Aircraftkiller! didn't even ban you; you stupid dick... I did a qkick on you because you were talking shit to me.

The reason I'm saying "Defend the Harvester!" over and over, maybe - just maybe IT WAS UNDER ATTACK AND NEEDED EARLY-GAME ASSISTANCE.

You can rejoin anyway on a qkick... Learn the difference.

By the way, I've been playing on The Pits for a very long time now... People know how I do things. If I'm spamming a command, that means the spammed command is telling others that something urgent needs tended to.

For example, hearing "Defend the Refinery!" five times in a row usually means I'm inside of it and trying to repair it by myself when it's getting pummeled into obliteration... It's pretty simple to figure out.

Lol... ack is a good role model. And I don't mean that sarcasticly.
