Basically it's just a mess about for the oldbies of the community to show their faces and just talk about stuff and have some fun. I've got so many good memories from the olden days of Renegade, just can't let Renegade go, lol. I'll have to sort out hosts etc, but I'll need a rough idea of who's coming.

Sniping skills aren't required really, I haven't touched this game in a year.
