Quote:Long known to be one of the most conservative bodies in the United States, the Virginian State House of Representatives has broken new legal ground by voting to outlaw exposed underwear, in an attempt to restore sartorial standards in suburban towns such as Richmond and Norfolk.

Yum, that's a juicy piece of bias right there.

"Yet another insane law passed by that crazy Virginia House of Representatives. It shouldn't be a surprise, though, because Virginia's legislature has a history of being 'conservative;' this isn't out of the ordinary for those Republicans."

:rolleyes:
