- Louis Castle didn't tell which theme it was BUT he said that the tiberium universe was his favorite.

To add onto that. He basically broke down his to favourite games to Tiberian Sun and Red Alert. Later he stated that Tiberian sun is his altime favourite and red alert was close behind.

I personally would love to see another tiberian sun like game. I was never to crazy about Red Alert. I like a more realistic approach and I think the original C&C and tiberian sun grab that genre well.
