoted' and I get flat out IGNORED what do you expect?

X and myself have different ways of running things so yeah if he chooses to do it differently and myself and other mods, senior and on occasions joint admins think he is wrong then surely we should be allowed to say hold on mate, we respect its your server but we all feel it would be better doing it like this and not to be flat out ignored. Even if he still says well tbf guys I think it would be better how I do it would be nice but no, we get ignored.

I keep on using a word here, can you pick out what it is?

I can't comment on that as I had nothing to do with any of it, I dont condone it however I did find it amusing.

To be blunt lesser members of the community shouldn't have to feel like they're walking on egg shells whenever they disagree with X but as of late that's exactly how it is.

I'm not trying to get my mod back, I know X isn't gonna drop his ego and meet me half way,(even though I said to you both privately that fine i'll do it your way and i'd bounce on his epenis because I wanted what was best for Atomix and I still got whats the word... IGNORED.) that's not the point of this topic (as it is now) I want it known that X is a prick and if you don't do as he says he will just make up some bollox to get rid of you.

As I have said already, he can hire/fire who he wants but I just wanted the public to know his actual reasons behind it not that BS he used to cover it up so when others decide to join atomix as a part of the community they know what they're getting themselves in for.

Me and Italy to begin with hardly did more harm than good, we were the only active mods actually doing something for a good 4 months, and hardly called people out, what I figure is, Italy saw Atomix was doing something stupid and decided to go out with a bang.

I kept my mouth shut until my status was removed, as did Caveman, to keep the peace with Xpert, if Caveman didn't agree with Xpert, I didn't see him going "OMGWTFSHITDECISION", as people somehow appear to think.

I cannot recall one topic where he did that on a minor scale - the part when he spoke out about needing more senior mods, which was totally a good decision, as Xpert seems to be hated by a lot of people and the server kept getting downed, and the serial to it changed, meaning during the early hours of american/candian time, but UK morning, the server would be down and as usual it would just be me Italy Caveman and Hypnos and would have to wait for periods of 12 hours for it to be online again as no one could put it back online, occasionally Dippy would be on as it would be nighttime for him, and he would fix the problem, but that was even rare.

I didn't even make it public that I had a problem until the very end of days, which anyways I was getting ganged up on by Appshot and basically Xperts "minions", so yea why would I take that shit, they clearly had a problem because of what Xpert had said to them, and I aren't going to take that shit.

And also then, in the end, you gave Hypnos senior admin on a whim, I remember talking to you about Hypnos, when Italy was repromoted to fullmod and Hypnos who was here for ages was still a half, you intentionally did that to piss him off, and now he is senior mod, he is still basically a fullmod on what he can do, besides a few serial protection commands.

Anyone who had been around for a decent amount of time and at one point had at least full mod and saw all the behind closed doors stuff at any given point in Atomix knew right away the true reason for getting rid of Caveman as I said in my one post in that topic without saying it straight out. For the people who didn't spend a good amount of time there and know what went on behind closed doors, you probably won't understand the full story.

As I knew it the instant I saw it it was just xpert grabbing at a weak excuse to cover up for the real reason. So many times before the same thing has happened, from other demod's to bans that got swept under the rug because of the fact there wasn't enough evidence.

If you have never been at least full mod in atomix to the point you can see the forum section at least, you in reality have no idea what goes on there and should not speak about any matters regarding Atomix in which you have no clue. I haven't been there in years and things have probably either become better or worse, but it is so clear, the attitude and actions of the decision maker hasn't changed one bit.

Duck wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 11:21If you have never been at least full mod in atomix to the point you can see the forum section at least, you in reality have no idea what goes on there and should not speak about any matters regarding Atomix in which you have no clue. I haven't been there in years and things have probably either become better or worse, but it is so clear, the attitude and actions of the decision maker hasn't changed one bit.

I'm a full mod. Have been for some time now. I haven't seen really anything that you speak about. You act like there's witchcraft or something that goes on...

I used to despise Xpert and nearly everyone knows that. He despised me as well. I took a long break from Ren(again) came back and decided to sit @ Atomix, because of Italy and a few others. Turned out, Xpert had changed as well. I don't see where you guys are coming from that makes Xpert the "cold-hearted owner/admin" that he is, because he really isn't. Because a few mods got removed, you guys are making this more than it is. He listens to just about all the mods that give him ideas, and takes them from granted. Shit, he held a "conference" a couple days ago with like 4-5 mods (me, manny, elmo, Ez, Stewie, app and I think a couple more) asking what we should do about the situation. He just didn't do something, he wanted input from HIS mod team on what we wanted to do as well.

It wasn't just having someone fix the site. It was if we should start new, what should we keep, and other stuff that I won't go into.

Oh, and that's not the first time he's done something like that, either.

Noone has said that you've haven't put a lot of time into the community, I'm not trying to argue your position or anything like that however, I am quoting X here 'Inactivity is inactivity' his words mate, not mine. This is why I said well what bout you, Elmo and other mods, it was nothing personal it was me proving that my removal wasn't because I was AFK. Yes we need a hierarchy, of course, however people should still get treated the same whether they're a halfy thats been here for 2 days or an admin thats been here since the beginning.

The same treatment, to a great extent. However at some point there is a line drawn in the sand. That's what makes it a hierarchy, which we now agree is necessary.

Caveman wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 03:46

Just because you, elmo, x, hypnos or whoever have been here longer that doesn't mean that you're more important or that you can have the rules bent for you. This is where I get pissy, rules are rules everyone should abide by them.

What rules are we talking about here? The appointment of staff, who is appointed and to what level has always been at the discretion of the senior staff. It's an executive decision.

Caveman wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 03:46

I hope that doesn't apply to me, I can't see how I would have done more harm then good, I can't see how I did any harm but ok. As far as I know I didn't lose anyones respect albeit Xperts which is to be expected. I still had senior stuff say to me even though what im saying is right and they agree with me, its X's server.

It certainly does apply to you. You have to realise that your approach to these issues has the capacity to do more harm than good. Sometimes the path of least resistance makes things better off for the community. You might be sacrificing your own morals in part, which is something you're not clearly able to do, but I'd urge you to consider whether it would have been beneficial to the community to have done so, given the situation we're in now.

You had senior staff agree with you, including me, on some issues. However, have you asked yourself why you didn't always get our public support? The answer is that we have more to consider than how it might conflict your high moral standards, namely what is overall less disruptive and better off for the community, given what state it was in at the time. It's an important consideration you've failed to make over and over again.

I've said this many times, yes its his server he can do what he likes with the server, however you can't run a community like that, when you do this happens, its not the first time this has happened and im not the only one to have stood up and said so. Yes being a lesser staff I should accept when X has made the final decision but if me and most of the other staff thinks its the wrong one then we should be allowed to express our opinions and ask why he has decided to choose it. Not just go 'My server sit the fuck down' You wouldn't run Atomix like this, so surely you should understand where I am coming from.

Correction: in your opinion, you can't run a community like that. I've said a number of times now that it's not necessarily the way I would run things. However, I have respect for the approach he has chosen, and I've worked out how I can best work within those bounds to aid the community. Through that avenue, we've had joint successes, and he and I have a good working relationship. Contrast now to your approach, and ask yourself what has been more beneficial to the community.

I'm not trying to get my mod back, I know X isn't gonna drop his ego and meet me half way,(even though I said to you both privately that fine i'll do it your way and i'd bounce on his epenis because I wanted what was best for Atomix and I still got whats the word... IGNORED.) that's not the point of this topic (as it is now) I want it known that X is a prick and if you don't do as he says he will just make up some bollox to get rid of you.

As I have said already, he can hire/fire who he wants but I just wanted the public to know his actual reasons behind it not that BS he used to cover it up so when others decide to join atomix as a part of the community they know what they're getting themselves in for.

So what exactly is the real reason Xpert removed you? Duck, you might pay attention here too. Everyone keeps banging on about how we're hiding the real reasons you were removed, and yet are hesitant to name them. Who ever said you don't have to get along with the owner to be on our staff? I think a least having respect for each other is a very important start. Which you two clearly don't have, despite who is to blame. Given the level of dislike and disrespect between you, you can't have ever expected that to be an effective situation. Something had to give, and how you ever thought it was going to be him is beyond me.

VuLTiMa wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 04:12

Me and Italy to begin with hardly did more harm that good, we were the only active mods actually doing something for a good 4 months, and hardly called people out, what I figure is, Italy saw Atomix was doing something stupid and decided to go out with a bang.

You were active mods in the sense that you were moderating the server often. In that way, you were doing good for the community and I don't dispute it. In a lot of other ways (as I pointed out above), your actions were detrimental.

VuLTiMa wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 04:12

I kept my mouth shut until my status was removed, as did Caveman, to keep the peace with Xpert, if Caveman didn't agree with Xpert, I didn't see him going "OMGWTFSHITDECISION", as people somehow appear to think.

I cannot recall one topic where he did that on a minor scale - the part when he spoke out about needing more senior mods, which was totally a good decision, as Xpert seems to be hated by a lot of people and the server kept getting downed, and the serial to it changed, meaning during the early hours of american/candian time, but UK morning, the server would be down and as usual it would just be me Italy Caveman and Hypnos and would have to wait for periods of 12 hours for it to be online again as no one could put it back online, occasionally Dippy would be on as it would be nighttime for him, and he would fix the problem, but that was even rare.

You weren't paying nearly enough attention, then.

The very situation you're talking about is a perfect example of how, with the right approach, we got a problem fixed. To you, the solution was to open up the server to more people. To us, that wasn't acceptable. It took some time, yes, but we discussed it and put some more staff in place. Everyone was happy, and it's a shame you didn't take anything away from the experience.

VuLTiMa wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 04:12

I didn't even make it public that I had a problem until the very end of days, which anyways I was getting ganged up on by Appshot and basically Xperts "minions", so yea why would I take that shit, they clearly had a problem because of what Xpert had said to them, and I aren't going to take that shit.

I'm not going to comment on whether or not that happened, as I wasn't paying attention to it, and no one thought to mention it to me. Let's say for argument's sake it was happening, though. What did you do? Lowered yourself to their level instead of trying to get it fixed in a more mature way.

Duck wrote on Sat, 23 July 2011 11:21 Anyone who had been around for a decent amount of time and at one point had at least full mod and saw all the behind closed doors stuff at any given point in Atomix knew right away the true reason for getting rid of Caveman as I said in my one post in that topic without saying it straight out. For the people who didn't spend a good amount of time there and know what went on behind closed doors, you probably won't understand the full story.

As I knew it the instant I saw it it was just Xpert grabbing at a weak excuse to cover up for the real reason. So many times before the same thing has happened, from other demod's to bans that got swept under the rug because of the fact there wasn't enough evidence.

Again, I invite you to tell us what you think the true reason is behind his demodding. Xpert didn't like him? Given the lack of compromise on each side, sounds like an acceptable reason to me. Inactivity and a lack of willingness to follow simple and reasonable directions certainly played their part also. I've given my honest and open opinion of why things have turned out like they have, and you're still saying we're covering things up. If you know of something that I don't, please say it now.

Its the fact that the only reason given on removal was afk, when its all so clear and is now in the open that it was the disliking factor. If he was afk or not, I wouldn't know, I haven't paid that much attention. But I wouldn't know most of the things that go on would I, I can only base my opinions off of my past experience and what I saw when I was around, plus the occasional word of mouth from third parties. So in all honesty, I have about the same fact base to go off of as Hate, lol.

But I wouldn't know if you were covering something up, but after first hand seeing it done, it wouldn't surprise me.

There you go, Duck. I fixed a couple problems in your grammar in your last post. I hope you don't mind.

So you guys now know that the true reasoning behind Caveman's removal was either AFK, or Xpert not really liking him. Now, this matter can be dropped and settled.

Inactivity and a lack of willingness to follow simple and reasonable directions certainly played their part also. I've given my honest and open opinion of why things have turned out like they have, and you're still saying we're covering things up. If you know of something that I don't, please say it now.

I don't remember being told it was 'lack of compromise' from X. All I was told was. 'He has played in ages, sits on IRC, reads forums and does nothing.' Which yeah I hadn't played in 5 weeks, you hadnt played in 4 and Elmo... Well I won't go there. inactivity is inactivity. You keep telling me to listen to the owner. LISTEN TO THE OWNER. You was inactive why are you still here? I don't mean that personally, im just proving a point.

What reasonable and simple directions did he give me? All I ever got was (i've said this over and over) 'My server sit the fuck down'. Kinda hard to give directions to someone you ignore 24/7 isn't it?

Look Dippy, I know you've been here since the start and you mean well but seriously, man the fuck up and tell X exactly how it is, don't butter it up for him to save face. You shouldn't have to do that, you're joint owner, you put in just as many man hour as he does yet he 'boss man'

Atomix deserves better and you know it. You just wont publicly say it cos you might hurt his ego.

It's funny see cos when I first came back to Atomix me and X got along because we both dislike camp for his power hungryness, im sure you remember them days...It turns out X is exactly the same, perhaps not as bad as camp was with his bending of rules but nevertheless its still the same.

This has been a fun merry go round, but I'm afraid I'm hopping off. Everything has been explained, clear as day and still it is not understood.

The thing with these debates is, nobody ever wins. We could give our reason, to which you would just raise more questions. I like you cave, I really do but just reflect on how the debating in this thread is going. You are standing your ground, for that I can not fault you. But there will be no conclusion because you and X simply won't agree. You both have a certain disliking and lack of respect for one another.

Now see how this would have a negative impact on any debating at a senior moderation level. Decisions would not be made, and when they were by the adminastrive team, and I say that because the admins discuss things without me on some cases, you would dig your heels in and stand there stating every possible reason why we shouldn't.

Voicing your opinion, fair enough they take that on board. When a decision is made though if you can't back it up and just roll with it, how can you work as part of a team? How damaging is it to a team when senior members appear to not be in control by constant arguing when decisions have to be made? It is just not effective.

The fact is Xpert isn't going to set in stone why you were removed, but you should have already had a good idea. You can say 'you can't run a community like that' when it comes to making decisions but the fact is we are and have been for some time, maybe part of the reason Atomix is still one of the most active ren servers and didn't die off like so many others.

You're a great mod cave, and a good guy. But your inability to show a united front when senior decisions are made is what contributed to this situation.

Yes I have agreed with you on occasions and if you were to pull logs I openly admit that. The difference is whilst I agree privately with your concerns, I am thinking about the greater picture. What brings the least disruption to the community, could it benefit the community, what risk is involved? My personal feelings are full of emotion and to make effective decisions we need to take the emotion out of it. If I don't necessarily think a certain path is the best path I will voice my opinion, but I will also back whatever decision is made. This is something you just don't seem willing to do and believe me, it is more beneficial than arguing a debate out for 4 weeks.

Like I said, I'm hopping off of this merry go round so you guys can debate for as long as you want about what could, should, would have been. The fact is this is our reality and all that is irrelevant so I am unwilling to contribute to it any longer. I'd rather put my time into something constructive.

Bob, I know you don't want me to go into this with you, you'd prefer to let it die. So I will try my best.

I understand that you will back whatever decision the community makes, for that I respect you, I always have however as you know it's not the community decision, it's X's. That's the key point I'm trying to make.

This community isn't alive because of X and how he runs it, it's alive because of the other Admins/S'Mods. If you were to take these away Atomix would die very quickly.

If the mods agree on what X wants because it's what we want then I have no problem with accepting that (if it's something I don't personally agree with, like removing hourglass from rotation, we voted, community wanted it out I wanted it in and I never moaned or dug my heels in) however if that community is either disagreeing privately or just accepting it cos X is the man then I will dig my heels in because that's the right thing to do. Yes you agree with me and you're thinking about the bigger picture, which is if you don't agree with him he'll have a fit. He is like a child with a toy.

This all started because I got removed for a bogus reason, I don't appreciate being treated like I'm stupid. I've said if he wants to remove me, remove me but man up and tell me why not 'AFK'

The only things I've dug my heels into is the time when it was 3 UK mods to mod the server 24/7 and X despite being told time and time again we either need more S'Mods (with proper access) or for the current S'mods/admins to actually be here because they were AFK. (ironic this?) He had a power trip and pulled out the admin card. I'm sure you remember the times I'm speaking about.

Oh and the time when X was unbanning any dick that said I R SORRY I NO CHEAT NO MORE. Because he wanted player count more then actual decent players.. I was told privately by dippy to drop the argument and yes as much as I disliked doing so I did.

Any other time except from them two occasions I 'rolled with the flow' and got on with what X wanted.

Ungy107 wanted servers for the [CMPS.] Clan so [CMPS.]Ungy107 and [SynC]Trojan started renting a server box. We were hosting servers for Renzor and a few other people. We had a big fight with Renzor (Idiot Trojan) and started back up bad dog gaming for the hostname's. Later down the line it turned into atomix.

We already tried that and it failed horribly XD.

To sum it all up ungy was tired of paying for the server alone when trojan left and ditched it to anyone who would pay for it. Hence why xpert now the owner.

Ungy did more than take over the domain and hostnames - he took over our community, which was much more sizable than yours at the time.

Duck wrote on Mon, 25 July 2011 10:13 My "vendetta" didn't exist at the moment, a retarded without reason ts ban restarted it. But you wouldn't know about the ts ban because you are NEVER on teamspeak. Arguing with you is so pointless, when you post is the only time you ever have a spine and it's always an endless back and forth process where you repeat yourself 100 times.

In the recent past, you've taken any and every opportunity to trash-talk us; your only involvement with the community was with a sarcastic, condescending and provocative attitude, and yet you're surprised and upset when we grow tired of it and finally remove you...?

Have you stopped to consider that I repeat myself because you're failing so hard at comprehending the full situation?

Caveman.

I refuse to continue this when every point you raise I've covered off with you multiple times. You still fail to consider the consequences of your actions despite how well meaning they are - the 'bigger picture' if you like. If that's not something you're willing to do - that's fine, it's your personal choice, however you can't hold us accountable because it wasn't an attitude that was going to fit in with our community.

You so clearly haven't got the slightest clue about the dynamic between Xpert and I, so please don't try and explain it as if you do. You're putting words in my mouth based on your opinion and limited exposure, and I don't appreciate it.

Even when we did have a dedicated server it was around 100 Euros a month.

Looking at servers now, it should also be possible to stay below or around the 100 euros:

Now we have already established I have a bad attitude towards Xpert, I don't like Xpert, and he doesn't like me, to which started before he even was owner. Direct a post at me with something new and that we don't already know please.

I remember you d-riding him so hard just to get mod status, back before you had you're little asshole-ish attitude. Got all the way up to Full mod (D-RIDER) then quit with the rest of the group that left during the split. Then, you tried to come crawling back, asking to be unbanned or some shit. :/

In the recent past, you've taken any and every opportunity to trash-talk us; your only involvement with the community was with a sarcastic, condescending and provocative attitude, and yet you're surprised and upset when we grow tired of it and finally remove you...?

Considering I quit and wasn't removed. I quit and made a topic in the full mod section, which who knows if its still there or not in the February before the April when everyone was removed. I flat out said I quit, not my problem no one got around to taking my access away like asked.

Now that that is cleared up, yea I had an attitude, I didn't until someone came in and wiped everything clean, didn't care about what had been done before hand. Who was there first, him as owner or me as mod, oh yea, I was there first, may it had only been a temp mod, but I really didn't care the status. Several months of temp mod where you actually learn how to mod. Such a thing is unheard of there now.

Now we have already established I have a bad attitude towards Xpert, I don't like Xpert, and he doesn't like me, to which started before he even was owner. Direct a post at me with something new and that we don't already know please.

Gohax just leave the argument you utter fag, you have no idea what went on with Atomix during the period Xpert joined (Which also was when Duck was promoted, or at least a couple of months afterwards at the latest), if anyone hopped aboard Xperts penis man train it was you and Hate, I cannot recall one moment when Duck was remotely friendly with Xpert, anyways it wasn't Xpert who was announcing and providing the new mod status for the first few months he was there, it was Dippy, and as dippy had nothing against Duck, why wouldn't he not do so?

Also Duck remained as a fullmod for quite some time, so nice fail there again also, he didn't achieve mod and all of a sudden "quit" with the rest, as that happened some time afterwards, derp.

Seems like your mad bro.

Hopped aboard a penis? I remember back whenever we despised each other (me and xpert) you were all over it. I actually remember an instance proving this lol, where me and him were in an argument. I just came back to Ren, went to Atomix because I was talking with Italy and a couple others, noticed that Xpert hadn't kicked me/zlined me from IRC or TS, and all was well. No d-riding going on here.

So, you "utter fag" like Hate said just leave the argument, and quit your bitching. Tbh, we've all moved on from it. ./ I'm just getting a kick out of how mad you guys seem to be.
