Goodguy34i only have 2 posts cos i never have anything to say, i read the forums occasionally when i have free time and don't feel like ren and then i switch off my comp...

Excuse my french but "you're a fucking liar". I just checked the web logs, and guess what? YOUR IP OR EVEN NETWORK HAS NEVER BEEN TO THIS WEBSITE UNTIL TODAY

And furthermore, the weblogs also show your referrer url, which means the link you clicked to in order to get here. That referral URL is:

<http://ircd2.lomag.net/~wtdragon5/forum/index.php?s=f3ec86f9eb5ce5e6b5af0625054b4690&showtopic=2535>

Which is basically a "click here and go vote for Scrumfy" advertisement. Ironically posted by someone else who never comes to these forums. Even as I sit here clicking refresh, scrumfys votes are going up, and guess what the referrer URLs are 213.107.x.x - - [27/Aug/2004:07:08:06 -0500] "GET /viewtopic.php?p=110506 HTTP/1.1" 200 99435 "http://ircd2.lomag.net/~wtdragon5/forum/index.php?s=f3ec86f9eb5ce5e6b5af0625054b4690&showtopic=2535" "Mozilla/4.0 (compatible; MSIE 6.0; Windows NT 5.1; FunWebProducts; Hotbar 4.4.6.0; .NET CLR 1.1.4322)"

FFS the whole purpose of voting for someone to fairly moderate the mod forum is that it would be

1. Someone who is a frequent visitor/contributor of the mod forum.
2. The persons voting are also frequent visitors/contributors of the mod forum, or at LEAST members of these forums in general!

The reason for the vote was to find the best person FOR THE JOB...not a damn popularity contest, or to see how many votes someone can spam their way into.

I'm pissed about the way this whole thing has turned out. Crimson of course has final say, but as of right now I'm calling off this "vote". I for one dont want to spend an hour of my time wading through web logs just to find all the duplicate voters and blatant liars like the guy above...and probably no matter who is "chosen" there will be X number of people saying the vote was "unfair". So to hell with it.
