Hello everyone.

A few days ago I was recording some gameplays and someone had the idea of publishing them here on Renforums. I thought it'd be the perfect thread for everyone to show their gameplays, moments or favorite videos.

This should be a great opportunity for people to show and promote their channels and livestreams.

(I looked for other video threads and found none).

Let's enjoy the Anniversary Week and showcase the best vids we have. :gdi: :nod:

Over this last week I barely entered Renegade online, as I was gathering material for a special video I was making to celebrate Renegade's 22 years of existence. Here it is.

I also have a short vid showing the Ion Cannon Tribute, that we did last saturday in the Anniversary server.

There are plenty more other Renegade videos in my playlist, and many other to come in the next days on my YT Channel. I'll be playing during the anniversary week every single day and recording at least 1 or 2 matches, like I did last year.

Post your videos, gentlemen!

Another Renegade tribute of mine. This time, it's for the whole community that celebrated along with all of us during the past week and shared great moments within this game we all love.

This one took a while to make lol so I hope you enjoy it.

You can access it in single player by pressing F8 and typing "spectate", you'll be able to do so. But be careful, as trying to come back to gameplay mode (typing "spectate" again) will make your game crash.

But that footage was recorded in the ReneWars server, where you start as a spectator before you join the battle.

Furthermore, you can ask for a mod/admin permission to spectate. I did it once a few years ago during a Field match in RenCorner.

This video is amazing!

It also makes me excited to see clips from the ReneWars server haha, even if your UI is hidden at that point I can see quite a few clips of gameplay from there :)
