I never said that you think people are stupid if they have Bad grammer, i was just pointing that out. Alot of people get Their "Theres" mixed up, and comma's. Actually, I probably just did.

Everyone has small things that bother them, it does not make you an asswiser. Infact, you are not much of an Asswiser.

Another thing that makes you one is not taking the time to understand and consider someones point, or message etc...not that you would have done that.

Quote:I don't think people can define themselves... They'd have to be defined by others.

In alot of cases thats true. In my opinion, you are a more Considerate person
