For some reason I thought this topic might draw out a few stories.

My answer would have to be the time I was a Raveshaw on the Under map...a poorly-driven tank fell on me while I was under the big shelf of rock in the middle of the field (does it have a name?). The guy lost his tank, but I was underneath it, dead, surprised, and laughing at my luck. The third-person view only added to the effect.

HTDanaFor some reason I thought this topic might draw out a few stories.

HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA.... I have to admit, That was Me who drove that poorly Driven APC that landed on top of you. It was so funny. I laughed so hard after it happen.

See this is how it went. I drove up the mountain with the APC on Under to get rid of some Nod SBH's that was on the Hill attacking my team that had tanks on the field. I killed two of them and there was one trying to run away and jump off the hill. So I went and chased after him and ran him over before he had a chance to jump over the edge of the Hill. But since I was going downward of the hill, I was trying to go in reverse after I ran him over but it kept going forward cause I went full speed down the hill. So I tried to reverse and go backwards but my APC kept going forward and went off the edge of the Hill.

So at this point I'm thinking to myself "Damn I'm about to lose my APC". Until my APC just landed right on top of you HTDana. And immediately I started laughing as my APC blew up and I hopped away unharmed. Then all of a certain I just hear HTDana say, "I just got killed by a poorly driven APC." I started laughing some more.

I didn't mean to kill you know. Shit happens. You know at the same time when I saw those post I started thinking about when my APC accidentally fell on you. Then I click on your topic and saw that you typed it.

probably a few days ago when I was playing Conquest Winter...I was chasing after an apc as a Raveshaw...almost had it killed when another apc jumped over the hill behind me and landed in front of me (I was crouching so the apc would have a harder time finding me). I was about to kill the other one too when it got in the way, realized I was there and backed up over me before I had a chance to get out of the corner I put myself into

My first post should count as my funniest death on Renegade. My dumbest death has to be my first time playing the C&C City Flying map, when I jumped off one of the tall buildings to see whether I'd die (I had to know whether the game was at all realistic--never mind the rest of the plot). At least I had the brains to do it with a free character--it was a small price to pay for humoring my sense of curiosity.

ah....lagtastic I must say. The good ol' days when Yokohoma was a 52- City_Flying--> APC rushing on the little road on the bottom, when suddenly a light tank killed us, and ignored me ad walked away, as I was standing there waiting for the harv to put the c4 down, I see a stealth tank fling off the top of the bridge right onto me . I was watching it fall on me also. The best part of it all! He was lagged back to the top!

Twas in Walls_Flying on a clan-only server that Taskbot7 made for us to snipe on. Of course, we're just having fun, and the teams ended up being myself on a team with Taskbot1, while Taskbot7, Priestofb, and another clan member were on GDI. I sneak into their base as a BHS, only to engage Priest and my other clan mate near the refinery. Not paying attention to what was behind me -- the harvester pulling out of the silo, I get squashed by it while I'm combatting.

Come to think of it, Java, I don't think I've EVER seen you play as anything other than a Deadeye/Black Hand sniper. Huh.

Anyway, my dumbest death? It too was on Walls_Flying. I was sniping on the plateau as a Deadeye, when a SBH suddenly attacks me from behind. I engage in battle with him, strafing to avoid a swift death from repeated headshots. Not watching where I was walking.. well, you get the idea.

Too many times to remember.

-Going up the tunnel on the GDI side tunnel in conquest winter with a humvee, only to meet 2 flame tanks at the top.

-Me and my clan mates a year ago, took a mammoth and put it under the cliff in walls, and drove a light tank off the cliff, landing right on it, and driving around the map together, being the ultimate killing machine.

-On city, me and a clan mate on Nod, both of us techs. One of us ran backwards, the other forwards repairing eachother as we went along into the warfactory. Mined it, and just sat there repairing eachother as 3 soldiers tried to kill us.

-Recon Bikes on the huge hill in Country Meadow. Go up, start turning on the way down, and you keep spinning really fast.

-Seeing my apache get stuck in the GDI PP on walls flying after bailing out.

-Messing with the presets, made the light tank really fast, spun around VERY fast, shooting MRL missiles out of the turret, at poor helpless civilians.

-Messing around with the presets, "Nuns with guns".

-The "holy chicken" in the chicken mod, kill it, and a sedan will fall from the heavens and squish you.

-Taking a sedan on city flying, and riding up the roof access ramp on the WF, getting stuck on the edge, making it look like a tail stall.

-Having Orca races on country meadow, having to land on the helipad, then flying back. I mined the helipad, killing everyone else who raced.

-Making the gun boat have the "Hunt the Player" script.

-The Ren Alert beta test, all of them, before they went public.

-The chicken mod

Theres more, but I can't think of them. Later.

As Nod on Mesa.

Drove apc to AGT, parked so it was hidden.

Defused like 8mines inside and outside AGT and placed my timed and remote(I was tech).

Ended up dying from my own timed and didn't blow my remote, ie total failure + GDI got our apc.

I was SOOO pissed.

ALSO (same map)

STank to back of wep with beacon. I spread proxy and drop my timed then start to drop the beacon. Well the wep fact has a bug that if u stand behind it at a certain spot you get 'ran over' when GDI builds a vehic. So I lose tech+stealth tank+beacon all beacuse of fucking westwood.

Once again, hella pissed.

I'm not sure about the funniest way I have died but I know the funniest way I have killed someone. It was on hourglass and I was GDI, I bought a seden and drove it over the hill to Nod. The obolisk didn't hit me as it was distracted so I managed to get down the hill. Near the bottom is that tunnel that you can drive off the top. I drove off the top of that and flew through the air. In mid air the seden killed someone who was standing in the way and it appeared that I head shot someone with a seden. I'm not sure if it is possible but I know shortly after I landed I fell trough the map into infinity. It was funny how it happened though.

Once I get the time to work on it every day again. I started it for my "february vacation". Been to busy since. I have most of the "infantry" down that you can have. Basiclly the same model (I dont want to model another chicken, it would probley look like crap). Theeeen, I have to re-bone the "KFC mobile" because it likes to crawl the inside walls of the Barn when it is created. I've just been boning things wrong and vbeen too lazy to fix them. We need more map ideas, and more vehicle ideas, then we should be set. Got any idea's yourself? kidrage11@attbi.com

Back to the topic.

- Me trying to model this room I'm in now for a giant Death Match.
- Having 24-0 record in sniping games.
- Messing with the presets, making the MRL rockets curve back and keep trying to hit you until..they do. They even went through the ground.
- Vengeance Beta, with the Kirov.
- Giving the normal gaurd tower snipers ammo. That thing is pretty accurate.
- "Parachuting" with gerndader on his "awesome" map.
- Getting "merged" with SomeRhino on his test map.

Some otheres, but I have to run, later.

I know I've died a million stupid ways, but what comes to mind right now is the stupid way I didn't die.

It was Siege on The Pits. I was a grenadier in some of the tunnels since the game just started and lately I've been getting some lucky shots with that guy. Anyway, I was chasing a Nod soldier up the ramp leading to the spot that overlooks the Nod base. I had him in the yellow, while his shots were more accurate than mine and I was fading fast. We hit the top of the ramp and Mr. Jumping-and-strafting jumped right over the barbed wire and back into the Nod base... where he could no longer see me, much less kill me. I hobbled back to base with 9 life.

During a fight in the tunnel in Field, I was a light infantry and decided to throw my timed C4 down before I died. A sniper killed me shortly after I threw the C4. I got a Mobius and raced back into the tunnel, hoping to catch the sniper off guard. I ended up walking over my own C4 just as it exploded. I was the only one killed.

I was playing City Flying and I had a sniper with a transport helichopper. I flew in straight at the Obelisk and got as high as I could. It just happened that my chopper blew up directly over the Obelisk. I fell out (obviously) and I landed on the very top. (very surprised that i didnt fall off) For some reason, the Obelisk was shooting at me, (kinda like Hourglass), but it wasn't killing me. (musta been a bug) So, anyways, I was sniping from there, laughing my ass off, and there was a BHS, who shot me in the leg. I moved left to avoid any more shots, but fell off the Obelisk. The Obelisk shot me in the air, as i was falling. I then hit the ground, already dead.

The stupidest way I ever died was how I'll sometimes put a buncha timed C4 on a buggy and then drive it somewhere and hop out as a black hand and wait for people to take the bait. (I only use this stupid tactic when I'm EXTREMELY bored and want to fool someone) Anyhow, I was on under and I drove onto the ledge, set up my trap, and waited. Well 10 seconds later someone pushed my buggy off up there with a nother tank... So It falls and narrowly misses me... I am all "Phew!" Then my C4 explodes... BOINK

Ok, i was repairing the War Fac and i had just fin rep'ing it and i put my time c4 on the mct so the next person who comes in gets a shock, i then turn round and get squished my a sedan that had drove into the WarFac, i then spawn up in that PT in the war fac the one closest to the MCT and it was basicly the exact place i died, i had strangly enough spawned up in the enemys sedan and i was standing in the middle of the sedan as this guy was driving it?? Then i time c4 goes off that i layed before i died, thus blowing up the sedan and then i was free from the sedan and the other dude who killed me was too, then for some strange reason i had a time c4 on my head?????

I have no idea how it happend, so i just ran as close to the guy who just lost his sedan, lol it was great running after him while he was running away like a headless chicken.

Then the C4 blew and for some strange reason it said i killed him, and he killed me??

How F'ing strange is that?

Yeah thats not to uncommon... I am always a sniper and on city when I go up there. When I'm trying to kill something thats firing back I strafe all over and alot of times I'll just be going to the side while in the scope and go "hmm... everythings moving upwards now...?" I was on Nod, on Under and my team was getting kicked around. After many tries with my stalth tank, I gave up and bought a SBH. I came out of the tunnel and killed an engineer. I then proceded up the hill, but I was running backward, so...I never did see that Mammoth.

I fell in the PP funnel and had to C4 myself.

Got run over by Chinooks, Apaches, and Orcas.

I also got sniped by a pistol once.

I was NOD on C&CField recruiting new clan members with a fellow clannie...

The game had just started so we got engineers and were rushing their tib refinery...the two of us encountered 3 enemies near the mouth at their ref...i continued to rush to the ref right through them...funny thing they didn't seem to see me rush by...so 3 enemies were semi-in the tunnel fighting my partner, while i went and laid c4 on the ref....as i turn around to leave i see the enemy come back into their base right outside the tunnel and instead of shooting me they turn around and begin typing to my teammate that they had just killed...i begin changing guns in a frantic rush doesn't.....

Off topic (since I've already shared my story, mind you)..

Maybe the decision is up to Blazer and Crimson, but Cloudy, I do believe the image in your signature is much too big. Perhaps you should consider resizing it.
