How about you show us what work YOU, as a self-proclaimed game coder, have done, instead of attempting to impress/belittle us with TEH AWSOM TEXT OF TEH INTARWEBZ, which is, by the way, failing.

You call us retarded for replying to your responses. You may take text here on the internet seriously, but we don't. Hell, if an important, intelligent ex-Marine coder like yourself has such important work to do, why are you bothering to respond? Just to amuse yourself and your colleagues? Wouldn't that be wasting valuable working time, therefore making you a bad employee?

Once again, you can either put up, or shut up. But of course, you will go "ROFFEL MAI WURK IZ TEH SECRATZ ADN UR NOT WURTHEE 2 SEEE LOL TYPE TYPE TPYE". Each of the people you have gone against has their credentials listing what they have done, and I'm sure they will show them to you just to shut you up. But until YOU show YOURS, you have nothing to base your arguments on.

You can call us nerds, geeks, losers with no lives, and so on. But what makes us smile about this thread is the fact of knowing that we don't have to pretend to be something else, while you have weaved this web of intricate lies, all to save face in front of some people you will NEVER meet in life.

So, tell me again, who's the one with no life?
