Limewire is an amazing downloading application. It really it much better then anything else I have used. I recommend it to anyone. http://www.limewire.com

The links that I blurred are to the servers I run as I feel that info is private to myself so that is why I blurred the server link and Remote Desktop Connection links. The server link is also right next to the link to my FDS folder.