Dolt. I was mainly pointing out the fact you said you HAVE the screenshots in those posts. God forbid, you know what you're talking about otherwise you'd have made a dumbass out of yourself oh wait.

And can you explain to me how I'm trying to act cool ? If by cool you mean going to a forum and asking to get unbanned whilst insulting the people and then making another topic saying you were sorry. Well then I guess I have to say I'm not that cool.

Oh and by the way.. how is that considered "english"
Just wondering
