quote:Originally posted by ThunderChicken:well, you may know but...oh well.an easy way to destroy the obelisk on Hourglass is to get a humvee and a hotwire and to use the humvee to go ove the hill and away from the tiberium field. then, the obelisk blows you up so just run straight (or whatever) while jumping and just go inside and blow it up. comments?This will only work if you playing a team made completely up of n00bs. This move is so easy to counter that maybe (just maybe) the biggest dumass player can stop you.
