i mean just for shyt's and giggles i got this hostin site just to put stuff up on.. (where i got the bandwidth figgures from)

and i either have to repay for another year.. or just do sum thing else..

2D Presentz! - STS productionz

those are just sum BS videos i did for fun in movie maker but dumb flicks like this get me paid filimin other things..

so im just kinda tryin to take it to the next level.. and maybe get a "real" site goin this year just wanna figgure out what are sum good hostin sites that wont rip me off.. or should i just invest in a server..

i dont know jack about either....
