Wtxhavocarent there any free servers

Sorry but that was very funny....

I host from my own home, I have a spare computer and a high speed DSL connection. The only problem is your server may have a lot of epople getting the negotiating post with server error.

My connection is 3.0MB/800Kb up/down respectively. With that I can do up to 14.

or you can rent from one of those already mentioned providers which I do aswell. Servermatrix owns
