I think it would be better if it was made so that only snipers do less damage to vehicles. This could make the game balanced.

But I think that this change, or your changes could make the 500 snipers a bit less useful, because they will be useful only against infantry now, so if almost everyone uses vehicles, they won't be able to do much.

But I don't use snipers at all, so I don't really care.

For past few days I have seen many noobs who shoot at my light tank with ramjet rifle, which is waste of ammo, and pointless. Don't you think so?
