dear storm server, I cheated in your server many occasions, (Im only writing this because obviously I wont be welcome after this but I dont care) got unbanned and it was a good time, I appreciate everyone there being a good sport about it though and I am sorry for the hassle I caused you and your people on several occasions.

noobstories, I used to play there, but then it became gay as fuck so as to not giving a damn I cheated there with rengaard on all the time. I finally got caught one day because I got sloppy, but they were good times, a shitty server gets shitty respect from me so I cheated there as often as I could. No plans on coming back or post a "what you want to hear" ban appeal.

jelly how Ill miss you, it was the only server out there I never cheated on and unfortunately I was banned for cheating the irony. I would just like to point a few things about jelly to the general public though. Their mod staff works on a fuck you basis. In other words, if you dont agree, say what they want to hear, agree that all their modding actions are always correct ect (many of you know what I mean) then you can get the fuck out. Now unfortunately jelly became less and less involved as did many of the other old admins and newer ones stepped up and provided modship to nobodys in recent years that really have fucked everything up.

Initially it all started when I joined after being inactive for some months because I recently got a life (something they dont understand) and so went onto my once fav server played 3 games and got banned for emitters/cheats or something along that line you can read all the details here:

<http://jelly-server.com/forums/index.php?/topic/18969-banned-for-emmitterscheats/>

Now not only did I only get 1 post in, but when I went to repost, they didnt show up, apparently I was "warned" (what are you 5 years old?) and my posts had to be screened first and this warn came as a result of me forgetting about a warn months and months before. Then I pm scruffy and torn(the mods who posted) and get pretty much no response except a "stay out". I even offered to give up the files in question exactly as they were but received no response. after iran (who makes cheats and gives them to others yet is still tolerated there, guess they dont know or something) and TORN revived an old ass topic about me getting out of banned situations, I joined in in an attempt to settle things straight now you can read this here

<http://jelly-server.com/forums/index.php?/topic/16859-so-it-happened-again/>

starting at post 16. Believe me or not, what I said in those posts were true and I didnt EVER cheat in the server, the disturbing thing is though that they are throughlly convinced their system is catching all the hot new cheats. One file in particular it seems they had the biggest problem with was something called mandainoscreenshake.ddb which was a file I downloaded several years ago in attempt to stop the annoying shaking you receive from artillery and the file would actually be a nice patch to the game IF it worked. lols to me the file never ever worked but for shits and gigs I always just left in there and over the years really forgot about it as well as the cheats emmitters I was accused of using. regardless no cheats were ever active on my computer at said ban time. Yet the funny thing is they are all boasting about how this "new" system is catching all these "regulars" yet the only thing the system has caught from me were inactive cheat sounding files

(to the jelly people: hell yea I lied about how I obtained those files because I know that you motherfuckers are the most unreasonable group of mods out there nowadays, something as simple as the truth of them being old forgotten inactive files would never fly into the reasoning zone of anyone there. I used to tell the truth to jelly mods but I would advise everyone to not try to reason with them at all these days)

Now even if I was using a no screen shake file that worked and all these emmitters I was supposedly using one would think it might be a 6 month, year ban maybe, at least I didnt join and start hacking the shit out of the server or killing people through walls and all that bullshit like bones.ini but the logical thing of course of course was to ban me forever from the server and the forums. Now the fucked up thing about all this to me is not only did I not cheat but was banned for supposedly cheating. I was being watched for "some time". I received this form ban after receiving a warning, AND all my pm's were ignored. A quick previous history will show that I put up with a certain admin there liquids bullshit for some time, and was not about to be taken advantage of so I stood up for myself.

What can you take away from this?

jelly bans and allows people on a suck my dick basis. If you suck their dick, you might get banned, kicked whatever but youll find a place there in a month or two again I assure you. Just tell them your sorry ect ect bullshit bullshit and they will let you back in, but as soon as you stop sucking their dick they will become infuriated with you and put you down as often as possible for not agreeing with their way of thinking. Theres no open debate at jelly, its just all one sided now. Its why you see so many vote in a public poll but not actually post shit about why they voted that way. Because I decided to be honest about things and they way I felt there it got on their bad side and they literally looked for the asap ban for whatever violation I could do. Even if I didnt have these supposed files in my folder I would still be banned and forum banned there too. The more fucked up thing is if anyone from jelly were to post something similar to this they would also be banned as well just for "not being on the same page" yet years ago this wasnt the case. Whats funny about this though is years ago jelly wasnt the only populated server. You could play at many servers years ago and get some good games in but now everything is just condensed into jelly and noobstories which like any monopolizing company can do whatever to whomever they want to. It would be nice to see other servers pop up similar to jelly with better staff where you can join and not worry about some guy in an invincible tank building walls around your refinery and flying through the air with unlimited credits building turrets in your spawn points and purchasing every gun in the game with ingame commands. Jelly has only gotten this recent puffing of attitude because they are the last server left and they know it. I dont suggest to boycott jelly because frankly I still play there (have fun finding me guys!). But with the implementation of 4.0 and finally bringing ren to what it needs to be I sincerely hope it wont be one monopolizing server forever, Id like to find a good game with good people elsewhere.

anyway shout out to my peeps for supporting my side of the story and agreeing with these points we have talked out, dont worry even though I know ALL my shit is banned there on this computer ip ect (which is why Im writing my fuck it on this account) Im not going to give you noobs up and ill see you ingame anyway despite their attempt to keep me out forever

To everyone else STILL sucking their dicks on a daily basis, grow a pair and stand up for yourself. No reason to be scared just because this particular server is the last one youll find to play good rene on EDIT: hot damn I cant believe iv been registered here longer than spoony!

I didn't even read that, but I like how you claim you didn't cheat on Jelly Mr.
MandaiNoScreenShake.ddb.

p.s. oh, you actually put that in there but somehow claim it was for legitimate purposes even though it has a very well known cheat creator's nickname in the filename and obviously implies it came from a certain cheat website we all know. Of course, there's all the emitters you were using too, but hey, who's counting.

you're just terrible at renegade derfcow; you cheated because you wanted someone somewhere to think you were good you're still the same retard you were when i first saw you, chasing my stolen Nod apc around the GDI base in your mammoth tank

the fact that you think Jelly is a bad place makes me think the contrary the fact that Jelly removed you for using cheat files means Jelly is doing the right thing; would you want to play on a server that allowed cheating? that's a strange notion derfie, but you're more than welcome to argue it for some reason you still deem me as the bad guy, at the same time you think everyone was out to get you you never seemed to notice that, half the time, literally no one agreed with you on anything at all the rest of the time it was just a tiny handful of people, and they never really supported arguments of any kind simply put you are an idiot; go back and bring up some Spoony vs. derfcow9 religion debates for me when you said totally retarded shit of course i called you on it; i did the same with anyone else it's sad now that you still can't come clean about using cheats, and that you claim to ban evade to still play all you've done, through all of this, is earn your given title of derfcow9 to the fullest

So you're just going to evade and cheat like every other idiot, despite initially stating the contrary? And act like you're the good guy?

I know your post was an inconsistent stream-of-consciousness and a mangling of the English language, but do us a favour and not lie.

Im not evading by continuing to play @ jelly because I really shouldnt have been banned forever in the first place. banned? sure, I would have banned me too if I were an admin and thought someone was cheating but forever? no. There is not 1 thing I could have done to avoid this either, even if I had no suspicious sounding files I still would have been banned just for sporting the name and some bullshit would have been made up to keep me out like right now. Its that extreme response thats fucking up renegade for everyone (note player drops every year) and the fact this attitude is coming from the only server still alive is frightening. fredcow9 was my name for years and the fact I have had to switch to something else was fairly annoying to me. This is something that the current admins could not get through their heads. I just keep a low profile and I know no ones wasting their time looking for me anyway so the only thing really different is fredcow9 is no longer in use on renegade.

I did mean that Ill miss jelly though, rewind a few years and things were awesome not anymore though...lv been missing jelly for a long time now.

for some reason you still think everyone is out to get you i think you're a bit paranoid or delusional here's the thing: mods don't care what names people play on the fact that you were caught cheating on a name that differs from your main one is irrelevant; you were still cheating using a cheat file is cheating; you had cheat files and were actively using them

why are you still lying about it? why are you claiming to have been wrongfully banned? don't you want moderators to ban cheaters? i thought that was one of the many roles of a moderator in the first place

Jelly is much better off without you cheating there derfie mods need to ban cheaters, but they need to get direct evidence instead of relying on a moot bot that really does nothing. Remember when said bot went around kicking everyone who wasn't cheating in the past?

you're trying to be sarcastic, but what you say is true the location of the files was proof that you were using them at that very moment when the moderator checked you the bot glitching and banning people because of a serial issue actually has 100% nothing to do with how you got caught cheating and why you were banned i'm not sure that you understand how much of a proven cheater you are, and the fact that even now you're still flat-out lying about it is probably the reason they chose to ban you from the forums

it's humorous that you're insinuating that i'm actually thick-skulled on another level it's sad, because you might actually be mentally ill and not know the difference

Those files were cheats. Why do you keep denying it.
EVERYONE knows Mandai was one of the biggest cheat makers in Ren before mr *cheat name removed*came along.
Also the emitters are cheats as well. Like I said, not a new policy, just better detection now. Sorry we try to find and stop cheats in our servers.

yep those screen shake emitter files were just all over the place in my gameplay...

You are FUCKING STUPID.

If you had those files in the place that you did (which we have proof of) with the filenames that they had, then Renegade would have loaded them into memory. No ifs, ands, or buts about it (unless of course you were using that objects injector thing, but that's a whole other story). You seem to keep denying this, but that is in complete contrary to how Renegade works.

So yes, they definitely WERE affecting your gameplay and you definitely WERE cheating your balls off. Now please continue to cry about it.

We're unreasonable because we banned you for cheating and refuse to allow you to spam the fuck out of our forums with shit whining about how you want to be unbanned and how you're just gonna evade anyway? Do you know how many people think they will "just evade anyway?" in the past on Jelly a player named majid was getting cheat accusations and told me a plan he had to post a screenshot with R-G-H in the corner and pretend it was an accident
i said that, if he was going to do it, that he should post 3 screenshots, but only one with the R-G-H in the corner so it truly looked like an accident a moderator saw it and instantly banned him, citing that it was full proof and that it couldn't possibly be anything else (i had not said anything, for it would have ruined his joke)
i hadn't the slightest idea that anyone would notice that quickly or actually take it that seriously, let alone act on it in the end it wasn't a very mod-like move to allow such a thing to happen (though i still thought it was humorous that several players that had been riding majid for months made fools of themselves in the few hours before he could say it was a joke)

i did formally apologize for it, and accepted it and moved on

What he does is makes server side plugins for people, and they tend to look the other way when he pulls shit like that. What's absurd is that BH in that topic is the one I(DJEYEK found it) gave him, for trying to make an anti-cheat for it.

It is funny he sucked ass at sniping before he started coding plugins, now he's "pro". He "lags" like a bitch with 4.0 running, every movement he makes is that way.

of course it is.

Quote:do you understand? i don't think you do, and that's why i suggested that you might be mentally ill right, continue face of jelly games. And you tried to make yourself to be a fair person.

You actually suggested I dont have children, I dont see what type of open minded fair logical person would ever attack a person in such a way. Especially over a video game.

Quote:what might have helped you long ago was if someone had had the heart to tell you when you were being an idiot, because you seem perplexed whenever it happens still continuing with the idiot rage?

Quote:you don't encourage people to question your statements or beliefs Where did I not encourage such?

Quote:and also, when they do you don't even read or understand it; it goes in one ear and out the other

Not a surprising response from someone who thinks im a mentally ill idiot who shouldnt have children.

Quote:that has never been my line of thinking; i hope you can back up such an accusation of course it hasnt.

Quote:i've had several people tell me that i'm an arrogant, cocky asshole that is unreasonable in the end it always turned out to be the people i disliked for legitimate reasons; i'm sorry if the fact that i think you're an idiot shines through in my posts, but it's true

Quote:i honestly don't care if people disagree with me about anything; they have every right to but when they can never back it up in any sensible or reasonable way then i don't much value their opinion

Seems quite contrary to everything youv said so far.

Quote:for example, your opinion could be that "stank rushes on city are not overpowered because GDI gets stanks too" am i supposed to just agree with you because that's your opinion? no, i will not, and i may even call you an idiot for suggesting it gdi cant get stanks too so I really dont get what your getting at here.

Quote:really? i do a good job backing everything that i say up,

You claimed Im mentally ill, shouldnt have children and am a complete idiot, surely youll be able to make a decent evident argument to this since you back everything up so well.

Quote:something you have never done and likely will never do is that my problem? no; what you do is your own business

however, don't expect anyone to give you any credibility

You may start to notice that its just you here. If I wasnt form banned I could go through many polls topics ect where others thought I was correct I provided evidence ect. Do you really think I NEVER in the history of my existence backed anything up?

Quote:did you ever stop to think that, perhaps the way you are, is the reason people dislike you?

You mean your social group on jelly?

Quote: it's not that you disagree, though you quite clearly seem to think so i almost think you have a problem with gasp being wrong about things

The same can be said for you.

Quote: you can say the same about me but in all honesty i have no problem admitting when i'm wrong and telling people about it

Of course you'll say that now.

Quote: in the past on Jelly a player named majid was getting cheat accusations and told me a plan he had to post a screenshot with R-G-H in the corner and pretend it was an accident

i said that, if he was going to do it, that he should post 3 screenshots, but only one with the R-G-H in the corner so it truly looked like an accident a moderator saw it and instantly banned him, citing that it was full proof and that it couldn't possibly be anything else (i had not said anything, for it would have ruined his joke)

i hadn't the slightest idea that anyone would notice that quickly or actually take it that seriously, let alone act on it in the end it wasn't a very mod-like move to allow such a thing to happen (though i still thought it was humorous that several players that had been riding majid for months made fools of themselves in the few hours before he could say it was a joke)

i did formally apologize for it, and accepted it and moved on

That's fucked up. You let someone cheat as a joke, yet I haven't even been caught cheating and I'm banned. It's this hypocrisy that really shows your true colors.

Quote: the worst-case scenario is you'll evade and play again and still be terrible despite whatever cheats you choose to run

I'm not so sure what my gameplay skill levels have to do with cheating. If you think people cheat because they are trying to make up for a lack of skill in a game then your looking at cheating completely wrong.

Assume your worst case scenario is in play btw. I don't run cheats.

Quote: if you cause problems with in-game chat you'll likely get dealt with as would anyone else
Jelly Games doesn't discriminate

I know how to not be found.

Quote: but let me clear this up again: you still maintain your innocence

ok, that's all you needed to say excellent

Quote: come see me when you don't have to lie about what you've done and can accept it for what it is

You mean come see me when you take my side and accept the cheats you weren't using.

Quote: it took you this long to come clean about cheating in other servers years ago so i don't expect anything anytime soon

I came clean about the cheats to many people the moment I did it. Just because you weren't one of them doesn't mean anything. You think your supposed to be involved in a lot of things but frankly your really not. This is old news, I just publicly released the info for shits and gigs.

Quote: the most populated server in Renegade dislikes you for cheating on it, which is why you were banned from it

For life? Hm so your telling me anyone who is caught using any cheats on jelly is now banned for life?

Quote:i'm not sure if you realize that using cheat files is considered cheating (aka bighead, etc.)and that is why you were banned

Which for the last time and I wont address this again, I was ok with because said files existed in my folder at the time and so I was ready to accept punishment and own up to having cheat sounding files in my folder. However first response to my ban topic was life ban. You can figure out the rest.

Quote:i care about Renegade in a fanatical way? tell me, when is the last time i played Renegade derfcow

i enjoy the game, and i would like it to continue for as long as it can i fail to see how that makes me a fanatic

You seem to get quite worked up over it. Your still replying to my posts for some reason.

Quote:again, you were banned for having cheat files in your game folder you were using them as you played;

Your staff proved I had files in my folder, no one proved I was using them. This is also the last time Im addressing this because Its annoying. I didnt use any files, none were active and no one can prove I used anything actively because there inst the tineyest shred of proof for it. When someone shows me evidence of my actively using the cheats at the time of this ban or EVER in my history of playing at jelly then ill be as shocked as having the ability to fly.

Quote: you were cheating

Quote:i don't understand why you're denying it; there's no denying what you had Theres no proving what I had, what did I do in game that was fishy/showed I used cheats. All you have are names from a bot.

Quote:the fact that you continued to lie about it then (and choose to lie about it now) is likely why you were forum banned

Glad to hear an explanation. Though it looks like non mods have more power than the mods there as lurker suggested it and then it happened.

Quote:i think the world would be better off without people as thick-headed as yourself, and if you not having children could possibly contribute to this notion i think it could only be a good thing
You off your soapbox yet?

Quote:i asked why you think i'm a terrible administrator; are you suggesting that this is so, because i seem to dislike you as an individual and am not courteous and polite to you?

Id have to say letting someone run *cheat name removed*and then withholding information seems proof enough right there. If youv done this who knows what else youv done but wont tell anyone about because it might fuck you in the ass?

Quote:why you think certain moderators should be removed, namely ones that have had problems with you in the past (aka dave2916, who banned you for teamkilling and teamhampering based off the words of xxxozxxxx and the corresponding IRC logs proving it)

Mike needed to be removed as when he was a trial mod he kicked me for destroying a humvee mass he was busy th'ing with.

skeptical is new to the modship and kicked me for 2 weeks for supposedly giving tanks away.

scruffy just form banned me because a non moderator told him to.

You allowed someone to use *cheat name removed*post a ss, get them in a heat of trouble and didnt say a damn thing.

Of course I cant remember years of poor modship incidents specifically so it would be pointless for me to describe them.

I dont even know who dave29516 is...

Quote:you seem to have a real problem with people that have a problem with you, but you're looking at it the wrong way: what you should be considering is that, perhaps, there's a one in a million chance that the fault is actually gasp your own

I can only think of a handful of people that actually have a problem with me. Its the possession of power they have gained since I started at jelly that has gotten me where I am.

Quote:something to think about

Thanks dr phil

shai, is that the topic where Iran directed some guy to bighead and then the guy got banned? to be clear on that one, the guy actually went to Iran in the first place asking for cheats so he could kill players he thought were cheating[/color]

You can be as "clear" as you want to be. It doesn't take away from the fact he's known for doing that type of stuff.

Alright, there you go - now explain to me how you were not cheating?

P.S. this particular plugin can only detect files in your \data, which ironically, is where all of these cheats must be placed in order for them to work. So kindly explain to me how these cheats were not loaded (literally, explain to me how you managed to get these files to be in your \data folder but NOT load them into Renegade).

i'm fine; you're obviously not because you chose to use cheats it would have helped had you come clean about it; you're in denial and i don't expect you to

Iv never found anything wrong with cheating in casual non important servers. eg the build servers/noobstories ect. Jelly was the server I never cheated on and I still wont even in the future.
using the files you were is considered cheating; they are cheat files n00bstories does not differ much from Jelly Marathon, and we in no way appreciate you claiming the piece of my post that you quoted is referring to your years of being on the Jelly forums, for the record

i'm sure it doesn't help your case that people know how thick-headed and unreasonable you are; were you just a random player they would likely be more lenient, but since you're a long-time regular and expected to know better you were probably not given any leniency

why would i allow anyone to cheat? that's just silly

fredcow9 wrote on Thu, 26 April 2012 13:53Quote:the worst-case scenario is you'll evade and play again and still be terrible despite whatever cheats you choose to run

Im not so sure what my gameplay skill levels have to do with cheating. If you think people cheat because they are trying to make up for a lack of skill in a game then your looking at cheating completely wrong.

Assume your worst case scenario is in play btw. I dont run cheats.

i doubt that, but ok and whether you run cheats now or not is beyond me; you were banned for having and using them at the time that you were banned and now that you've admitted to using *cheat name removed*in communities that have neighbored Jelly you probably aren't very welcome you likely would have been banned from Jelly a long time ago not once did you do anything remotely suspicious that i can recall in all your time there, and i applaud you for that what makes you think i'm supposed to be involved in anything? this is another pointed statement with no actual basis

i hope you can back it up in some way because a handful of people knew about it does not mean that n00bstories or st0rm knew, which is what actually mattered for the record, you were a serious dipshit on both of their forums when the bans came around your little one-line apology in the OP is almost a slap to the face of the people that had to spend their time dealing with your immaturity

you even participated in inter-community wars (and maybe even a community war or two - i'd have to check to be sure)

You allowed someone to use *cheat name removed*post a ss, get them in a heat of trouble and didnt say a damn thing.

Of course I cant remember years of poor modship incidents specifically so it would be pointless for me to describe them.

I dont even know who dave29516 is...

dave2916 is skeptical

you have no proof whatsoever that Scruffy forum-banned you or his reasoning for it; all you know is that you were forum-banned

Mike kicked you for destroying a mass? why are you surprised that that happened?

the "banned for two weeks for giving tanks away" doesn't sound familiar to me; was that an error with the bot not letting you back in, or was that the incident where you were teamkilling and xxxozxxxx talked to skeptical about it?

i didn't allow a player to use R-G-H, and you misunderstood my post

i allowed a player to post a faked R-G-H screenshot, and it ended up being so convincing that he was banned for it

the mistake was mine, and i unbanned him and apologized to the moderator both in private and in public

Summary, he's cheated everywhere else but not on our server. If you were banned you deserved it regardless of being caught or not.

See how easy was that to sum up? It's our decision on who we let in. You weren't wanted, move on.

You sounded like a true boss in the main topic.. Sounded like the realest person in video games. Then I realized, you were hacking, then I realized you were hacking in "every server but Jelly" - sounds like you just wanted a last shot at getting unbanned from Jelly, but you're an idiot.

Here's an idea! Move on from Renegade.. Game has only been out for a decade now..

not hard to figure out

Quote:i'm unfamiliar with the expression, but if you understand then great - i don't have to keep explaining it
It refers when someone gets up to make a speech on a quick object that elevates them from the crowd as to draw attention. They then proceed to make some sort of moving or speech of information.
It was sarcasm m8

Quote:do you have anything other than that, because you were mistaken when you thought i let a player cheat as a joke? the player didn't cheat; again, he edited a screenshot in Paint or Photoshop and put the tag in the corner
he was going to put shit on the radar too but i said that was probably unnecessary to be convincing again, i had no idea it would fool so many people a harmless joke turned into a huge ordeal, and i accepted the fault and moved on i wouldn't do anything similar in the future because of how that turned out; my sense of humor is not always modlike
You know how serious people in this game take cheats, look at the way you regard cheats as only being for sick people who need help to be good at the game. Posting something on that forum like that if your story's true is extremely fishy. I believe you, im not that unreasonable but surely you see the baseless accusation I just made as ludicrous? thats what Im going through. Your guilty for allowing cheats in your server as much as I am guilty of cheating in your server.

Quote:dave2916 is skeptical
you have no proof whatsoever that Scruffy forum-banned you or his reasoning for it;
here you go
Quote:Yes remove him forever scruffy... Ban him from forums too

He still not sending a link of the skinpack.
Quote:It's already gotten hits on a few regular players... and with that.

Fredcow is permabanned, this topic is locked.
liquid I know more about how you guys work than you may think. I know about the mod forums ect ect. their channels. maybe scruffy didnt make it happen but its hard to doubt given the 2 quotes above are the ONLY clues I have since I cant even log in to check any pms

Quote:all you know is that you were forum-banned
Mike kicked you for destroying a mass? why are you surprised that that happened?
he was th with the mass and was a half mod.

Quote:the "banned for two weeks for giving tanks away" doesn't sound familiar to me; was that an error with the bot not letting you back in, or was that the incident where you were teamkilling and xxxozxxxx talked to skeptical about it?

This was when I supposedly gave 2 tanks away and as a result received 2 weeks in ban time. Maybe you actually arent as unreasonable as I thought and legitimately just dont know about the things Im saying.

Quote:i didn't allow a player to use R-G-H, and you misunderstood my post
I got it.

Quote: i allowed a player to post a faked R-G-H screenshot, and it ended up being so convincing that he was banned for it
the mistake was mine, and i unbanned him and apologized to the moderator both in private and in public
excellent.

Quote:so it's because people that dislike you and are biased against you became mods that you are banned now, skeptical banned me for 2 weeks. I had run in with him as a trial mod scruffy didnt used to be an admin, he was just a mod and he never took much of a shine to me, Im banned by him.
rice back in the day cried up and down I needed to be banned to mods and got me banned.
I dont have this attitude towards bad modship for no reason. Its developed as a result of my treatment over all this time.

Quote:and not because you used cheats? oooooooooooooooooooooooooooooook there derfcow glad we understand each other.

Quote:can you show me one time where a player was banned simply because "the mods did not like them"?

yea let me go through and read every single ban topic and figure that out.

Quote:if you try to cite your own case now then you're not only an idiot, you're also a liar lol why would I cite myself?

Quote: i'm likely hoping for too much when i ask that you be honest instead of lying in this case liquid it goes like this. I have friends at jelly, some of them mods, ex mods, not mods. I tell them and trust some of them with information. You have never been in that group which is why you seem to have everything confused about things that happened in the past. This case right here, specifically is a I dont give a fuck case. Its the type of case where Im not going to lie but tell everything exactly as it is. you can believe that or you can simply not believe it. Its really as simple as that.

Quote:what's the worst that could happen? the mods would say No guess what we don't give a shit you're staying banned anyways

I know how mods work and their attitudes. scruffy gave me the first warn I had btw, then gave me a second warn for posting too much after forgetting about that first warn (it had been a while) His quick decisive response of your banned forever and locking the topic immediately only showed there was no chance dude. I dont know where your getting this idea I could have "come clean" (though I came clean about everything in these past posts)

Quote:then you could ban evade or whatever made-up shit you said prior to this I just play in jelly here and there now, its not ban evading because Im not even rightfully banned with proof.

P.S. this particular plugin can only detect files in your \data, w

You can search in any folder by adding file paths to the file name, for example ".\\some.dll" would search in the renegade folder, not the renegade\data folder.

you are derfcow, if i'm not mistaken fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42never knew cheating was related to illnesses.

who said it is? i wouldn't be surprised though if people that are more likely to cheat have other tendencies as well might just be a symptom of a bigger problem not sure how cheaters that continuously lie about it fit into that though fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42What part of banned for life dont you get? Also what part about I didnt cheat dont you get?

using cheat files is cheating; do you understand this concept?
what did your initial ban post say? did you deny that you had actually cheated within it?

fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42This really shows how little you actually know about this is proof that Lurker is the reason you were forum banned? that's some nice proof you got there, i dare say why don't you just openly ask here why you were forum banned if you want a straight answer?

fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42The same liquid who stated Id give any other player the benefit of the doubt besides fredcow

i didn't care in the slightest because you're an idiot and no one takes you seriously what i meant was, were you someone that i didn't know to be an idiot, i'd be far more likely to take what you said into consideration since i've observed you for years now there was no reason for me to assume you simply "did not know any better" or had just made a mistake you are responsible for your own actions; you broke a rule, and you were punished for it there's no chance i was going to believe you over another player's testimony that i trust far more than your own and coinciding IRC logs fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42Because your faulty in thinking lv been using cheats straight for years...wow

i did say, however, that i wouldn't be the least bit surprised if you had i'm not sure you get the connection, but it's quite simple fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42Quote:the first incident with st0rm was literally years ago; are you trying to dispute my statement of "considering you have been using cheats for well over two years now"? you used R-G-H at least several times in the past few years; do you deny this truth?

you're a truly pathetic person derfcow

you must feel a sense of pride when you say you've never cheated in Jelly Servers, enough to lie to yourself about it at the very least, enough to lie to everyone else here about it i'm aware; i'm explaining that things happen to people when they cheat in your case you were banned for it not because you're fredcow9 and people know you, but because you were cheating even an admin is not exempt from cheating that's the point i'm making; you seem to understand that, but you're not grasping the part about you being banned because you cheated

i think the mods expected you to come clean and not act oblivious or deny it; since you didn't come clean they must have realized you were wasting their time and cut your topic off you're still denying it even now, so i'd say they made the right decision you're not worth their time, nor mine i'm merely setting the record straight for anyone else that cares to read into it fredcow9 wrote on Fri, 27 April 2012 16:42Quote:the piece of my post that you quoted is referring to your years of being on the Jelly forums, for the record

Which is what I get for being loyal to a server for almost a decade. I hope the other regulars read that part because thats fucked up.

you were around for half a decade at most if you're so loyal to the server why did you cheat on it? fuck you lmao you expect people to turn a blind eye and pretend you're not annoying and retarded? why would they do that? you have a strange sense of entitlement here; i'm not sure what you feel you're entitled to but it clearly upsets you that you're not getting it

people are entitled to their own opinions if there's evidence to show i'm retarded i'd like to see it simple proof that you're an annoying retarded guy: you cheated on multiple servers and lied about it for years

I dont know where your getting this idea I could have "come clean" (though I came clean about everything in these past posts) you've continued to deny cheating i don't believe that's the truth, and neither does he there's no evidence to suggest that you are innocent you're continuing to maintain your innocence, and your story doesn't add up your initial post should have been an apology and an admission, but since it wasn't (and still is not) he chose to lock your topic

Iran didn't make the player do anything; it was his choice, and he chose to both get the cheat and use it he could have used it on single player; would you suggest i ban Iran had that been what happened? Iran is not responsible for what others do lol what part of "the player asked Iran for cheats in the first place" do you not understand? are you saying nothing should have happened to that player?

no it's not; Iran spoke to me about it beforehand

it became a sting operation, and the only reason he went ahead with it was i told him to see what the player would do

there was always the chance the player would turn away

Iran likely saved the mods a lot of trouble from trying to catch the player in the end it was the player's choice to get and use cheats, not Iran's or anyone else's liquidv2 wrote on Sat, 28 April 2012 18:44: it would be if Iran approached the player first and said Hey buddy! Want some cheats?!

That's the one player, what about the other(that we know of) who's said he's done this? It fits his profile on how he acts.

Choosing that BH to give to people(knowing full well BIATCH couldn't have detected it) rings a little counter-productive here, don't you think?

You're effectively giving carte blanche to people by backing this up.

Apparently all of these shenanigans have been going on while I've been working for the last few days...

First of all "brettowns"... if you are going to change your serial at least make the nickname less obvious.

FYI: I blacklisted one of Britain's larger ISP's because I needed to keep several persistent cheaters out as well as MDK@ENGLAND but that's another story...

Keeping you out will be relatively simple.

I forum banned you from Jelly for my own reasons. I dislike liars, and I absolutely despise how cheating has been ruining this game for years. You admit to cheating in other servers but of course you never ever cheated in Jelly!

As for the permanent ban. That is up to T0RN.

However we believe you have been cheating in Jelly for a long time. It is also the general opinion of the modding staff as well as several regular players that you are nothing but a nuisance. You have contributed nothing significant to the community and I feel that removing you will not affect it negatively in the slightest.

If it makes you feel any better I put you in the same group as TilDeth.

Mapch is great, been picking up quite a few people in the last month with it.

I have no idea why raven didn't implement it earlier...

[14:49:13] <&JellyMarathon> [CHEAT] [-HOH-]Mikey has file sbhemitter.w3d

Greatest excuse ever:
Steam installed *cheat name removed*for me.

As I explained to t0rn the problem with this script is that it creates a lot of false positives. sbhemitter.w3d is probably some form of model/skin/stealth-effect. I know what i'm talking about because we've been using the software/script a lot longer than you have, sir.

no the laser rifle plays the emitter "sbhemitter.w3d" in the middle of the laser rifle, it's the only file that ever uses "sbhemitter.w3d", the stock game doesn't contain the file.

it's clear that the player in question was asking Iran how to cheat and get away with it because Iran seemed to know Renegade-related things

Azazel,

After being asked for a screenshot of a sbh he promptly refused and quit.

Afterwards he flipped out at Ereil on IRC.

I'm well aware of the false positives. I see them all the time with weapon models.

But when it picks up cheat programs or object files...

And for those who haven't gone through the thread on the Jelly forums. Apparently MandaiNoScreenShake.ddb is not an objects file according to Fredcow.

I'll look into this, I know reloaded speaks to Ereil so I'll get some form of response from Mikey.

I know if it was me, then I'd probably ban for screenshot evasion... especially if there was a bot-log with information against them... I foresee scripts 4.0 being on the cards at the very least.

hmm?

it's possible that he seriously believes he's innocent

maybe a rule exists that was never explained to anyone else but him: if you are fredcow9 and use cheats it's not cheating and you cannot be banned for it if this rule is violated you are justified in ban-evading and being a homosaur still looking for that in writing; haven't found it yet

LOL I have seen so many people banned on Renegade who are as delusional and paranoid as fredcow. Just look at how the first post is written, it could easily be a segment out of Anders Breivik's manifesto. The facts are simple on why fredcow is banned.

- 1) some cheats were detected in his data folder
- 2) he's weird/maybe retarded

I'm reminded of when troop released some of that secret TT stuff because he felt the Renegade community had it out for him. Most of that probably came from his own head. More people need to realize how insignificant they really are.

Once a cheater, Always a cheater. I don't care if you claim to only have cheated on a few select servers, because you're so full of shit all the points you spout out don't add up to anything. I think liquid is right, you may have been dropped on the head a few times as a child, probably why you're so oblivious to his responses about you.

I don't have the time or the patience for people who admit to cheating, or get caught cheating, or just cheat in general in any fucking game even pointless games like Doom 1 which aren't even online. I prefer setting myself up for the challenge, i hate people who claim Doom games were impossible without cheats, because i beat them without, after lots and lots of saving between each part. People who cheat in games deserve to get their experience ruined, and yes even forever hence permanent banning. If you got banned for a few days, you think that there would be less cheaters in Renegade? Some people just never give up, they will do anything to ruin everyone else's experience, because they think they haven't been treated fairly. Just joining any server you should be fully aware, ANYTHING in your data that is detected and (SHOULDN'T BE THERE) is all they need to evaluate weather or not you are cheating, and when this happens they have every right to ban you forever, I just wish they could ban you completely and you could never come back regardless, that would make things so much more peaceful in the Renegade community

For you to even claim that you never cheated in jelly, makes me wonder why you want to defend it so badly, for a nickname that is banned. Seems to me you still want to be known, yet you openly admit to cheating on noobstories server, just because you dislike the community or some other bullshit excuse. Just because you don't like something, there is never a need to try and ruin others experiences for your own personal bullshit. Sorry man but you come off here as a crackhead, don't even realize how deep the hole you dig yourself into is getting.

This thread is the epitome of cancerous bullshit on the dying face of renegade.

Allow me to contribute.

Reading anything Fredcow9 writes and trying to understand it, let alone writing 1/2 page rebuttals is futile - a complete waste of time for the two parties involved and anyone else who has to scroll past it to find anything of actual value in this thread.

Furthermore, I ask again why people such as Azazel post here, let alone be allowed to. Any time he is asked or insulted for his actions in the past, there is an act of nonchalance.

A server admin(?) caught hacking, poorly attempted to cover it up with a laughable act and lies, is posting here. Who in their right mind allows this? Who wants to read what he has to say? Who wants to associate themselves with him? Who wants to use the same forum as him? You can't carry on here like nothing happened.

from what i gather of both people i'd bet $100 that Iran has a higher IQ and is overall far more intelligent than DJ from what i've seen Iran is far better than DJ at Renegade; i've seen fraps from DJ when he led st0rm to a loss against [Dragon]

he's better than an average player but Iran is as well Iran is most likely better at every aspect of Renegade aside from sniping (in which case i cannot say who is better, but if glitching was allowed then DJ would win) that doesn't mean i think DJ is bad at Renegade, nor that i think DJ is unintelligent fredcow9 is a raving lunatic; i tried my best with him, but it amounted to nothing at least it gave everyone else the chance to see what really happened, even though it wasn't worth all the trouble to reach it

I will evade until Im unbanned. Shout out to my boys ingame you know who I am. Thanks for the birthday wish liquid, apparently you dont know how to let things go.

Yep, rule changes have been a bitch though. Some of the dumbest shit comes from the jelly staff in the past few months. Its probably because opposing them=ban. The key to evading is simple. Blend in.

I would like to add how silly it is that jelly still has me forum banned. Its been almost a year now. Wasnt hard to get around was just surprised i'm not an admin derfcow; i'm equal to a senior mod (take a look for yourself) you were banned for having cheat files (and would have been unbanned a very long time ago if you didn't continuously deny it and evade your bans) people don't get banned for having opinions differing from the mod staff's; they get banned for breaking rules (like you did for cheating - not too hard to understand)

i for one welcome debate and encourage discussions; discussions with you are typically one-sided because you're an ignorant fuck about most things and carry on even when proven wrong about something personally, i don't mind if you're playing on the servers again; you're not going to disrupt anything unless you start rule breaking or cheating again just try to be less of an idiot

as for DJ, i represent everything he's trying so hard to avoid: the truth
why else would a grown man put someone on ignore over the internet? he'd rather carry on in his own little universe where he's in charge and every differing opinion is folly

in many ways, he's not much unlike derfcow here

We've already been over this you fucking tool, you got caught by a utility built into scripts 3.0 that checks for maps, but doesn't check for file extensions - it is a FACT that you had in your data folder a file called "MandaiNoScreenShake.ddb" which of course bears the name of a certain known cheater, and the nuke ion emitters are fairly obvious. The other one is probably a big ion model.

You can be delirious and pretend you didn't cheat or whatever, but I will take great joy in removing you from our server once again

Its good to see someone with a brain replying. However as you may look in the history of this topic I already stated these files are begnigne and their only purpose is for me to see to what extent my file privacy is being invaded. Its really not difficult to download a commonly known cheat pack and disarm it so to speak. Wtf would I even need to cheat for in jelly anyway?

I know how that shit works, I got caught by a utility that will purely ban from name recognition. Your bots have fucked up in the past. They fucked up on me and the only reason I was banned is because of liquids disdain for me.

Ask around, dig. Where is the footage of me utilizing any of these cheats? Where is the proof other than a handful of "dirty" sounding file names? Lmao

Does anyone in here understand you can make a w3d file that does nothing and a ddb file that also does nothing? Test it out, see how fast you get banned for not even having a real cheat. E.g when mastrb8s or whatever his dumbass was called he was soundly banned by his own footage.

Apparently though they would rather sniff out god knows what on your computer when its none of your bots buisness what I do and dont have on my computer.

Gg though. You will never catch me and even with a hunch come close to proving who I really am when I play in a million years.

The correct spelling is "benign," and as we have been through this before, there is no such thing as a "benign" file placed in your data folder. If it's there, it's loaded into your .exe, and you're cheating.

Ah the ego bait trap.

I obviously didnt wish to get banned but the fact remains I have been banned for "dirty sounding files". This is why I couldnt appeal it and this is why I was swiftly form banned because someone wanted a reason regardless of what it was to ban me. If not you then someone else though its not hard to point at the guy who gives you the most shit on a routine basis.

As I said before. Just make a file bighead.w3d, join your server and watch as the bot kicks you even if that file changes nothing ingame.

Whats funny is then and even now there is not 1 source of proof I was cheating in Jelly. I'll wait.

Umm, that's not how it works. bighead.w3d is not a recognized file in the Renegade game so that would A. not be detected by our bot and B. nobody would kick you for it, due to it not being detected by our bot.

Regardless, I'm not going to try to argue with you about the exact same thing again, we've already been over this, we know you're cheating, etc. etc. you remain unbanned. I apologize for the inconvenience.
