17:25 What's not to "get" about it? The sheer precision required to fly into the SOLG and take it out in a few hits is awesome enough... couple that with The Unsung War playing in the background and it's truly the best video ever.

Yeah, to those who actually give a damn. I'd be much more inclined to say that a recording of a live performance of Led Zeppelin is the best video ever.

I have to agree to that, their newest DVD of them that came out has to be one of the best videos in my collection.
