I want renguard and core patch 1 but ppl keep telling me to egt the standalone version. I tried doing the user control thing in regedit where you change the number too a zero but the patch still won't work. Ever since my renegade got deleted the core patch won't even show up when i click on renguard. i can't find out whats wrong can someone please help me???

Is there a link of somesort where you can download corepatch one and still have renguard???

Is the stand alone version compadible with renguard???

Please help!

Yes, the standalone version of CP1 is compatible with RG. Yes, there is a download link...however I don't know where to find it
