mrpirateHey... Some of us use (not to mention like) GameSpy Arcade.

Thats all good, but RenEvo intends to combine all the GSA servers, all the WOL servers and REOL servers into one easy to use interface. That should mean no more waiting for ads to vanish before playing your favourite servers and hopefully more of a choice for players. Still, until this is accomplished or large amounts of people begin to play on REOL maybe better games could still be found on GSA when WOL is down.
