As of now, my budget is a little bit low end. I currently have $200. And if I can sell my computer for 400, (hopingly), then that gets me closer to my goal. I guess my overall budget is targeted at around 600 - 700. I also have a hobby selling web templates, but I have not sold much of any lately. I could also make a deal with my parents to "pitch in".
