If you need any help with html coding or digital art, PM me.

EDIT: I suppose if you did want me to help, you would know what I can do in that department.
Here is an example of the digital art and html coding I can do:
http://www.dcomproductions.afraid.org, however, I did not do that flash animation. Another reminder that most of the other pages are broken links, it is far from being done.