JavaxcxcowmisfitNo no no, your missing the point here.
Im telling the truth, he's father is instilling values that make him a horrid excuse for an American.
His claim doesn't make mine false. I win.

No, THESE are examples of ad hominem:

Quote:Jesus chirst your dumb.

Quote:awww is the baby offended by my naughty words?? I think it helps to get my point accross.

Quote:Ya see my point?? Didn't think so.

Quote:

Ah, I don't expect much from you so im not all that disappointed.

Ad hominem is, in laymen's terms "attacking the person but not the issues". Which is something you are known for.

I add these "Ad Hominem" things around me attacking the issues. I attack the issues i just add little insults into for effect. (o and before you post again, i dont' give a shit if you don't think i need the insults, its just me, if your dumb im gonna say your dumb, if your views suck, im going to say your views suck. get over it.)
