Don't recognise the game, and I've only got 20% into it (bored of waiting, I wanted to see!) and it's obvious... Is this the best punishment that can be given or can this fool be banned?

Mind you everyone knows about it so I guess it's doubtful he'll get away with it now...

Btw is the music supposed to have an echo on? My soundcard was set to 'Auditorium' yesterday and it sounds the same, even though the effects are off..
