WNxCABALHow the fuck can you play Renegade when somebody is spoiling it for everyone else?

Exactly, I'd rather the cheater not be there in the first place rather than get killed a hundred times, lose the game, drop a thousand ladder points (whatever that means) and about the same in the rankings, plus get mightily pied off that some a-hole decides to f*ck about with a game that I'M TRYING TO PLAY PROPERLY, find out who this bastid is and get it kicked, then banned because the imbeciele (sp?) would no doubt come back to inform us that "I am teh ownz0r, I am so l33t" and make me want to punch it's lights out, even if it's a 13 year old kid.

I've probably gone too far, but it's my opinion
