I prefer a good outside spot. I'll plant it then back up a distance and wait for engies. Or even better have a friend previously placed out there with a sniper. I sniped for a friendly beacon-stealth (after saving his @$$) and racked up a nice amount of kills. If it's a small map go ahead and mine the one small entrance and the tunnel. If it's a bigger map there's not nearly enough mines.
