Because I didn't explain that it wasn't me. Oh wait. What do you listen to? rap? trance? hip-hop? lol.

edit: oh and Yeah I was just furthing proving that 1. bbence is a cheater and was proven
2. Greg, i don't know if this is one of the NE guys or if he just used one of their nicks, gave him moderation knowing he cheated and 3. Greg didn't do anything when he did cheat.

Which, albeit is not uncommon for server admins and which kind of turned me off this game, where i can't expect a decent game anymore. What's the point of rules in a server if your very own moderators can't even abide by a few simple rules.
