I've also heard that GDI can jump onto somebody in the obelisk to reach the block ledge behind the MCT.1. Two people jump up on the MCT.2. One crouches.3. Jump on the shoulders of the crouching player.4. Then jump to the ledge above.4. Place yur Ion Beacon up there and it'll be near impossible for Nod to disarm it - unless they do the same as you did... by which time it'll have already detonated.Does this trick work? I've this tried before, tho the lag was preventing me from jumping onto my team mates shoulders. [August 13, 2002, 20:13: Message edited by: npsmith82]
