Wow, talk about an old post staying alive.

It is part of the game and you should defend to the strategy. I see a lot of "Pro" players get lazy after taking out most of the base and not defend to it. If the server owner has it on, deal with it. If you can't, then I would say stay off the servers that have it on.

Variety is the spice of life, I just have to keep convincing my wife of that. hehehehehe.
