86) you try more than once to sneak behind enemy units and plant a beacon to destroy them.
87) you buy a vehicle while enemy vehicles are all over your airstrip and pounding the living crap out of it

88) someone sets up a mod where everything dies in one shot, and you, as the tech for the game, release ren 1.038 with it incorporated to completely ruin gameplay.

89) you were the one who set up the one-hit-killing mod.
90) you throw mines on the outsides of buildings in the hopes that enemies will brush past and blow themselves up.
91) you single handedly rush over the hill on hourglass with a flamer when they have meds/mammies all set up in defense.
92) you think one land mine in the middle of the field will destroy a full armoured tank.
93) you have the cheek to repair your tank whilst it is getting attacked.
