The site does not work properly in Firefox uh, actually yes it does danpaul88 wrote on Wed, 28 September 2005 17:14You cannot bookmark the main page of a game section, meaning you have to scroll down the stupid list to find the game you want to go to.

danpaul88 wrote on Wed, 28 September 2005 17:14The top menu for the renegade section (and probably the others) is bandwidth heavy, taking a few seconds on my 2mb connection.
then you don't have 2mb danpaul88 wrote on Wed, 28 September 2005 17:14Overall getting to the admin section for a clan takes about 4 pages

...and a grand total of ten seconds?

danpaul88 wrote on Wed, 28 September 2005 17:14Their 'forums' for clans are hidden away below a load of other (mostly useless) information, so most people don't even notice if you post something.

time.
I think you're right... LMSBC using clanwars.cc really would be a waste of time. Last time I clanned against them, we beat them sniping (even though I never snipe) and they threatened to hack us because they lost.
