People who !force rg me for killing them...because they walked into my artillery shell while I was protecting a nuke. People will !force rg me for anything. Here are some of the reasons:

-(some curses first) killed me
- mining the tunnels (my team and theirs)
- I'm in the game and don't have RenGuard
- They felt like it
- SBH sniping
- Killing their SBH by spotting with scope
- Destroying their buildings
- Stealing their tanks (enemy tanks)
- Grabbing the crate before they do
- When I don't donate to them
- When I don't do what they tell me to (like repair them when one of my team's structures is about to die)
- For spotting a stank rush and not saying the side (because I didn't know the side)
- For suggesting that we use a stank rush
- For ignoring someone who was cursing at me
- I killed them with my pistol (when they had 5hp)
- I had 5000 credits from being in the game and repairing
- I killed their friend
- Because their friend told them to

Is there a way to prevent abuse of !force rg? I don't cheat, and they know it, but they abuse the function. And our Admin does not allow us to install RenGuard anyhow.
