This pissed me off on so many levels. The just of it is:

- He saw girl going 90mph
- He put on sirens
- Girl sped up to 110mph
- when girl finally stopped He pulled out gun for protection just incase
- higher ranking officer shows up to the scene
- girl says she just did it because she had to go to the bathroom(nevermind everyone's safety)
- girl says she is getting a lawyer
- higher ranking officer relieves My clanmate for pulling out the firearm
- clanmate could spend time in prison now

I hope this lady speeds into a telephone pole, and doesnt walk away from it.
