Bring on Eric Clapton in May! Ginger Baker on drums! Such a good drummer!

Red Hot Chili Peppers in July. (Met Chad Smith (drummer)).

If I could afford it I'd go to the Eagles' farewell tour. I'd love that so much.

Also, Download and Rosfest would be awesome to go to.

If Queen + Paul Rogers come to the NEC I'll be there for sure. Brian May is a legend of the highest order.

Definatly got the The Eagles on their farewell tour as they passed by me in Toronto last year. My opinion and love for their music was only amplified. There was a 3 minute brass intro to Hotel California, it was stellar.
