SuperFlyingEngiRidiculous. The lottery draft was started Dec 1, 1969. Bush dodged the draft by joining the guard in May 1968. He dodged the draft BEFORE THE LOTTERY STARTED.

When they use false scams like this, it shows how desperate the situation really is for them. If they were right, they wouldn't need to be lying, now, would they?

EDIT: Grammatical Errors.

How did he dodge the draft if he was never going to be drafted?

Same with Clinton, he did not need to run off to Canada because his Birthday came up after 196 also.

So while Clinton was in Canada and Kerry was in Vietnam, Bush was volunteering for Vietnam in the Texas Air National Guard.

BTW, by that logic he 'dodged' the Draft before the lottery/draft was even announced.

Besides, out of the 600k+ American in Vietnam only 61k were Drafted.
