I wouldn't really wouldn't want to go back in time , i don't know why but it's just history to me.

I'm sure some Oldie here has seen the Twilight Zone episode where the man goes back in time and finds himself in the 1800's right before Lincoln is about to be assassinated. He tries to tell everyone and is frantically trying to save Lincoln, but he ends up in jail. He heres while in jail that "the president has been assassinated". He realizes that even if you go back in time, you can't change the past. You can go back but things will still happen. You could try to stop 9/11 but you wouldn't be able to stop it. You'll end up in jail all depressed... Then go through some time warp thing and end up back in your gentlemens club.
