Another tactic i find work well is if you are a sniper and you are in middle of map (somewhere around tiberium field) then you should shoot the nme havester this bring up the "Harvester under attack" message this normally draws out some infantry to find out what the problem is. Normally people think that vehicles are attacking the harvester so they buy rocket launchers, using credits. Then all you have to do is when the infantry walk round the corner to save the harvester cap em in the head
