I've never liked marathon, too long.

I did my time in rcm for 2yrs, it was like a prison sentence, but at least we had additional maps, a vet system and !revive to keep us entertained.

Jelly's a bit too vanilla for me, except for the unlimited ammo mod which you copied from n00bstories, lololol. I can play there any time I like, however I don't want to, as I dislike marathon with a passion. Keep that in mind.

lol @ iran.

^ what the board said

the concept of using Infinite Ammo came from Spooky i'm quite certain he's the one that got n00bstories to use it initially; you're trying to stir things up, goat boy, because you're a parasitic fuck that has nowhere else to go to feel like you matter
you're an embarrassment

Spoony spent many hours of his life trying to convince Jelly to use it on its servers; we had it on our AOW server last year at some point eventually we (mainly me, actually) caved, and we tried it on Marathon players seemed to like it, so it's stayed on ever since

Our servers were busy with shit hostnames when it was still WOL, we used to fill both our 40 player Euro and US servers when there were seperate listings. When the Euro listings were dropped we filled 2-3 servers when it was still Westwood.

Fact is we were busy before the XWIS takeover, facts are facts. We've been running healthy servers since 2004. I'd get your facts straight before you try tearing strips off of us.

Um actually it would make a difference. They wouldn't have that many people to ban anymore. Or are you new to renegade and can't see it?
It'd be nice if the "server owners" didn't hold so much sway in regards to Xwis...but some bullshit will never change.

tons of server were active in 2004, by 2006-2007 most of them died if they didnt have an a000 host nick you'd have the top of the list filled up and for the rest maybe a few servers not on the top with a a

If you want to play with a bunch of cheaters.

Considering the fact we run 4.0 with a modified RC-Bot u once stole to put it into Atomix from camp,ur argument is invalid,what a surprise -_-

I'm not gonna get into the whole list of who's cheating but Asad1234 aka notlagusuck is an example. Damage Hack, Bigbodies and RGH. He was banned before but you dumbasses took his appeal on the forums saying it wasn't him and he wasn't cheating. And he continued to cheat afterwards.

As for your stupid old rumor and alligations of my "stole RC-bot", I'm going to make this clear again as I've did before (I really don't have to prove anything to you considering you can't comprehend anything in life, let alone Renegade). I clearly made my own mod because the crap Atomix was running was shitty and laggy and had so many memory leaks. Campa's code was sloppy and was just a messy downgraded SSGM with a vet system that had many bugs. He's probably improved on it since then, but either way, I also wasn't a fan of the whole "bot build into scripts" idea. So I coded the concept in IRC scripting and built it into CS. I'm not going to get into any more detail than that. I simply used a concept and built off on that.

As for the topic of Jelly being "gone". It clearly isn't and doesn't plan to be gone. So everyone run back to their communities, and lets sit back and relax with the 300 players we have left in Renegade, and watch as 100 of them still continue to cheat and get banned from this 10 year old game.

Not many probably, they unban most cheaters after 3months.

That's what is good about n00bstories, they don't.

Plus the main reason people don't like to play on jelly is because of the staff there. I thought Maybe to create a stable player base, but I'm pretty sure Jelly won't be dead. You will get the regular top list joiners join NS instead of Jelly but you'll still have a healthy player base that would scroll down to join Jelly if they know it's down the list.

If they don't know, then I guess they think it's dead and join NS instead.

Lel. If you want to convince anybody but yourself that Jelly is supposedly utter shit, you will need:

1. Direct evidence of excessive and regular moderator abuse
2. Statistics that back up your claims that players move directly to n00bstories from Jelly as a result
3. Proof that players at Jelly are actually unhappy with the server in general

If you don't bring any of the above then you are obviously just a spiteful little git who is more jealous and frustrated than anything.

Why do people feel they have to compare NS and Jelly. People can make their choice and play there, it's that simple. I'm quite happy that both servers are active as its good for the game. Why people become obsessed with slagging one off or the other baffles me. We both provide a good solid environment that we do our best to police. Make your choice and play there, wherever that is. People need to quit obsessing over trivial shit and acting like angry 6 year olds over pointless issues.

Yep, same rosy view of reality and paucity of personal integrity.

I don't understand why you think Jelly is having problems with me. I've been kicked four time since resuming Renegade:

1. An unfair mute and kick from h8pit (who everyone knows is your worst moderator)
2. A misunderstanding with the ramp rule on Mesa
3. Beacon sound spamming during an interminable Field stalemate (I was insanely bored and should have left)
4. Supposed teamhampering on Hourglass

Beyond this, there are some fake beacons, some infantry b2b with a PIC and gunner, the classic time I ensured the end of a lost Complex game by covering a nuclear strike beacon with an APC, and my use of colorful language to taunt the other team. None of this is particularly troublesome; its not hugging, cheating, nor rampant and unrepentent racism.

Much of this purported rage is feigned, part of the Renegade persona and gamesmanship, rather than legitimate anger ebing brought upon other players in the server.

Quick synopsis of that Hourglass game:

Me: Buy stanks

Gohax: OMG BUY ARTY ARTY RUSH EVERYONE

Me: They aren't defending the sides, we should stank rush behind an apc

GOHAX: OMG ARTY RUSH EVERYONE

No one buys stanks, and everyone buys arty. Obviously we own the hill but aren't killing anything. I follow an APC rush with a stank and get the AGT down to half health by myself while the arty continue to hit the PP and Ref and ignore the repeated "Attack the base defenses".

Arty rush shortly thereafter and get trashed. After some piddling around:

Gohax: OMG STANK RUSH EVERYONE

me: I told you to stank rush earlier.

Gohax: OMG STANK RUSH EVERYONE

Stank rush luckily kills AGT with five GDI tanks in our face me: That would have happened ten minutes ago if two people had listened to me

Gohax/others: lol no you don't know how to play i know everything lol

Then the same line of discussion escalated to all chat, with me on one side arguing rationally against a lot of idiots. I then got muted by manuel and kicked for TH or something.

So yeah, I wasn't being an idiot at all. I'll save that for when I accuse you of hacking.

actually, the fact that your team held the hill kept GDI busy enough for your short-handed stank rush to actually do any damage at all had your team given up on arties and done just stanks the chance that GDI would have been patrolling and found/stopped it would have been much higher

just sayin

We had an arty in the base when I left, and one less on the hill would not have had an appreciable affect. The APC targeting the WF in front of me cleared out the repairers, and GDI was shorthanded on vehicles anyways. Three or four stanks were all that would have been necessary and two people could have easily afforded to get them.

Moreover, they wanted to arty rush and then didnt target the AGT when it was damaged and not being repaired. It's one thing to dissuade from a good strategy, but its another to not properly implement your alternative.

The only mods that aren't up to par on Jelly are the atm's. Everyone else is fine. So I have no clue what you're talking about bad-mods on Jelly, unless you count atms as mods.

Your starting to hit the nail on the head.

No active real mods, so the temp's are the mods in essence and they don't do a very good job unfortunately.

And to get on the rage subject of shaitan claiming Jelly gets players based off the hostname, that test was made clear. They can get people based off the name "Jelly".

When Jelly went down for those few hours, Scruffy had approved of me putting up a temporary server for Jelly till things got resolved. We got 16 people ingame within 2 mins of it being up on a different hostnick. And it was only up for 10 minutes. Go figure. Jelly doesn't need the hostnames. And they have rights to the names so they might aswell use it.

People play where they want to play. It's amazing even after this long, people want to bitch about it. If you don't like Jelly. Don't play there. If you don't like NS, don't play there. Every community has their issues. It's your choice to choose where you want to play. It's a free service they offer and both communities respectively, can do whatever the hell they want.

Azazel is correct in his assessment of jello moderators. They're rarely ingame(even under smurf nicks). They've been that way for years now. Most of the little servers have to have moderators ingame to keep the playercount just high enough for the regulars to take notice and join. Heh go figure, that goes right back to the high hostnick. Without it the regulars wouldn't take as much notice.

So how's your server working out for you Xpert? Do you really think not having a higher hostnick wouldn't help yours out too? Yours sit empty 3/4th of the time, just like the rest do.

shaitan, you always act like you speak for the "people" when in reality, you live in your own world and see things far different from everybody else. You just don't get it and you never will.

We died in April because a lot of us moved on to other games or moved on in general with our lives. We don't just play Renegade anymore and we really don't care if people play or not. A lot of us play League of Legends, Minecraft and in Jelly now or we just snipe all the time in our sniper server, which does well. I'm not complaining about our playercount, but apparently it bothers you so much. If that's the case, go ahead and gladly try filling it up, otherwise, don't worry about our playercount or anyone elses.

There are 300 players left in Renegade and not all of them are online at the same time. Are you seriously bitching that because of high host names, other servers are dead? You're so ignorant it's ridiculous. You know around 3-5am EST, jelly gets about 15-20 players and is the only server with people in it. Does that not tell you enough about how near extinct this game is?

Seriously, why are you so mad? Who pissed in your tiberios.

This kid, lol. All you do is call people who disagree with you kids. A really kiddish insult, if you know what I mean, kid.

And what you seemingly don't consider is that the lag time between saying something and it happening means that you don't call for the stank rush when you want it, but rather that you call for it along with the arty rush that will make it succeed. That is why I kept saying buy stanks immediately; I wasn't counting on everyone listening, because arty are cheaper and more popular, but I was hoping that two or three people would buy stanks by the time the arties were encamped on the hill. Considering that you had five people on TS listening to you, spamming OMG ARTY RUSH repeatedly in team chat to ensure the other players bought them too it a pretty n00bish move. I know that you play a lot of Renegade and a lot of your ego is invested in being good at it, but you should realize that you are not infallible, nor are you the only person who understands the mechanics of the game.

God this "kid" is retarded..

I don't think I know everything about this game. I do what I think works, and in this case, what I did worked. Yes, you're Stank rush may have worked at the time of the arty rush I called for. It's not my fault that nobody listened to you whenever you called for a stank rush, and I called for arties. There were only like 6 arties on the hill at the time, 5 of which we of me and the people in TS. So, that left the rest of the team to stank rush, and, apparently, they didn't want to.

Now, after the arties failed and GDI demolished the hill because they had mrls, mams, and hotties on the hill, with hardly anything guarding their base, I called a stank. We had like 7 stanks, again, 5 of which were the people on TS with me. So, nobody really listened to me whenever I called for them, it was just the people on TS communicating together.

Idk why you're all butt-hurt over that incident lol. I'm not even close to a good AOW player (in pubs yeah, but it's easy to be good in pubs) it just takes some good common sense.

And in regards to calling people kid, I do it because it seems to piss them off, no more. Half the people I call it are probably as old/older than I am.

Anyway, I wish we could get back on topic, and by topic I mean DJ's getting owned by Xpert. I think my reply pretty much summed up the entire argument nicely.

The stank rush would unquestionably have worked; I literally needed two more stanks to follow me. If what you say is true, then the other players on our team are retarded. I was fully in support of having arties on the hill, since the stanks needed them to succeed. I thought your spamming of "OMG ARTY RUSH" dissuaded them from listening to me, because there were more arties anyways.

I'm just "butthurt" because of the argument afterwards and the stupid mute that followed.

Tiesto wrote on Thu, 28 June 2012 16:59shaitan wrote on Thu, 28 June 2012 21:36Azazel is correct in his assessment of jello moderators. They're rarely ingame(even under smurf nicks). They've been that way for years now. Most of the little servers have to have moderators ingame to keep the playercount just high enough for the regulars to take notice and join. Heh go figure, that goes right back to the high hostnick. Without it the regulars wouldn't take as much notice. So how's your server working out for you Xpert? Do you really think not having a higher hostnick wouldn't help yours out too? Yours sit empty 3/4th of the time, just like the rest do.

So what? Exodus had the same problem with inactive moderators. You don't just fit a revolving door and change moderators every month. Plus you don't know what is happening in those moderators lives..

Wow you really are mad about something.. Did Jelly kick your dog or something?
Please point out where in that post I was mad. I was agreeing with cheater boy about certain things.

Who the fuck are you, dude? You've been hanging around the Renegade community for years with a fucking chip on your shoulder like you've got something to prove. Why don't you quit being a whiny bitch and sit on the sidelines where you should be?

I'll get right on that mister lazy moderator, the very day you fuckwits learn how to moderate a server.

Xpert wrote on Thu, 28 June 2012 18:03shaitan, you always act like you speak for the "people" when in reality, you live in your own world and see things far different from everybody else. You just don't get it and you never will.

We died in April because a lot of us moved on to other games or moved on in general with our lives. We don't just play Renegade anymore and we really don't care if people play or not. A lot of us play League of Legends, Minecraft and in Jelly now or we just snipe all the time in our sniper server, which does well. I'm not complaining about our playercount, but apparently it bothers you so much. If that's the case, go ahead and gladly try filling it up, otherwise, don't worry about our playercount or anyone elses.

There are 300 players left in Renegade and not all of them are online at the same time. Are you seriously bitching that because of high host names, other servers are dead? You're so ignorant it's ridiculous. You know around 3-5am EST, jelly gets about 15-20 players and is the only server with people in it. Does that not tell you enough about how near extinct this game is?

Seriously, why are you so mad? Who pissed in your tiberios.

In case you didn't read, I was pointing out that Jelly moderators are rarely ingame, and if it weren't for the high hostnick they wouldn't have a server as populated as it is. What part of that do you not understand? I believe I even used your own as a reference.

Since you want to bleat and go that route: when Trojan stole the a0000000/a0000001 nicknames, did anything happen playercount wise? Not really, it was the moderators that kept it filled. When I took half of your community away your shit died, which just so happened to of been the moderators that kept it filled.

That kind of proves my point doesn't it, about hostnicks and moderators being ingame attracting people?

You speak without knowing. You talk as if you're a God on Renegade. You waste your time talking about nothing. While you're arguing about your theory of hostnames and moderators and such, Jelly is still up there and doing quite well, and your scientific hypothesis of your understanding of how Renegade currently is, is pointless. How many times have you argued and presented your theories about anything, and it either got you banned, made you look like an idiot, or just pretty much embarrassed yourself.

shaitan is clearly mad that n00bstories and jelly do quite well, meanwhile the servers he "runs" has failed time and time again, and his only argument is because of the a000 nicks. True or not, it doesn't matter now anyways. The 300 players that are left choose to play in Jelly and N00bstories. Simple as that. Dropping their nicks mean nothing. They will still play there. I don't understand why this upsets him. Is it because he struggles to get players for his own servers? Like it matters now. Those servers (Jelly and NS) are actually keeping this game alive. When and if those servers go down, people don't play anywhere else. People play where they want. You're arguing with both communities because they manage to get players. This is stupid.

And how long did you have to live in your mother's house because you can't live on your own? You were hoping that the girls you met on Renegade would be your new shelter so you can move in with them right?

How's Lilith? Oh wait, she left you because you were so abusive to her and her child that she was fearing for her life. You were such an angry person. It shows in your posts on these forums because all you can do is present profanity and insult people with "twit, kid, sparky" and anything to combine the word "fuck" because you are unable to put together a sentence without the need to lash out at the person or insult them.

Oh and OSTKGhosty, it was really cute that you sent her that Purple Hippo toy on her birthday. Did it hurt you that she wanted nothing to do with you after you showed your true colors to her like you did with Lilith?

And then there's Rachel. Man, you wanted her so bad, but you couldn't have her. And then you got OSTKtreasure (your renegade grandmother) to come to your defense on teamspeak to attack her because you needed someone else to fight your love battle.

By the way, how's the cops treating you since your incident with Wilo? I mean, who can forget your threats to Wilo and you wanted to come to his house and kill him. He must of really pissed you off in Renegade for you to even go that far. Really mature. You clearly show you have anger management issues and you can't contain them.

You waste every moment of your life to argue with people in Renegade. You got banned from MP-Gaming because you think you were this God moderator and everyone in the admin team is terrible. Your crusade of Allied-Gaming failed. Your ability to hold on to a relationship fails. What more can I say? You're so pretentious. You stole passwords, read forum private messages.

He did it on irc.The list can go on, but I don't feel like it right now.

Look how far off topic you've gotten. Someone is getting severely mad and defensive over the hostnicks! Not to mention now you're just using opinions and false alligations instead of actual facts. You're so mad over nothing it's so funny Now your defense is comparing me to Wilo? lol.

You are far from everything you were arguing about in the first place and there's no point in tackling this because you're clearly just upset and not thinking straight that you have to argue about something unrelated to your current argument.I already said what I was aiming towards, then you guys decided to start ganging up and getting personal. You brought up the fact that I supposedly don't understand how things work, and I gave you information about what I'm gearing towards. It's not my fault you couldn't figure out what I was getting at.

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28So again, this part has nothing to do with any of the arguments you're debating about. Now you feel the need to attack my racial background and where I work? Ok. Lets get personal, shall we.You and hairy boy felt the need to get personal and attack my mental capacities, or did I imagine that too?

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28 How long have I been making money and getting promoted everytime, meanwhile you were struggling to find a job. You're a guy in your mid 30s and you're arguing with a teenager over where he works yet you didn't have a job of your own. You probably still don't. And how long did you have to live in your mother's house because you can't live on your own? You were hoping that the girls you met on Renegade would be your new shelter so you can move in with them right?

If you do not like it, then don't start it. Simple.

I'm sorry that I could not find a job for the length of time it took me a few years back. It's this damned economy and the fact the illegal immigrants stole my work.

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28 How's Lilith? Oh wait, she left you because you were so abusive to her and her child that she was fearing for her life. You were such an angry person. It shows in your posts on these forums because all you can do is present profanity and insult people with "twit, kid, sparky" and anything to combine the word "fuck" because you are unable to put together a sentence without the need to lash out at the person or insult them.

She sure was the abusee in that relationship.

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28 Oh and OSTK Ghosty, it was really cute that you sent her that Purple Hippo toy on her birthday. Did it hurt you that she wanted nothing to do with you after you showed your true colors to her like you did with Lilith? You mean how Hannah ran into some problems <this bit is PM'd> and going off the deep-end where her and I were concerned (and everything else that ensued)? Yeah..I sure fucked that relationship up. PM sent because I am not posting Hannah's story for all to see.

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28 And then there's Rachel. Man, you wanted her so bad, but you couldn't have her. And then you got OSTK treasure (your renegade grandmother) to come to your defense on teamspeak to attack her because you needed someone else to fight your love battle. If you knew anything, you'd know how backwards that statement is. I did everything subconsciously to get rid of her due to how she was. looks at the crap you retards flung at DJ in this topic and laughs

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28 By the way, how's the cops treating you since your incident with Wilo? I mean, who can forget your threats to Wilo and you wanted to come to his house and kill him. He must of really pissed you off in Renegade for you to even go that far. Really mature. You clearly show you have anger management issues and you can't contain them. I said I'd kick his ass, I didn't say that. Also, yes the cops and I got along famously and had a few chuckles over it.

Xpert wrote on Fri, 29 June 2012 21:28 You waste every moment of your life to argue with people in Renegade. You got banned from MP-Gaming because you think you were this God moderator and everyone in the admin team is terrible. Your crusade of Allied-Gaming failed. Your ability to hold on to a relationship fails. What more can I say? You're so pretentious. And you delude yourself by thinking you are above everybody else to make yourself feel better. They were, they were mini-you's. Minus the forum hacking and password stealing of course. Even they have scruples.

How old are you again, what's the longest relationship you've ever had? Oh yeah, I remember having this one that's half your age.

Allied failed due to Trojans lies and Campa's mod that never came out. That simple.

Immigrants take on the jobs that Americans don't want to take on. If it weren't for them, we wouldn't have half the shit we have now. They also contribute a lot to the family values and traditions of this country. While the typical American would sit their child in front of a TV, an immigrant is working hard to support their family check by check and their kids are learning to do things around the house to support the family at home.

This topic has gone from false alligations about Jelly going down, to Azazel being told off to DJ getting served and never to be heard of in this topic again, to shai getting mad over hostnames and ranting, to immigration.

I think enough has been said. Lets all play some Renegade with the 74 players that are currently online (and 50 are in Jelly!), and wait for the next renedramatic topic to rise in the next 24 hours.

Look at some of his troll posts then read that, you'll see it.

I do disagree with you on the "values" part and the economical aspect.

Values: I've been on the receiving end of some of that before, and it was not altogether fun. I've also seen a few things that were pretty screwed up when I was in Colorado.

Eco: Bringing more people into this country and not keeping some sort of 'check' in place is just hurting us more and more. When our citizens aren't getting the help (medical, anything really) they need and it's going towards paying for someone outside of the country...that's pretty crap.

The government loosening the deportation is tantamount to giving a burglar a gold star for breaking into your house.

And now that you said something random, that you probably had no clue what you meant by it, and someone wants a description as to why you called me "Azazel #2" you can't come up with something. Being dicks? It's better defined as making useless debates that gets you no where and then getting e-mad because they can't prove their point so they get e-personal until it bites them back in the ass.

The same insults everytime. It gets old. And what do you all have in common? You're all nothing but mental trolls and you feel helpless when you failed to troll a group or person. lol

Your empathy decreases for every hour spent online. It makes you happy you can anger other people especially when you're behind your computer screen. You're emotionally distressed because nothing awesome is going good for you in your own life. You were bullied as a child so this is your way at feeling better about yourself by doing it on the internet. You're psychologically unstabled. When a debate doesn't go your way, you get personal but it backfires. And then you're reduced to spouting shit that doesn't make sense.

Way to go. In this topic that was just related to jelly, hostnames and servers in general, it could of stayed that way. But people like DJ and yourself, felt the need to go further and look where it landed you. Good job at showing the reality of society these days.

I think that people who make fun of what others do for a living is quite immature. The fact is, getting a job is hard enough, let alone keeping one and trying to get one that pays well. Having a job means you're doing something in your life, and that's the important part.

It's a sad point in Renegade when we start discussing what is wrong with everyone and ridicule people while bringing in their personal life. Just because someone is older than you, and might even have a less rewarding job than you doesn't give you the right to attack them on a personal level.

The only reason why this game and community is still alive to this day is due to people working together and working through the many obstacles we've gone through over the years. It certainly feels to me that recently we've let go of values and everyone has turned into drama queens. Just stop the childish act and let everyone continue whatever business they have left in Renegade.

LOL. I treated him like shit? You make it sound like I bullied him after he was removed. He was removed because he kept using the mod commands to benefit himself ingame and even team stacking with Cat098. He felt like just because it was his mod, he can do whatever he wanted. This wasn't just my decision.

You act like that's hard to make, but then again, you don't know anything about coding. All it does is start a timer at map start, when time is up play a few sounds, 1 mp3 file, distribute every player a beacon and turn the sky red. Then 5 minutes in, another timer that is running will activate reborn's ion storm code. That would take you months to create in your position.

what was untrue, you ask? go back and read all of the posts where Xpert addressed your points go back and look at the posts where people addressed your points about host names i myself replied to you several times the fact that no one is agreeing with you doesn't phase you in the slightest; you're used to standing alone it makes you feel like a hero, or a lone ranger, standing up for the voices unheard the reality of it is you don't keep your emotions in check, and you wind up getting heat from several people at once that call you out on it it's a vicious cycle that you create time and time again regarding h8pit

he kicked a guy from the server for getting pissed at him for muting him minutes after he used radio commands you can cite that that's mod abuse, but if the mod isn't doing their job properly then the situation changes for example, if there was a police officer that pulled a baton on someone that jaywalked across a street and started beating them with it the person might attempt to defend themselves the officer could then say that the person was assaulting an officer or resisting arrest, but either way they shouldn't have had to do either because the officer was out of line in doing what he or she did you've never been a moderator at Jelly, and you aren't aware of our own mod protocols and guidelines that we follow

h8pit, overall, does a good job

he just needs to stop dealing out mutes to everyone that uses radio commands more than once at a time

That's not the same. What i'm trying to do is promote peace and have people stop arguing over pointless things. This entire thread was dedicated to letting people know why Jelly was down and when it was coming back up, as well as dismissing a rumor that Jelly was "dropping" out.

Instead, it has turned into a 10 page topic that has basically confirmed what we already knew, Azazel is a pointless entity on this forum (and community), people won't stop arguing over the flaws that XWIS has with regards to the server listings, and that some people have opinions with how certain communities handle their moderators.

Jeez, this game is 10 years old and it has more drama than a fregging Oxygen Network original drama show.

Seriously, everyone should just drop the bickering. If you don't like how something is ran, then don't go there or just stop playing, and move on.

it's not a retard, it's a former mod

not that it concerns you in any way

he paged the mod from IRC because he was unable to ingame due to being muted

he later made a post reporting the incident because he felt it was handled incorrectly or shouldn't have happened at all

other people commented on the situation after having had similar experiences with the same mod

the mod doesn't need to mute everyone that uses multiple radio commands in a row - he's wrong in that regard

that's not a rule we enforce, especially not like that

not that it concerns you in any way, shape, or form

it's not a retard, it's a former mod

not that it concerns you in any way

he paged the mod from IRC because he was unable to ingame due to being muted

he later made a post reporting the incident because he felt it was handled incorrectly or shouldn't have happened at all

other people commented on the situation after having had similar experiences with the same mod

the mod doesn't need to mute everyone that uses multiple radio commands in a row - he's wrong in that regard

that's not a rule we enforce, especially not like that

not that it concerns you in any way, shape, or form

i'm aware of how you think i recall, back when Jelly was getting flooded and attacked, that you supported the attacker you said that Jelly deserved to be attacked and those players deserved to be forced out of the game because Jelly has control of the high host names

you're a complete moron, shaitan tell me how many of the high host names are actually being used report back to me when you have that information - i'd like you to compile a list for me

I'm pretty sure I remember who, and how, Badownzu is. I think we first met in 2004. So he could just page the bullshit ingame instead of IRC?

That crowd pulls the same shit wherever they go.

I "supported" Wilo because banning his servers from Xwis itself was pretty fucking stupid, and a blatant misuse of power. Why don't you(anyone who uses them) jackasses get banned from Xwis for making bots fake players ingame? There's been a shitload of owners flooding other servers over the years, what about them? Some are even the ones who wanted St0rm gone. Funny.

you're going off into lala land again

wilo was banned because of how much damage he was doing to what we have left in this game if you can't understand that, that's really not my problem plenty of servers and people have done distasteful things over the years, but none of them were on the scale of what he was doing what are you talking about servers having bots as fake players? you think that's on the same scale as what wilo was doing? you're beyond help, shaitan you tried to say that wilo was justified and should not be punished for attacking Renegade servers because Jelly held high host names most of Jelly's host names were not used by himself many of them were not actually used at all; all servers after it were bumped up one because the space was vacant there are more servers using his host names now than he is using himself you're the kind of person that always has to complain about something; you'll never be satisfied, and that's your problem like i said, if you left i doubt anyone would miss you please compile a list for me of the top host names being used currently in Renegade

Why not accept the fact that Wilost0rm did something stupid, and get on with our lives? I used to play in st0rm, a fair amount of others have too. And while it WAS fun, what Wilo did was inexcusable. If he did not do what he did, he could have become one of the Big three, along with Jelly and n00bstories.

Yes, that's why he took the time out of his day to show a Jelly admin how to perform the exploit, made a fix for it (something you certainly couldn't and wouldn't know the first thing about how to do) and why you definitely weren't removed as a moderator and banned from MP-Gaming

But yes, those threads do remind me of this one. I'm glad you agree.

So, I comment on your post about how you said Jelly uses bots to bring up their playercount. I said that Wilo used them to raise the playercount in his server, and he did because I was in TS with him while he was doing it. So, because I corrected you, you call me Xpert's tool, in which my response had absolutely no correlation to what Xpert was saying. In fact, it was directed to what you said.

God damn kid. You really need to grow up, and stop taking things seriously. I just want to know what you meant by Azazel #2. Greetz DJ.

A good read.

I haven't served anyone. I serve myself. I talk facts, and everything I've said in this thread has been the truth. Just because the truth that I say sides with the majority, and I'm cool with them, doesn't make me a "fanboy" as you put it.

Tbh, he can laugh all he wants as I've been laughing for quite some time at the fact that someone's life can revolve so much around Renegade and the internet that you act like some sort of "hero" or "god" in it. It's really amusing, and says quite a bit about that person's characteristics.

However, the only thing I really want is an explanation. I just want to know why, and how, he came up with Azazel #2. That's it. Once I get that explanation, I'll stop posting here!

yes; when people don't agree with what you initially have to say it is an endless disagreement because you're a stubborn and irrational person you don't care what anyone else says because you believe you, above all else, is what's right what you have to say matters far less than you think it does, for the very reason i just listed above you can take that as an insult, but it's just honest and rational truth

I see a pattern here:

Shai does the hero thing at Atomix. It fails.

He tried it at st0rm; failed.

MP; failed

And now here, and you guessed it; failed.

I'm beginning to see a trend here. I think that everyone in the Renegade community that doesn't agree with Shai are the bad people. It's rather hilarious looking back at all the instances in which Shai tried to step-up and be "GodofRen" and failed, only to have everyone laughing at him. And, then he says he'd like to meet them somewhere to fight. You know what would have been awesome? I wish Shai would have been the one that was going to meet c4smoke at CVS. Shai would have actually showed!

Btw shai, still waiting on my explanation, BRO.

Uncalled for really. I have said not one word to you, about you, nor attacked you in any fashion. However, I suppose if I am to be named a whore, at least you named me HIS whore. Regardless, rude nonetheless.

I can't back up anything that I said previously because I'm an overly-emotional rage-tarded mid-30s male with the mindset of a 15-year old girl that says ridiculous things. I'm still attempting to change the topic and will continue to do so until people get tired of replying to me. It's easier for me to try and insult someone that has nothing to do with the matter at hand because I'm incapable of supporting my earlier lies. I'm a waste of air, space, and almost all general resources, and most people wouldn't notice if I just went missing. I work a low-paying job, and try to insult people who make more than I do. I also could in no way, shape, or form handle their jobs, but that doesn't stop me from trying to feel better about my embarrassing, pitiful existence. I am shaitard - hear me roar.

Xpert was the one who first mentioned anything about me, unnamed but inferred. However that was directed solely DJ in regards to him trying to shit on liquid. It, at no point, had anything to do with you. That is, until his personal career choice was questioned and insulted and he decided to stand up for him self and target you. It was then again when I was brought up, and you let it go with a simple statement.

The only reason you're bringing it up now is to see if you can incite some kind of shit storm response from liquid since he has been even-tempered and not letting your shit flinging monkey antics upset him in the slightest, except when his belly hurts from laughing so hard.

Regardless, using me as an attack on him won't work. DJ tried it and it failed, you can try it but you will fail.

Still, I have not yet said anything out of line to you. So you should respectfully leave me out of your fights.

Cheers =)

i feel incredibly dumb in asking this, but:

have you ever wondered if you just might be wrong? does the fact that people get on your case about things never suggest to you that, possibly, you aren't making sense, or that you're just incorrect? i honestly don't think it has instead, you claim that everyone is out to get you or just ganging up on you just because what they're saying doesn't coincide with what you believe doesn't mean they're automatically wrong; i'm not sure what makes you think you're an all-knowing Rene-hero in shining armor, always standing up for what's right and always being wronged by the masses i'm not lying to you; i have no reason to you should know that by now

I haven't really seen shaitan attack anyone for the job they have (not in this thread at least.) Further more, he does have a job, and it involves automotive repair, which isn't a bad job and couldn't be further from the whole "he's 30+, unemployed, and living in his parent's basement" bullshit rant, which is a sack of shit excuse for an insult you and a couple people have thrown in here just to make sure you guys have covered and insulted every centimeter of someone's life. You guys look immature, and this includes shaitan, if he ever made someone for what they do. As long as they are working and doing something with their life, you don't have a right to go flashing around saying their job sucks and your job has 20x better pay/benefits. As far as we know, you may be full of shit and probably some unemployed overgrown kid actually living in their parent's basement.

Stop bringing up people's personal lives into a public forum just to try to insult them. You probably won't phase them, and you will just look immature, or even worse, your habit will continue to expand until you're a full blown psychopath like Wilost0rm.

not sure if you realize this, but shaitan was the one trying to make everything personal he's also the one that started insulting people for where they worked me personally, i haven't said a thing to anyone either way aside from "shai probably couldn't handle Xpert's job"

i don't see his need to insult Xpert in that manner, and i think it's interesting because i also doubt shai could even do the job Xpert does, which gives him even less reason to say such a thing not bad advice; you should tell that to shaitan

Thank you liquidv2 for clearing things up for me. I don't have the time or patience to read through 14 pages of people throwing around insults due to boredom. I'm sad to hear shaitan was the one who started the whole personal-life bashing.

I'm generally saddened by what people seem to think of shaitan, he's been a long time friend and we go way back, I remember he used to be highly regarded by multiple communities out there. He's still going to be welcome over at my community, as the arguments and stuff here have nothing to do with my community or I, and there are always 2 sides to every story.

I just wish people knew what they were getting into when they continue to feed the fire of arguments, no one wins, and a lot of feelings could get hurt. Bringing in and making fun of other's personal lives just mean that you are insecure about yours.

Animosity, it appears that you are the one that shaitan looks up to. According to him, he has the support of you, and he likes it. Here is a snippet from a conversation I had with him after telling him to calm down:

Quote:

[02:07:2012][10:33:31] <shaitan> Do you see me really getting "involved" anywhere? Do you see me bringing any of that drama outside of renforums? I look at it this way, if zunnie wants me to stop helping out here, he only has to say it once. I had this conversation with another server admin lastnight.

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:15:35] <Animoski> Well

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:15:37] <Animoski> We've discussed this

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:15:48] <Animoski> But everytime I hear more stuff about you, the more disgusted I am

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:16:18] <shaitan> If you want me gone, then good bye i guess.

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:16:21] <Animoski> The fact that you got banned after putting in so many hours into helping out a community for calling the cops on Wilo for one of the biggest invasions of privacy

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:16:28] <Animoski> Is bullshit

[02:07:2012][10:33:45] <shaitan> [20:16:34] <Animoski> Oh hell no, I don't want you gone. That's the opposite.

[02:07:2012][10:33:47] <shaitan> [20:16:46] <Animoski> I'm trying to show you I'll support you in any way possible.

GeneralCamo, what was the point of posting a private conversation I had with shaitan? Wanted to show the rest of the renforums that you finally have an example of what a friendship looks like? Or is it that you wanted to confirm what i've said about shaitan and I being friends?

Either way, you're the epitome of what's wrong with this forum. You are completely irrelevant, you have nothing to do with anything being said in this forum, you decide to make private personal conversations public, and you just butt into the conversation with information that is pretty much known.. Congratulations, you just confirmed you don't know how the social paradigm works.

[10:15:59] <shaitan> I'm making an ass of myself, to whom? Oh yeah, a bunch of people I detest.

[10:16:13] <Generalcamo> You are also ruining the MPF name

[10:16:20] <Generalcamo> Either resign, or stop this drama

Oh wow, I totally didn't see this coming! Someone who has no power in MPF at all, is attempting to force shaitan to resign from his position.. If the people who run MPF (zunnie) and the administrators (Hawk, others, myself) want shaitan out, we'll discuss it first, between us administrators. Not you.

shaitan, you always act like you speak for the "people" when in reality, you live in your own world and see things far different from everybody else. You just don't get it and you never will. "

Those started the "personal" on my part. Liquid's little mental wisecracks in the beginning. After the line there from Xpert I made the crack about "Filipino McChicken maker". It kind of went downhill right after that one, with all the pure bullshit lies he threw in here concerning my EX's. Why am I repeating myself over and over here?

The point of posting that private message was not to insult you in anyway. No, it is to show that if Shaitan is supported by one person, he thinks he is being supported by a lot of people. I had also assumed I had permission to post the log due to the fact that he was the one that gave it to me in the first place. Poor judgement on my part? Yes.

By the way, the log Shaitan posted is 100% accurate. I did try to stop him from making a fool out of himself on IRC. Of course, he didn't listen. So now we have this 15 page drama fest cluttering the forums, still ongoing.

Engaging deflective armor protocols!

Post counter logs that prove innocence:

Warning!!! If anyone actually reads the logs, it shows you in an even worse light, and shows that Generalcamo was actually trying to help you. At the very least, it does not prove that you are not a retard.

Have mini-stroke.

Suddenly, the logs now absolutely 100% clear your good name, and show Generalcamo to be a complete asshole.

MP-Gaming is controlled by someone who refuses to let go of some hot-headed mods MP-Gaming is run by several administrators, that vote on all decisions they take at that level. It is not controlled by one single person.

One single person tried over-ruling everyone else once. They decided to leave, as it is run democratically.

However, I am curious where you got this perception from. What made you think that? Also, which one person do you perceive to be the person controlling it?

Also, we did let go of what we considered to be our hot-headed moderator. That person is still pretty mad.

However, just FYI we are purging all the inactive and some semi-active moderators right now. Expect over two thirds to be removed soon, and new ones recruited.

I am not arrogant enough to dismiss the statement you made out of hand though. If you feel that way, then please let me know who you feel this applies to, and why you feel that way, preferably with specific examples.
I promise to take it seriously, and give the matter consideration.

You are the worst internet tough guy ever.

nothing in my post was meant to be funny; i'm quite serious someone as unstable as shaitan would probably show up with a hatchet or a crowbar and attack me because he's angry with my responses to the ill-thought statements he made on the internet

i didn't see what goat boy posted til G1D quoted it i don't hate DJ; i just think he's a cocky German retard whose claims are entirely unjustified he can't listen to simple logic or reason, and discussing anything with him is truly a waste of time because he cannot understand or just filters anything out that doesn't agree with what he already believes he would make a fine average American voter what my girlfriend has done is her own business; i don't care who she's dated prior to me what does matter to me is that she's mine now, and i'm going to take good care of her Port Charlotte is a decent spot, Tice is closer to half way. The upside is that both have a CVS right there. You know, in case you need to refill your medication or something.

you seem to think you're this Renegade prodigy, but from all i've ever seen you do you're mediocre (that means nothing special) remember the time i led a n00bstories team to a flawless victory against your far-more experienced st0rm team? you blamed it on the fact that two of the NS players were from Jelly i actually saw them in the n00bstories server and asked if they wanted to play on the day of the match, but keep lying to yourself about the past if it makes coping easier for you also, remember the time the st0rm team you were a part of lost to the [Dragon] clan on st0rm's own server with st0rm's own settings? you're pretty good at this game - maybe you should go professional

i don't think anyone takes you seriously, but i don't think anyone has made an attempt to show you this fact

No, that would be boring. Maybe your try at attacking servers...? No wait... you did that already with MP-Gaming. Up to this point, it's been nothing but who's better than who debate and you wanting to beat up on people. LOL LOOK AT ME, SOMEONE MADE ME MAD ON RENEGADE SO I'M GONNA FIGHT THEM C4-SMOKE STYLE BRO! You have yet to rebuttal any of your points earlier no matter how much you said you did. You already made yourself look like an ass. You already embarrassed yourself. And you still want to try to outsmart people in this thread, 'specically liquid at the moment. Give it a rest old man.

You wanna prove how awesome your mod skills are, then do it at the 10 baby communities you mod at and you tell 'em who's "baws".

All your debates end in calling someone a name or trying to insult them in something that is unrelated to the issues.

And going back to what started this all; High host names DON'T MATTER ANYMORE. Put on your glasses and load up Renlist and look at the servers that are left.

You can insult Jelly all you want. But you know what, they're still the only server in Renegade that has more than 10 players EVERY SINGLE HOUR.

And as for my job, you can keep bringing it up anytime you want. Because in the end, while I'm ballin living a good life and earning perks while I work [awards, bonuses, credits and education] you're arguing on a gaming forum because you got butt hurt over a fucking player count and then butt hurt even more when people debated against you. I'm lovin' it biotch.

You really are mad, how cute. Oh, and here's the portion that I was referring to:

[22:42:05] <shaitan> Xpert I'm here to. waves

[22:44:04] <Xpert`> It's too*, since you want to criticize people for their grammar when you lack the intelligence of your own to form simple vocabulary aswell.

[22:45:04] <shaitan> I typed a little too fast due to laughing. I do not know why you'd up and leave

RC. I wasn't even really talking there. By the way, it's "as well".
[22:45:37] <Xpert`> I can do as I please.
[22:45:38] <shaitan> In case you haven't noticed, I'm not really saying anything outside of renforums.
[22:45:58] <Xpert`> Incase you haven't noticed, I really don't care.
[22:48:21] <Xpert`> and I'm well aware it's "as well" same for "Incase" being "in case"
[22:48:24] <Xpert`> bad space bar is bad
[22:48:27] <Xpert`> But good effort though.
[22:50:30] <shaitan> Mine does that as well. The last one did too for some odd reason.
[22:51:07] <shaitan> That little metal bar sticks sometimes. >_<
[22:52:42] <Xpert`> That's nice.
[22:56:54] <shaitan> We still have(besides your own) one IRC in common that you'll never see both of us on. Any that has Campa on it. plays the Casablanca theme song
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RWa6-x0iWRw>
[23:00:19] <Xpert`> Area 54?
[23:00:23] <Xpert`> Aren't you a mod there.
[23:00:23] <Xpert`> LOL
[23:00:50] <shaitan> Yeah, so..don't worry Xpert..there's at least one IRC we don't have to see each other in. :P
[23:01:13] <Xpert`> I was there up until 2 days ago.
[23:01:28] <shaitan> Shows how much I pay attention. LOL
[23:01:40] <Xpert`> I don't use my Xpert name there.

Clearly I'm mad

I'm intrigued by all of it. You're faking that you're completely fine since you've ran into the corner once again like a little child with nothing to defend against. Hopeless individual. It sucks that people like you breathe the same air I do.

Your defense to everything is once again lies and your own opinions and accusations that backfire on you. Go ahead and show them. Since you're blowing it out of proportion considering it was a reverse troll. Not to mention it doesn't do anything to the situation at hand lol.

While you're at it, you want me to post the logs of you trying to hit on a girl that was 13 then you try to act like a "father figure" to her but later she gets banned for cheating lol. Good stuff.

We can do this all you want. Just throw shit back and forth. It's a never ending cycle. Because you never know how to stfu and just take a step back for once. But hey! This is your time to shine shai. Your spotlight. You got what you wanted once again. A topic that wasn't related to you in any shape or form, but became a topic about you. OSTKTreasure would be very proud.

That's the one I'm referring to. You seem to have it a little backwards as you always do. I forget the name, help me out so I can find the logs.

Noone's making you guys respond to anything. You're doing that all on your own.

You also seem to think in your little dream world that I'd need your permission to come out there

I giggle when you try to sex up trannies, then play it off like you were trolling them the whole time. I'll use a variation of what Failpert said to me: go back to your one little server and pretend like you matter.

perhaps you should keep your ship going straight instead of going emotionally off-course and doing/saying retarded things in the future someone mentioned that this is probably the only attention you get, so i guess in some way i'm happy for you, while at the same time i'm pretty embarrassed for you kind of sad that the only way you can get people to mention or remember you in any way is by doing stupid things or getting someone else to bring up other times where you did stupid things not sure if you see or get the trend, or if you actually care either way, but good for you

-TLS-DJ-EYE-K wrote on Wed, 11 July 2012 11:49U entertain me each day,thx Harry Potter!

i think the reason you keep calling me Harry Potter is because you secretly want to see my wand

I giggle when I do that too, because it's pretty fucking hilarious. At least I was the one trolling.

Didn't you bring her into your clan? Weren't you both good friends? You seem to remember the whole "trying to sex up" thing differently than most. Remember when you gave me an incredibly emotional response and a threat to get me banned from MP-Gaming for "messing with your friend", when I allegedly posted an image of her with some slight artistic "modifications". You should really stop hating on transvestites, you were once clanmates with that "tranny".

In fact, I wonder where this hate for transvestites came from after all of that. Did you find a snake in her grass one day? I think you should really rethink who is playing the past off as trolling.

Also, what one little server? I don't really belong to any "servers", and never pretended that I mattered. Go back to getting ostracized by your own mental instability, and pointless hate for transvestites.

P.S. Am I still banned at Allied Gaming? Oh wait...

apparently you didn't know him; all he had to do was be himself if you wait long enough, his "nice guy" persona fades and you see the true him which is why repeat situations like this one continue to arise

you might go your entire life not realizing it, but everyone else already realizes you're a retard in this case, however, the decision to remain a retard is yours alone cAmpa wrote on Wed, 11 July 2012 19:14 Germany was rubble after the war and i doubt we all were like DJ. And i know he is only a mofo in renegade, to let us all die for a game is really rude.

i don't want anyone to die for a game; you misunderstand me my point was that people like DJ undeniably suck

i'm glad most of Germany is nothing like him

I find it too funny. DJ has had a woodie for me since he started ren 3 weeks ago. He jel-us-o-my-gg. Seriously though his attraction to me has been an irritant to say the least. I am convinced his life is a ren admin. He makes sure EVERYWHERE he goes he announces he is one. I bet he has a t-shirt for each day of the week he wears that says FRONT: I'M -TLS-DJ-EKEKEK- a REN ADMIN Aera54" BACK "I'M COOL SO YOU LIKE ME, K?".

I find it extremely entertaining when he replies to posts trying to act all cool and in the know and he has no clue he is being laughed at. He is too stupid to realize he is the most laughed at unrespected person in Ren.

He was looking for a way to get to me for a long, long time. But sad he still hasn't. He "thinks" he picks on my kids. I had a lot of respect for Paddy and A54.....until Paddy let DJ permanently connect his nose to his ass probably after begging "oh please make me admin, oh please, it is my life".

Thanks for the thought Liquid, but I don't play in A54 and my son's will be fine in all the other REAL servers. They didn't play in that pea soup server that much anyway. They pretty much stopped after DJ childishy trashed an apache my son bought. It is my hope now that DJ can move on from his Wyld obsession and leave me the fuk alone and move on to his next victim he will e-ren-stalk.

There now I have officially "disrespected" Area 54. I'm sorry, banning because someone disrespected a community = I just fell off my chair lmao. I know let's start a new thread and see how many players get ban, they can post their bans. lol No wait, that will only be entertaining for about an hour.

Cont. Bad Language - 3 Month

Impersonating Mods - Never

General Rule - If a Mod decides on his own to let the Ban last longer due to the specific Situation, then it's up to him.

Anyone that shows zero respect to a person who's helped keep their server afloat for years, gets what they deserve. In hindsight I didn't have to do a thing.

Azazel used to be a decent moderator...pre-cheating of course.

Do not go that route of banning people outside of here for stupid shit. That's just idiotic, even for you guys. Unless it's deserved for whatever reason.

I find it interesting that someone there has a sig that could be considered offensive (NAZI) and MDK was told:

Quote:Tainted: "It's just you".

LOL But the Nig nicks were offensive in the match "To them".

They even know they have an idiot (DJ) in charge and have no respect for him. lol

This just gets better and better. Excellent e-entertainment when I am bored at work.

My post was pointing out that your replies made wandering leaps, and in the last sentence in particular really highlighted your backwards logic (the irony that you actually quoted backwards is not lost on me, and neither is the irony that you are trying very hard to join the dots up for me, when it is yourself that is missing the entire point).

i didn't actually ban DJ, i was just making a point look how bent out of shape shaitan got look how desperately he grabbed at something to shift the attention away from his dumb ass based on the Area 54 rules, DJ should get a 3-month ban an advantage skin has nothing on using building bars; at least advantage skins only help some of the time - building bars are always active and always visible sorry Paddy, but your admin is breaking the rules in your own server and like other people said, he finds ways to go around other rules he himself feels like breaking (like separating swear words with punctuation)

i have to ask, why did you even make him an admin in the first place?

Finally you surface, thank you. I made two posts to you titled to you, DJ promptly deleted them. I sent you two pm's (I have copies) and obviously DJ went into the CP and deleted them. He kept every communication away from you because he knew he was busted.

Paddy trust me when I say you have the worst person ever as an admin there. Muraturum (sp?) would be a better choice. You picked someone that has horrible people skills and a maturity - ego complex, just to mention a few issues. Example I was ban from the forums and server for "Insulting Area54". When and where? Proof? Then he bans from the forums to keep any possible disputes, not that I would have.

You have to know you have many players that don't play there because of him. One being me. You had my kids, but DJ stopped that. What you get is the MDK's of the ren society in your server. For that we thank you, you can have all of them.

I apologize about any remarks toward you, I don't know you and can only go on your judgement letting DJ even be a temp mod much less running something. Fix that any you may gain more players and some Ren-respect.

Good luck.

the real problem with are54 is the player has no chance against the mods or admins they band together as one .. well they would as they are related in some way

mark--father to--tainted--brother to sarah--gf of iceman --sean best edl buddy they would never take the side of a player over family or lovers .. then other mods dj-protos same clan members the list go,s on

Come on G1D you are smarter than this. The statement was referencing our actions didn't "show" respect, which can't be argued. A big difference than the way you are taking it: me saying "I have no respect for Area54" which I never said. Again our actions showed no respect was the meaning of that. You smart you know this, don't DJ out on me. Even if I said something, you all ban players? Seriously? Banning players for insulting the Community? Never - ever heard of that. Insulting a mod and ignoring warnings, yeah I can see. DJ's warnings to me on the incident with my son...all created by DJ and twisted back around at me? Nah, not going to listen to that, I can't be held responsible for that idiot's actions.

My n00b story on DJ: He checks all ip's of players or does a !commonnicksearch and he saw it was me (not knowing it was my son). When my son bought a Apache on city_fly he purposely swooped down and rammed it causing it to flip over and blow up. It was the start of the map and my son had just point whored with on arti on the bridge to get credits to buy an apache to harv whore. Once DJ was called on it he donated him 350 and basically told him oops. But DJ is best-flyer (in his mind) so how could it be an oops? I wondered if it was an accident why didn't he give my son his Apache? Answer: he knew what he was doing and thought it was me trying to provoke an incident. When I posted A54 on the forums, all posts deleted and then I was warned for being disrespectful!!!

However, at the same time you have to know most don't have respect because DJ is there. You want to back him and defend him, you get no respect either.

Anyway a lot has been explained with Paddy posting he has been ill and is weak right now. It tells me he is not there watching the Comm run which explains DJ running wyld. DJ has been booted from any comm he has been in for the 3 weeks he has played ren and if Paddy is a solid owner that cares about his server's reputation, he will separate himself now from DJ.

I'm glad you actually care about your community, because I had previously assumed Area54 was run by retards since it had DJ on the admin staff.

+ 100 respect points to paddy ..

maybe area54 can move forward and become a great server ? althou some of dj,s self apointed mods will still play by his rules and standards ..

should look at the.
1 person from a clan can mod
1 person from one family

ect so all mods have diff oppinions on situations or bans ect since you're already doing some mod cleaning Paddy, you might want to consider removing shaitan from your staff as well if you notice earlier in this topic, he threatened to beat me up in real life because he disliked me questioning what he said on here do you want one of your mods threatening players that question their actions? i certainly would not multiple people have linked other threads in here where shaitan was threatening others or threatening to flood / crash servers that he formerly moderated at - he seems like a stellar mod choice for the record, i see nothing wrong with shaitan working at Wal-Mart i do, however, have a hard time looking past the fact that he insulted Xpert's ethnicity and his job, as if he himself had the right to talk since jobs are so important to you, shaitard, i'm pointing out the flaws in your thinking, hoping the dead light bulb in your head might miraculously turn on at some point

I don't think shaitan is that big of a deal lol, as long as you don't give him access to your remote desktop or FTP (<http://forums.mp-gaming.com/thread-15136.html?st=0&start=0>).

But I can imagine it is very fortunate that DJ was removed.

The only reason why shaitan, Azazel and DJ are still around renegade because they mod at a certain community to have sanctuary at and feel like no one can touch them. Remove that and they lose interest in being around Renegade slowly.

I think what shaitan did is only important for him and MP.

1. he explained me today what really happened in his eyes.

(i dont like what he did, but i can live with it because it had nothing to do with ddosing and shit like that)

2. I already said, i never noticed anything what would look him bad as moderator, i know him a few years now.

3. afaik he was mod at mp for a long time, im sure there is a reason why it held so long.

4. Who really cares what anyone is working at?

We need fastfood and we need oil changes.

I don't see any reason why paddy should remove him.

I think they will always be around tbh it is as we know such a large part of life for them ...

as for remove shai also ? as from what I have seen in area and other servers . shiton is not so bad as a mod and is nothing like eike-dj for attacking players he dislikes for no reason . me and shai do not really get on but we tolerate each other in servers and he can be fun some times .I think for a time here dj-eye has been pulling his strings along with others .

charlie dude practice what you preach.. think I could find some threads and post on here where ppl have talked about find me and breaking my fingers ect. and you had no problem with that along with banning me at jelly for no real reason with in the server ..

I can't speak for the other two but being e-stalked by DJ I can speak that Xpert is spot on. DJ was removed 3 times @ st0rm and each time he disappeared. Several of us mentioned how nice it was to be DJ-free. It was a no-drama period, it was nice.

If paddy completely strips him, which he should because he has no business representing any community in any fashion, he would completely go away. He may now having been removed as "admin".

I told Liquid to just call the Baker Act in on him. He's already showing signs of being mentally unstable. If you called the police and mentioned that an unstable individual wishes to fight you because you said something about him on the Internet, he'd be taken to the nearest mental hospital and involuntarily treated. It's Florida-only.

not sure if shaitan ever said anything along those lines, but if people said menacing things towards you it was likely because you provoked or instigated it in the first place

Don't speak German, sorry.

BoB = Bring own Booze is what that means here in the USA. No clue what your meaning is. But hey you live in your own world. If it gives you release and you think it gets to me, enjoy I'm happy for you.

yeah

but I think if you check most servers mods loads have a history in some archive or deleted bans list's somewhere ..

it really is crazy even the well known cheats are mods in servers and it is so funny when they kick

you for silly things like hugging ect. to think they are full on caught cheats

I also hear Protos is absolutely terrible running scripts 4.0.

Funny thing is he used to be able to kill people like HaTe or i0ncloud without breaking a sweat.

Paddy used to be a cheater and was banned a lot of times but that was a long time ago.
