IncognitoYou have Clash but not "Should I Stay or Should I Go"?

I'm not going to post 330 songs on here...too long to put on a thread. If I stop being so lazy, I may put it on a file and upload it. Maybe, though.

J, i love ya dude but i wish i could come and slap you right now. I hate when people say OMG OMG YOU DON'T HAVE THIS SONG!!! I do have the song in many diffren't recordings duh, however its just like a moron that heard 2 AC/DC songs there entire life and say "Omg you don't have 1121 thunderstruck" just because they heard it on a movie that took 7 minute or so song and made it a minute long. ALL OF THE CLASHES SONGS ARE GREAT, not just the few that have been publisised lately after the recent out break of little faggots thinking there cool because they butcher punk rock almost as bad as i do the english language.
