MadtoneMoving from Australian tropical weather (45 degrees celcius) back to London at winter (0 degrees celcius) is TORTURE!

I used to wakeboard every day in the Brisbane river without wet suit, basicly in just my boardies an life vest..

But in London i don't even wanna get in the water with a thermal wet suit...

I hate the cold

Why'd you move to London? I'd kill to live in Australia.
