That's kinda what I figured. It's just annoying peoples responses with the renguard thing. And the constant popup "Download me!" .. It's really made me consider setting up a public renegade server on a 10mbit, called "NO BULLSHIT, NO STUPID" ...

Cheaters are gonna cheat regardless, I'd rather have some cheaters in a game then install software from some unknown source. No offense intended, My dev's release software all the time, but i provide all the source and am welcome to criticism's. To just "take your word for it" seem's kinda poor.

Just my opinion I suppose.

Thanks for the response.
