warrantoHere, I'll spell it out for you.

Initial post: "The war in Iraq is bad!"

You: " We are fighting to kill the people who ordered and carried out / harbor / fought for the MURDER of 3000 inoccent americans on 9/11"

So I say again,

Who ordered the 3000 murders?

Here i'll spell it out for you.

Initial post: The war is bad, its just fighting to get what bush wants, I hate bush, "Is fighting for bush worth dying for"

Me: Quote: Fighting for HIM as in his life as a normal man, No. If he was assasianted THEN he is worth figthing for because that involves a attack on the office of President of the United States and the nation itself no matter who the person in office is.

Now, we are not fighting for him. We are fighthing to defend America and its freedom and security. We are fighting to kill the people who ordered and carried out / harbor / fought for the MURDER of 3000 inoccent americans on 9/11 and thousands of others around the world. We are fighting to not only protect our freedom, but spread it to others accross the globe and stop the senseless murder of thousands of innocent people in countries such as Iraq were suddam ordered killings left and right, not just killings but out right tourtcher and attacks on his own people for nothing more than religious diffrences.

That you idiot, is worth dying for.

AKA I answered both of his questions. I stated an answer to his question is it worth fighting for, and i also told him why we are fighting and why the war is NOT bad.

Now back to your question , it does not deserve an answer. Its just like you idiots saying "when did saddam threatin us with weapons and war lik omfg" Its basic knowlage and commen sense. The fact that you even have to question clear knowlage and facts like that automaticly throws any opinion you ever state out the window.
